Re: Nokia v. Apple Inc., Case No. 1:09-cv-00791

Dear Chief Judge Sleet:

I wish to inform the Court that on April 9, 2010, the date of the Status Conference in this case, I will be in trial before Judge Linares in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey. That jury trial begins on April 5th and is scheduled to continue for two weeks. My partner Jim Quarles, who is one of the primary lawyers for Apple in this matter, will be able to attend the Status Conference and address all issues. Should the Court wish to reschedule the Status Conference until a later date, I can be available when my trial concludes. We have conferred with counsel for Nokia, and have identified May 10 and 12 as dates when counsel for both parties are available. We, of course, will do whatever is most convenient for the Court. I appreciate your consideration of the trial conflict.

Sincerely yours,

William Lee (MO)
