COMPLAINT

COME NOW the plaintiffs, by counsel, and file this complaint against the defendants, alleging as follows:

NANCY MAYER WHITTINGTON, CLERK U.S. DISTRICT COURT

CASE NUMBER 1:04CV01780

JUDGE: John D. Bates

DECK TYPE: Personal Injury

DATE STAMP: 10/15/2004

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 1. This court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 USC 1330(a) as one or more of the claims arise under the laws of the United States.
- 2. This court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1330(a) over the claim against Libya as a state based on the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act 28 USC 1605(a)(7), and the Alien Tort Claims Act 28 USC §1350.
  - 3. Venue is appropriate in this Court pursuant to 28 USC 1391(f)(4).
- 4. Libya has been designated a state sponsor or terrorism. See 31 C.F.R. § 596.201 (2001).
- 5. This court has personal jurisdiction over Libya as a state because the claimants are U.S. Citizens, persons seeking U.S. citizenship, persons present in the United States, and all of whom are refugees and victims of actions taken by Libya against them and/or their property.
- 6. This action is for compensatory and punitive damages for actions against U.S. Citizens and persons present in the United States seeking U.S. citizenship by the state of Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriya ("Libya") and by officials, representatives and agents of the Libyan government. The actions described herein constitute torture, genocide and other crimes against humanity. All persons named in this complaint were a part of a conspiracy to implement acts of torture and other crimes against humanity.
