

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

RUMI v. OBAMA

) Civil Case No. 06-619 (RJL)

---

MEMORANDUM ORDER

(November 9, 2009)

Petitioners Abbas Rumi, Ali Adel Motaleb Aweid Al Khaiy, and Ameer Mammar filed habeas petitions with this Court to contest their detention by the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Since filing their petitions, however, all have been transferred out of Guantanamo Bay and do not remain in the United States' custody.<sup>1</sup> Therefore, their petitions are moot and no longer within the jurisdiction of the Court. See, e.g., Kiyemba v. Obama, 569 F.3d 509, 515 (D.C. Cir. 2009) (holding that Munaf v. Geren, 128 S. Ct. 2207 (2008), bars a district court from entertaining habeas petitions of individuals held abroad by foreign governments).

---

<sup>1</sup> The United States Government relinquished custody of Rumi and Al Khaiy on January 21, 2009, when it transferred them to the control of the Government of Iraq. Notice of Transfer of Petitioner, Rumi v. Obama, No. 06-619 [Dkt. 77]; Notice of Transfer of Petitioner, Al Khaiy v. Obama, No. 05-1239 [Dkt. 61]. Mammar was transferred out of United States custody and into the control of the Government of Algeria on October 8, 2008. Notice of Transfer of Petitioner, Mammar v. Obama, No. 05-573 [Dkt. 88].

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the habeas petitions of Abbas Rumi, Ali Adel Motaleb Aweid Al Khaiy, and Ameer Mammar are DENIED and their cases DISMISSED with prejudice.

SO ORDERED.

RICHARD J. LEON
United States District Judge