Re: Request under the FOIA, in reply please refer to Archive # 20051224CIA157

Dear Mr. Koch,

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I hereby request disclosure of all documents pertaining in whole or in part to the following:

All biographical documents created between January 1, 1985 and July 1, 2005 including reports, intelligence summaries, photos, biographic sketches, profiles, and all other biographical summaries, reports and materials related in whole or in part to the following members of the Taliban in Afghanistan.

- Mullah Mohammad Omar (Mullah Omar)
- Mullah Mohammad Rabbani

If you regard these documents as potentially exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements, I request that you nonetheless exercise your discretion to disclose them. As the FOIA requires, please release all reasonably segregable nonexempt portions of these documents. To permit me to reach an intelligent and informed decision whether or not to file an administrative appeal of any denied material, please describe any withheld portions and explain the basis for your exemption claims.

As you know, the National Security Archive qualifies for waiver of search and review fees as a representative of the news media. This request is made as part of a scholarly and news research project and not for commercial use. For details on the Archive's research and publication activities, please see our Web site at the address above. Please notify me before incurring photocopying costs over $100.

If you have any questions regarding the identity of these records, their location, the scope of the request or any other matters, please call (202) 994-7045 or e-mail me at belias@gwu.edu. I look forward to receiving your response, thank you.

Re: Request under the FOIA, in reply refer to Archive# 20051502CIA190

Dear Mr. Koch :

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I hereby request disclosure of the following documents for inspection and possible copying:

Any and all documents related in whole or in part to the assassination of José Francisco Ruiz Massieu, secretary-general of the Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI), on September 28, 1994 in downtown Mexico City. Ruiz Massieu was a prominent political figure in Mexico. He was governor of the state of Guerrero between 1987 and 1993 before serving as PRI Secretary General and was about to become PRI majority leader in the Chamber of Deputies. He was the brother-in-law of Mexican president Carlos Salinas de Gortari. Ruiz Massieu's brother Mario Ruiz Massieu and president Salinas's brother Raul Salinas de Gortari were later arrested in connection to his assassination. Mario Ruiz Massieu committed suicide on September 15, 1999 while under house arrest in New Jersey. Raul Salinas was acquitted of the murder earlier this year.

If you regard any of these documents as potentially exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements, I request that you nonetheless exercise your discretion to disclose them. As the FOIA requires, please release all reasonably segregable non exempt portions of documents. To permit me to reach an intelligent and informed decision whether or not to file an administrative appeal of any denied material, please describe any withheld records (or portions thereof) and explain the basis for your exemption claims.

Re: Request under the FOIA, in reply refer to Archive# 20051505CIA191

Dear Mr. Koch :

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I hereby request disclosure of the following documents for inspection and possible copying:

Any and all documents related in whole or in part to the assassination of Mexican presidential candidate from the ruling Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI), Luis Donaldo Colosio Murrieta, on March 23rd 1994 at a campaign rally in Lomas Taurinas, a poor neighborhood in Tijuana. The shooter, Mario Aburto, was arrested immediately after the killing and Mexico's attorney general has officially closed the case.

Colosio Murrieta was a prominent Mexican politician. He worked at the Ministry of Budget and Planning under future president Carlos Salinas, and was later elected to Congress in 1985. In 1987 he served on the PRI's National Executive Committee and then worked as campaign manager for Carlos Salinas in the 1988 elections. Colosio served as chairman of the PRI in the early years of Salinas's presidency and later as Social Development Secretary until November 1993 when the PRI announced Colosio's candidacy for president.

If you regard any of these documents as potentially exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements, I request that you nonetheless exercise your discretion to disclose them. Re: Request under the FOIA, in reply refer to Archive# 20051545CIA195

Dear Mr. Koch :

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I hereby request disclosure of the following documents for inspection and possible copying:

Any and all documents related in whole or in part to the joint police-military operation in the municipality of El Bosque in the Mexican state of Chiapas on June 10, 1998. The purpose of this operation was to recover a building controlled by independent Zapatista authorities which housed the offices of the autonomous municipal council of San Juan de la Libertad and serve 15 arrest warrants. The mobilization of over a thousand soldiers and policemen led to the death of seven peasants and one policeman. Nine people were wounded and 57 indigenous people were arrested.

This was the first armed conflict between the state and the Zapatista National Liberation Army (EZLN) since the cease-fire agreed by both parties in March 1994. These events led to several reports issued by various organizations, including the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights.

If you regard any of these documents as potentially exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements, I request that you nonetheless exercise your discretion to disclose them. As the FOIA requires, please release all reasonably segregable non exempt portions of documents.
