peter we need to speak. in our brief interaction i think you find me honest and frank. this relationship is trending in a direction i may not be able to recover.

the customer you met with has declined any interest. their decline was a 'firm' decline.

additional research on our side re your utility from there is finding some inconsistencies in what you provided and what is a matter of public record.

please let me know when we can speak via telephone.

peter,

we need to speak. there are a number of things that have either surfaced or brewing that may undo what we are trying to do here.

until we speak, please stand down on all activities.

again, stand down on all activities. do not expend either money, time or energy until we speak.
