Civil Action No.: 06 1993 (RMC)

JOINT MOTION AND MEMORANDUM FOR ORDER ENTERING CONSENT DECREE AS A FINAL JUDGMENT

On November 17, 2006, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated filed a complaint against defendant seeking injunctive and monetary relief. In its complaint, Delta alleged federal and District of Columbia common law trademark infringement, misappropriation of a trade secret, injurious falsehood, and defamation.

DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY, INC. v. DEREK & JAMAR PRODUCTION, LLC

Doc. 12

Defendant responded to Delta's complaint on February 20, 2007 by filing a motion to dismiss for failure to state claims upon which relief can be granted. On March 23, 2007, Delta filed its opposition to the motion to dismiss. Thereafter, the parties initiated settlement discussions and have reached an agreement that settles and resolves all claims. The settlement has been embodied into a Consent Decree, which the parties file with the Court today.

By this joint motion, the parties petition the Court to enter the Consent Decree as a final judgment disposing of the pending complaint.
