

recopying or reprinting that would make possible the assembly of a large number of the declassified returns. Because the Declassified Factual Return has been prepared in order to reveal to the petitioner the maximum information possible consistent with the Government's national security obligations, it thus contains sensitive, unclassified information that would need to be redacted prior to public disclosure. Declaration(s) that provide a justification for each item not declassified in the Declassified Factual Return will be filed in due course.
