Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

1) Sadar Doe, a national of China, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 277. This petitioner appears in more than one petition pending before this Court, as captioned above.¹ The respondents submit that the first petition filed is operative, and thus all later-filed petitions should be dismissed in accordance with the Joint Status Report filed with this Court.

2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.

3) The detainee is represented in this petition by a next friend. The Protective Order was entered in this case, so counsel has had the opportunity to visit the petitioner and receive direct authorization to pursue the action. Because such authorization has not been filed, however, it is unknown whether the petitioner consents to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner before merits-related matters are scheduled in this case.

4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

- 1) Mohammed al-Qahtani, a national of Saudi Arabia, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 63.
- 2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.
- 3) The detainee is represented in this petition by a next friend. The Protective Order was entered in this case, so counsel has had the opportunity to visit the petitioner and receive direct authorization to pursue the action. Although petitioner's counsel filed an "authorization" executed by a "next friend" purportedly authorizing counsel and the next friend to act on behalf of the petitioner, that "authorization" is inadequate to establish direct authorization to pursue this case. Because an appropriate authorization has not been filed, it is unknown whether the petitioner consents to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner before merits-related matters are scheduled in this case.
- 4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has not been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.

5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 10/5/2005. On May 9, 2007 [dkt # 39], the district court dismissed the petition for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Petitioner has not filed a notice of appeal of that dismissal order. Respondents do not oppose vacatur of the dismissal of the petition. The respondents have not filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

- 1) Abd Al Hakim Ghalib Ahmad Alhag, a national of Yemen, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 686.
- 2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.
- 3) The detainee is represented in this petition by a next friend. The Protective Order was entered in this case, so counsel has had the opportunity to visit the petitioner and receive direct authorization to pursue the action. Because such authorization has not been filed, however, it is unknown whether the petitioner consents to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner before merits-related matters are scheduled in this case.
- 4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has not been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.
- 5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 11/10/2005. The respondent has not filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

1) Mohammed Abdul Rahman Al-Shimrani, a national of Saudi Arabia, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 195.

2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.

3) The detainee has directly authorized this petition.

4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has not been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.

5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 11/17/2005. On May 9, 2007 [dkt # 48], the district court dismissed the petition for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Petitioner filed a notice of appeal of that dismissal order on June 5, 2007 [dkt # 50], and a motion for reconsideration of the court's dismissal order on July 9, 2007 [dkt #53]. The district court granted petitioner's motion for reconsideration [dkt #59 (Aug. 22, 2007)], but subsequently vacated that reconsideration order because of the pending appeal and the court's attendant lack of jurisdiction over the case on appeal [dkt #60 (Oct. 22, 2007)]. On February 27,

2008, a mandate issued from a panel for the D.C. Circuit remanding the case to the District Court for the Court's consideration of the motion for reconsideration under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) [dkt #65]. Respondents do not oppose reinstatement of the petition. The respondents have filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.
