Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

1) Mohammed Ahmed Taher, a national of Yemen, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 679.

2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.

3) The detainee is represented in this petition by a next friend. The Protective Order was entered in this case, so counsel has had the opportunity to visit the petitioner and receive direct authorization to pursue the action. Because such authorization has not been filed, however, it is unknown whether the petitioner consents to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner before merits-related matters are scheduled in this case.

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

1) Majid Khan, a national of Pakistan, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 10020.

2) No protective order has been entered in this proceeding. Because petitioner is a "high-value detainee" detained by the Central Intelligence Agency prior to his detention by the Department of Defense, a protective order specific to high-value detainees and appropriate for the management and handling of TOP SECRET//SENSITIVE COMPARTMENTED INFORMATION ("TS//SCI") associated with such cases will need to be entered in this proceeding. Pursuant to the Court's July 11, 2008 Order, the parties must submit a proposed protective order for use in cases involving high-value detainees by July 21, 2008.

3) The detainee is represented in this petition by a next-friend. Petitioner's counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner after the Protective Order is entered.

4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. 5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 10/16/2006. On May 30, 2007 [dkt # 26], the district court dismissed the petition for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Petitioner has not filed a notice of appeal of that dismissal order, although petitioner filed a "motion to reinstate his petition for writ of habeas corpus" on July 1, 2008 [dkt # 28]. Respondents do not oppose reinstatement of the petition. The respondents have not filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

- 1) Abdul Rahim Hussein Muhammed Ali Nashir aka Abd Al-Rahim Hussain Mohammed Al-Nashiri, of unknown nationality, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 10015.
- 2) Detainee ISN 10015 currently has two habeas proceedings pending in this Court. One, filed in the above-captioned case, was filed by attorney Scott L. Fenstermaker. The other, which bears Civil Action Number 08-CV-1207 (RWR), was instituted by the office of the Federal Public Defender for the District of Nevada. The Nevada Federal Public Defender has also filed a petition on behalf of this detainee in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit pursuant to the Detainee Treatment Act ("DTA"). Mr. Fenstermaker has filed a Notice of Appearance and a Motion to Substitute Counsel in that DTA proceeding. The Nevada Federal Public Defender's office has opposed that motion and has moved to strike Mr. Fenstermaker's Notice of Appearance in the Court of Appeals. Those motions are pending before the Court of Appeals. Further, Mr. Fenstermaker has sent correspondence to this detainee at Guantanamo Bay, apparently in the context of this case, and has marked his correspondence as privileged. Because no protective order has been entered allowing Mr. Fenstermaker to correspond with this detainee in a privileged manner, that correspondence is being returned to Mr. Fenstermaker.

3) No protective order has been entered in this proceeding. Because petitioner is a "high-value detainee" detained by the Central Intelligence Agency prior to his detention by the Department of Defense, a protective order specific to high-value detainees and appropriate for the management and handling of TOP SECRET//SENSITIVE COMPARTMENTED INFORMATION ("TS//SCI") associated with such cases will need to be entered in this proceeding. Pursuant to the Court's July 11, 2008 Order, the parties must submit a proposed protective order for use in cases involving high-value detainees by July 21, 2008.

4) The petition in this case is not authorized by the petitioner. Instead, petitioner's counsel is acting as petitioner's next friend. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner before merits-related proceedings are scheduled in this case. Respondents reserve the right to challenge such authorizations as well as the legal basis for petitioner's counsel to act as a next friend in this matter. See, e.g., Whitmore v. Arkansas, 495 U.S. 149 (1990); John Does 1-570 v. Bush, 2006 WL 3096685 (D.D.C. Oct. 31, 2006).

5) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has not been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.

6) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 6/24/2008. The respondent has not filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.
