Greetings.

I am following up on my request to visit Guantanamo. Please let me know as soon as you can, as I will need to then make request for another time period, change flights at a cost, etc. Moreover, as you probably are aware, there is a court deadline coming up on client authorizations, which will have to be extended if no accommodations can be made for visit before the deadline. Understand you have a lot of visits going on - I am just trying to plan and coordinate - it's difficult to do that when I have to make a plane reservation well in advance of actually getting permission to go visit, which also must be done well in advance. I tried to pick a time far enough in advance to make accommodations easier. If the requested week is not good - perhaps the following week? Or please let me know if there is some other time period that is good, I am relatively flexible.

Good afternoon

As soon as I find out I will let you know. I am not the approval authority, I review the requests for completeness, etc and then submit to Gitmo for final consideration.

Considering the volume of requests submitted in a normal week - it all depends. There are a number of checks and balances in place. If the request form is not complete (or an obsolete form is used) - I will not forward the request. Further, if documents have not been filed with the court - I will not forward the request until I receive verification that this has been done. All habeas counsel follow the same procedures.
