Department of Defense
Office for the Administrative Review of the Detention of Enemy
Combatants at US Naval Base Guantanamo Bay, Cuba

5 May 2006

TO: ABD AL SATTAR, MUIEEN A DEEN JAMAL A DEEN ABD AL FUSAL

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF
ABD AL SATTAR, MUIEEN A DEEN JAMAL A DEEN ABD AL FUSAL

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.

2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

1. The detainee has a Pakistani passport and originally went to Pakistan on vacation in September 2001.

2. The detainee paid for his own ticket from his salary from the Private Holy Koran School in Mecca, Saudi Arabia.

3. The detainee indicated that he thought if he traveled to Afghanistan that he would get credit from God and that since the trip was only going to be for a week, there would be no harm in going.

4. The detainee claims to have participated in the Dawa in Afghanistan.

5. The detainee was convinced by a friend to go to Afghanistan and teach the Five Pillars of Islam.

6. The detainee was captured with 2,000 Afghanistan Dinars, 1,000 United States Dollars, and 1,000 Saudi Arabian Riyals.

b. Training

1. The detainee was identified as a trainer at the al Farouq training camp in Afghanistan. He was trying to become a Kuwadir, a more specialized trainer.

2. The detainee was in Towr Khom, Afghanistan for one month then moved to Tora Bora and camped in Towr Khom because he had orders to stay there. Usama bin Laden visited Towr Khom for one or two days.

3. When the detainee went to Tora Bora he was in Abdul Qadas al Bahraini Camp, which was later taken over by Ibn Sheikh al Libi.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee met a Syrian male, dressed in Pakistani clothes, whom he called Abdul al Moaz, while both were in a restaurant in Karachi, Pakistan.

2. The detainee stated that he believes al Moaz was a trader of some type because he kept containers of honey and perfume at his apartment.

3. Al Moaz took the detainee to a valley and introduced him to an individual named Juheina.

4. The detainee was given a Kalashnikov rifle by Juheina for his personal safety because the Northern Alliance was attacking the valley.

d. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee advised that if he saw al Moaz again, he would be very upset with him and would want to do him physical harm for getting him into so much trouble.

2. The detainee was a fighter in Tora Bora who moved around encouraging people to fight and be religious. People listened to the detainee, because he was educated in Saudi Arabia by Sheikh Muhammad al Shingeti at the Islamic University in Medina.

3. A source reported that the detainee tells fellow detainees to not cooperate and encourages them to cause disturbances.

4. The detainee preaches to those on the block about wanting to kill all Americans to include men, women, children, and babies.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee indicated he was never in the Tora Bora area, just in the valley area and said that if he had known Abdul Moaz and Juheina were al Qaida he would have left right away.

b. The detainee stated he had no knowledge of al Qaida and had never heard of them.

c. The detainee denied having any knowledge of the attacks in the United States prior to their execution on 11 September 2001, and also denied knowledge of any rumors or plans of future attacks on the United States or U.S. interests.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. The AMO is not an advocate for or against continued detention, nor may the AMO form a confidential relationship with you or represent you in any other matter.
