ORDER TO SEAL SEARCH WARRANTS NANCY MAYER WHITTINGTON, CLERK
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

Having considered the Government's Motion for an Order to Seal the Search Warrant and related documents, and Having found this Court has the inherent power to seal affidavits in support of search warrants to protect an ongoing investigation and the safety of confidential witnesses. State of Arizona v. Maypenny, 672 F.2d 761, 765 (9th Cir.); Matter of Sealed Affidavit(s) to Search Warrants, 600 F.2d 1256 (9th Cir. 1979). See also Shea v. Gabriel, 520 F.2d 879 (1st Cir. 1975); United States v. Hubbard, 650 F.2d 293 (D.C. Cir. 1980); Washington Post v. Robinson, 935 F.2d 282, 290 (D.C. Cir. 1991); and

Having found that sealing the search warrant and the supporting affidavit in the above-captioned matter will protect an ongoing investigation and protect the safety of an incarcerated confidential witness, the Motion of the Government is HEREBY GRANTED, and
