Civil Action No. 09 2090

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This matter is before the Court on plaintiff's pro se complaint and application to proceed in forma pauperis. The Court will grant plaintiff's application and dismiss the complaint for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

The subject matter jurisdiction of the federal district courts is limited and is set forth generally at 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1332. Under those statutes, federal jurisdiction is available only when a "federal question" is presented or the parties are of diverse citizenship and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000. A party seeking relief in the district court must at least plead facts that bring the suit within the court's jurisdiction. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a). Failure to plead such facts warrants dismissal of the action. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(h)(3).

Plaintiff, a District of Columbia resident, sues Eleanor Holmes of the District of Columbia "[t]o have congress legal right to expunge Court case" The one-page complaint neither presents a federal question nor provides a basis for diversity jurisdiction because the parties are not of diverse citizenship and no amount in controversy is pleaded. Accordingly, the complaint will be dismissed. A separate Order accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.
