Dear Dianne,

We continue to wait to hear from you with respect to Catherine's contract negotiations. We do feel we should have heard from you some time ago. To date, you have not provided a counter proposal to Catherine's recent contract requests. We would like to continue to move this matter along, and request that you reopen these negotiations with a response which includes critical elements such as contract term, compensation and role.

Obviously these negotiations are not meant to resolve Catherine's EEOC complaint that is pending against Fox. The EEOC complaint is an entirely separate matter, and must be resolved independently of her contract negotiations.

Please let me hear from you as soon as possible and I shall look forward to receiving your counter- proposal..

Best regards,
Henry
