Hey, my apologies. I'm moving so fast this week that when I read your original message I thought you were talking about this coming Monday, not Monday April 21. I can do April 21 at the time you suggested, 1:30 pm PT. By copy of this email let me ask my colleagues to weigh in as to whether it works for them.

I am traveling and unfortunately that time would be tough for me. Could you suggest some times possibly on Wednesday?

Counsel:

I write on behalf of the plaintiffs to request a meet-and-confer telephone conference regarding discovery. Among other things, we would like to discuss entering a stipulated protective order (a draft of which we will circulate shortly), as well as a timeframe for the mutual exchange of search protocols by the parties.

Would you be available for this call at 1:30 p.m. pacific on Monday, April 21? Please let us know if any of that time works for you, and we can circulate dial-in information.

Best,
Mike
