

Plaintiff is a resident of Waterbury, Connecticut, who has named the Executive Office of the President as the sole defendant to this action. See Compl. Caption. The complaint consists of a narrative about events that have nothing to do with the named defendant. Plaintiff indicates that he is filing here because a judge in the District of Connecticut has “banned” him from filing claims in that court absent his filing of “certain paper work[.]” Compl. at 1. The instant complaint and inexplicable attachments fail to provide any notice of a claim. A separate Order of dismissal accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.
