

Plaintiff is a Florida state prisoner. From the long list of defendants, all of whom are in Florida, it appears that plaintiff is suing anyone connected to his conviction for $25 million each. The complaint, consisting largely of vague accusations and unexplained attachments, fails to provide any notice of a claim. A separate order of dismissal accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.

Date: January 12, 2016

United States District Judge