

Plaintiff is a New York state prisoner. He sues two New York officials “for . . . fraud, treason, negligence, and failure to supervise.” Compl. at 1. The complaint does not present a federal question, and the plaintiff and the defendants reside in New York. Plaintiff’s recourse lies, if at all, in state court. Hence, this case will be dismissed without prejudice.

DATE: February 17, 2016

United States District Judge