

Plaintiff, a District of Columbia resident, introduces this lawsuit as “an action of gross medical [negligence].” Compl. at 1. The complaint does not include any cogent allegations against the named defendants to provide notice of a claim, nor is the basis of federal court jurisdiction clear. Accordingly, this case will be dismissed without prejudice. A separate order accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.

Date: August 17, 2016

United States District Judge