

Plaintiff resides in Manassas, Virginia. He has filed a purported complaint against what appears to be a private business. The complaint is incomprehensible and thus fails to provide any notice of a claim and the basis of federal court jurisdiction. A separate order of dismissal accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.

Date: August 10, 2017

United States District Judge