defense and determine whether the doctrine of res judicata applies. Brown v. Califano, 75 F.R.D. 497, 498 (D.D.C. 1977).

This action against the United States and the State of Oklahoma is captioned: "Multiple-Jurisdictional Civil Action For Enforcement of Rights; Declaratory and Injunctive Relief; for Violations of United Nations Resolutions, International Law, Human Rights, and Refusal to Protect Federal Rights" [Dkt. # 1]. The complaint, such as it is, consists of random statements and an inexplicable list of federal statutes. Because the complaint sorely fails to provide notice of a claim, it will be dismissed. A separate order accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.

2