

account. He also states that defendant, as directed by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”), has been involved with the running of his credit report. He seeks removal from defendant’s mailing list, $1 million, and asks the Court to [sic] “normalize the [HUD] service for this nation 90% of [the] problem for this nation [is] coming from HUD.”

As drafted, the complaint fails to meet the minimum pleading standard set forth in Rule 8(a). It fails to set forth a basis for this Court’s jurisdiction and the actual claims against defendant are unclear. Therefore, this case will be dismissed. A separate order accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.
