Civil Action No. 1:20-cv-02346 (UNA)

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This matter is before the Court on its initial review of plaintiff’s pro se complaint, application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, and motion for appointment of counsel. The Court will grant the in forma pauperis application, dismiss the case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii), mandating dismissal of a complaint which fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, and deny the motion for appointment of counsel as moot.

Plaintiff, a resident of Seattle, Washington, alleges that Douglas County (Nebraska) Child Protective Services (“CPS”) committed fraud and violated his constitutional rights. More specifically, he alleges that, in the years 2006–2008, in the course of an investigation, these local Nebraska officials “kidnapped and sold” his children while he was “under the refuge[e] protection status.” He demands the return of his children and seeks damages pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Plaintiff has failed to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. He is aggrieved regarding the actions of the Douglas County CPS; however, he has instead sued the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, the United States Department of Health and Human Services, the United States Department of Homeland Security, and the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services. The intended claims and relief sought from the named defendants is
