No. 10-743C

(Judge Braden)

JOINT MOTION TO MODIFY BRIEFING SCHEDULING

Pursuant to Rules 6(b) and 6.1 of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims (“RCFC”), defendant, the United States, and plaintiff, Google, Inc., respectfully request that the Court modify the current briefing schedule. This is the parties’ first request for a modification for this purpose. The parties request that the briefing schedule be modified as follows:

DATE	EVENT
November 5, 2010:	Filing of the administrative record
November 19, 2010:	Government files opposition to Plaintiffs’ motion for preliminary injunction
December 3, 2010:	Plaintiffs file consolidated reply to Government Opposition and motion for judgment upon the administrative record
December 17, 2010:	Government files cross-motion for judgment upon the administrative record and response
December 31 , 2010:	Plaintiffs file response and reply
January 11, 2010:	Government files reply.

If granted by the Court, the modification of the briefing schedule will help ensure that the parties file quality briefs and these changes should not adversely impact the briefing schedule.

The parties realize that they are not privy to the internal planning of the Court and hope this requested extension is not overly burdensome. The parties apologize for any inconvenience this may cause the Court.

For the foregoing reasons, the parties respectfully request that the briefing schedule be enlarged by seven days, to and including November 19, 2010, to permit defendant to file its opposition to plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction and permit plaintiffs to file a consolidated response to defendant's opposition and motion for judgment upon the administrative record on December 3, 2010.

Respectfully submitted,
