ORDER

On June 27, 2024, Grady Renard Williams, Jr., also known as Abdul Malik El Basir Bey — who is currently incarcerated in Georgia — filed a complaint in this Court alleging that his imprisonment violates his constitutional and civil rights. See Complaint at 1 (ECF 1). At least three of Plaintiff’s prior civil actions have been dismissed as frivolous, malicious, or for failure to state a claim. See Order at 5, Williams v. United States, No. 5:21-cv-00061 (M.D. Ga. April 2, 2021) (listing cases dismissed with prejudice for failure to state a claim). As a result, Plaintiff may not proceed in forma pauperis — which, for prisoners, involves payment of an initial partial filing fee from a prison trust fund account followed by subsequent monthly payments in amounts determined by a statutory formula, see 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b) — unless he demonstrates “imminent danger of serious physical injury.” See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). Mr. Williams’ Complaint did not indicate any such danger. On July 1, 2024, I therefore ordered Plaintiff to pay the full filing fee of $405 within 30 days. See Order (ECF 5). The Order specified that “[i]f Plaintiff does not comply, the complaint will be dismissed for failure to prosecute.” Id. As of today, Plaintiff has not submitted payment.

Because Plaintiff has not paid the filing fee or shown that he is qualified to proceed in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), the case is DISMISSED for failure to prosecute. See Rule 41(b), Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims. The government’s motion to dismiss (ECF 7) is DENIED AS MOOT.

The Clerk is directed to enter judgment accordingly.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
