On february 5th 2007 I attended a free seminar on real estate investing and was told that I needed to spend $995.00 to attend a three day workshop on real estate investing. I accepted the offer and paid with a credit card.

On March 2nd 3rd and 4th I attended the work shop only to find out that the so called work shop was another promotional attempt to educate me at the

The title of the seminar was 'focus on foreclosures' but only about 20% material covered very hi level generic stuff on foreclosures you can find $15 book...the rest was a 'high pressure sales' job. I think we got the $1 worth of info to get us going, but regret having spent 16 x2 hours of our weekend plus the 'vacation' day I took from work to go sit and listen to sleazy sales man lead you like a "pig to the slaughter" on how to get $30K in debt...if that's your idea of fun..then go for it other wise steer clear today's changing market?. We would receive Continuing Education Credits. The speaker said we could learn the proper way to approach this lucrative market?. He said there is a 3 day course in 'well-tested methods that focus on high integrity'. We could learn all we needed in one convenient program. We had no way of knowing we had just signed up for a Russ Whitney sales pitch for $199. Russ will be impressed with the importance of full Disclosure and fair dealing with the Real Estate Community here in the Northwest. Realtors need to accumulate 30 hours of continuing education (CE) before they can renew their licenses. This will be a state wide and then a federal involving the Securities and Exchange Commission. The speaker (9/8/06) there was going to be a certificate of completion at the end of the training program, at the Sheraton Hotel. I verified this with one of the staff on Site at the Embassy Hotel. I needed a credit for Continuing Ed. I never heard from Wealth Integrity Academy until after my Notice of Cancellation had expired that Sept 8th event, I paid $199 for 3 days training in foreclosures, pre-foreclosure financing, assumptions and short sales techniques and strategies. I kept all the promotional advertising leading up to the so called "3 Day Training Event". The Whitney Education Group and the Focus on Foreclosure company is in deep dodo. The event at the Sheraton Hotel was not intended to be training. We were expecting formal education in the subject we paid for. We still have the itinerary damn it! We did not intend to go to an event for the Wealth Intelligence Academy. We couldn't discover this until we were in Seattle on Sept 29th event, and after our chance to use the "Notice of Cancellation" expired. The event turned out to be a 3 day rally for the Wealth Intelligence Academy. I still can't believe we paid $199 to attend a sales pitch. They have been evasive, hoping I will go away. But, I intend to initiate a class action suit for everyone who was ever suckered into a Russ Whitney swindle. come back later to explain the amount of deception that these guys are perpetrating on the public. Get involved.

Not only by Russ I United Mortgage, Gulfstream Development and Douglas Realty. I'm faci foreclosure now because of fraudulent appraisals, facts, credit reports, name it they made it up. There are more than 300 students that I have h that are going through the same thing that I am. "Rich Dad" partner in crime Russ Whitney has brought more trouble to merger. Whitney Information Network has been hit with ANOTHER class suit.

If you are one of the recently deceived customers of this group you should check and see if you can join the suit. Deception is the name of the game Kiyosaki and Whitney. Watch out for them. Here in Kissimmee they scared my girlfriend and me. Both of us were lead to believe Robert Kiyosaki was

In his place were very SLICK salesmen who were aggressively pushing $30,000 to $60,000 coaching programs. My girl friend bought a lower er program and now is being denied a refund. We have not used their so-c services at all.

After reading all of the other people on "Rip Off Report" we quickly saw we were naive and should have gone with our gut feeling we had when arrived at the seminar. Attending the seminar and buying the program strictly due to our misplaced trust in Robert Kiyosaki. With his name or felt we were safe. We were wrong. We are now being given the run arou from the Rich Dad organization..."We are not responsible for this event though it's called Rich Dad Education with Robert Kiyosaki". Are they crazy??? The legal actions say their NOT crazy...but rather deceptive. I have to go to Scottsdale to get our refund in person...WE WILL!!

I am sorry to hear how many people have been ripped off by his company went to work for him 8 years ago, and as soon as I realized what was going on I quit. Just so you know, he screwed me on my taxes being taken from my check, and was just an overall jerk.

Here is what goes on there. He built a company selling "a dream". he lies to all of you. He talks about his customers like they are morons, that don't know that they could buy his book for $10.00, and learn all of the same crap he spreads out over many courses, classes, and mentoring programs. a con artist, who pays enough people off. very simple. I mean, he was in prison for armed robbery! But he doesn't mention that in his seminar. It's about working on a hog farm. Bullsh**. He read up on real estate while in prison. he used his father in law's money to get started.

During his seminar, he shows many pictures of example. What YOU do here, is him laughing over drinks how some of those pictures are of his when he was a kid, and some are of his friends. Not investments of his. Some of them have even been doctored, such as using a marker to make windows, roof, grass, etc. I am not making this stuff up folks, I have BEEN with him and the other staff while he talked about this.

This is his game. He gets you hooked with the free seminar. Then his staff is trained on how to string you along buying more. He even shows you how to raise your credit limits so. Why? So then he knows how much you can pay for your next class. While this is going on, he has a staff of kids trained to be "customer service".

Actually, they are trained to discourage and upset you to the point that you give up on trying to get a refund. They get bonuses on how many "save the get! They act like the phone went dead, put you on hold forever, are rude and you to call back, etc.

The bottom line is this, he is selling cheap and easily obtained info for less money than you can afford. And he doesn't care. he deals in percentages. 70% keep the crap, he makes alot of money. He knows he gets complaints but knows he will have returns, but all he cares about are those who are too or just too discouraged to push for a return. That's it. He is THE most arrogant a$$hole I have ever met personally.

oh almost forgot about this. He has real estate companies, and a building company set up in a different name. What he does is he gets you to his "camp", and then has the instructor take you out to look at real estate. YOU don't know, is that he is selling you HIS properties that he is flipping YOU for a profit! And then you get stuck with some crap house that is a headache, or you can't re-sell. He has his instructor say: "I'll let you in on a little secret. Always do what the rich do.

Well, I'll tell you what Russ is doing, and then take you to the same companies. You can do what RUSS is doing". hahahaha. yeah, right. The instructor takes you to HIS building company (Gulfstream Development) then takes you to look at lots HE owns (Douglas Realty), and talks you into doing an investor/construction loan with HIS mortgage company (United Mortgage) which he acts like is just some well respected mortgage company he likes to use personally.

The "student" is supposed to feel like they are being let in on a big secret. They have an inexpensive opportunity to profit big money like him, doing exactly what he is doing, without him knowing. But actually, you just lined HIS pockets more, and he made money on the lot, home, and mortgage. You end up an overpriced house, in an underdeveloped area, and get stuck with high construction interest payments when the construction drags on, then you actually lose money when you try to sell it because why? Here's the best reason: Because he oversaturated the market with those SAME homes, in the SAME area, all at the SAME time. All built by his students that he acts like he's talking about.

I hope this helps some of you, and pardon me if I sounded like I thought it was all so funny. It isn't, and I know a lot of you have been hurt. I just can't believe myself that he gets away with this.

God bless all of you, and stay away from Russ Whitney. Spread the word.

Well Patty you have hit the nail with the ten pound hammer on this scam I know because he took me for $11000. I have an article on ripped off from medicine hat re. Russ Whitney. The only satisfaction I got was that this site Ripped Off let me vent and tell others just how much this guy screws people. I sure wish I seen your article before I invested in this b.s.. I do know just how crooked this guy is. I never received my software or money or schooling. When I phoned the BBB of Florida they told me there was nothing they could do. That this scammer was reported (several Hundred times). Russ if you or your scamming associates read this I hope you get my cash. Your day is coming, as everyone must answer to someone in the end. You laugh and think you've won....Time will tell...Ripped Off keep up the good work....You don't realize how much you mean to us viewers and writers.Thanks a lot

Was later called by Tim Kane from Draper Utah telling me that they only this other special help teaching to only 1% of all students. That the reason to make a star student out of me by having 16 weeks of coaching and a trading with the pro's. Copying them trade for trade if I wish to really see that I could be an example to help bring in more students. One catch was additional 8,510 dollars.

How could I loose, I thought. They promised me a coach in about a week would receive my first of 16 books sent each week and I would have to studied up on each for the 45 minute phone contact with the coach. We went by and I was luck to get a supposed coach on a supposed hotline this issue. I could not get contact with the main administration office. I call and leave messages, leave emails to the ladies that took my extra $800 dollars. they were so easy to contact when I was paying and totally impossible to contact after getting my money.

After this I got very paranoid and wrote for my money to be returned because I was not happy with their absence and invisibility.

I wrote first to the Utah Attorney General, and was sent to Consumer Protection. Secondly I wrote to the NC Attorney General Consumer Protection Agency. I got up on Line and studied NC Law to see if they were wrong anyway. I found alot. It still remains to be executed by the NC Government

They were unlawful for not first showing me the NC Law and rights of a purchaser of a business opportunity. 2nd They did not show their credit and money earnings to me. 3rd, they did not tell me all the names they were under. (In fact they had me write a check to TMTT "Teach Me To Trade" and only after the fact from my bank statement came the name "Edu-trades Inc")

I would like to help get these crooks out of commission and of course I would like very much to get my very hard earned $24,000.00 (Twenty-Four-Thousand Dollars) back.

It was only after the letters from NC Attorney General did a Michael McIvor Corporate Counsel of 1612 East Cape Coral Parkway, Cape Coral FL 33904 Write back to The Attorney General's office (NOT TO ME) telling them that word for word.

RE: Gary H. Patrie, File No. 0606739

Dear Ms Chipman:

I am in receipt of your letter dated June 12, 2006 regarding the above-referenced complaint. As I understand Mr. Patrie's complaint, he is requesting a refund because he was unable to successfully contact someone from our office to commence his coaching sessions. The nature of this complaint is quite surprising considering we have a customer service department available during the workweek dedicated to handling these types of matters. Since we derive no benefit from not providing Mr. Patrie with his coaching services, we can also find no reason why we would simply deny him the assistance he

Let me start by saying I'm so sorry that you have had such a horrible experience. It is certainly a devastating thing to be taken by anyone, let a multi-million dollar company. A s of today, I am finishing my 2nd day of the 3 day Cash Flow Generator seminar. I was dooped into paying $199 but have gotten some useful in of it. But the useful info is definitely limited. My fiance and I saw the price the "next level of education". We are obviously shocked by these prices were considering, what a good investment, if we only had the money.

For curiosity purposes, I decided to plug in Wealth Intelligence Academy a online search engine. I found lots of negative reporting for all aspects company. What an eye opener! After realizing what kind of company I'm dealing with I checked BBB website. They too don't have nice things to have completely decided against conducting any further transactions with company thanks to you and several others willing to voice their outrage

So Thank You, thank you! I am taking it a step further though! I am going to attend tomorrow's seminar for one purpose only. I will be showing all classmates copies of BBB reports as well as these negative testimonials from website, about this monstrous company.

If I can also save 1 other person, as you did for me, we will keep $8000+ lining Russ Whitney's pockets. As well as save some poor old lady on a security, or a single mom struggling to make ends meet. Innocent people deserve to get scammed just because a company is allowed to get away with it. Hopefully tomorrow's venture into undercover sabotage will be a success. Wish me luck!
