The following is an example of the false and defamatory posts made on numerous websites, but originating from Google Groups predominantly, starting in Oct 2006:

Online Dating: The Mind Games of Anna Kubit

The Mind Games of Anna Kubit - 1.0

For your benefit this information has been collected and compiled from both myself and several other men who have dated Anna Kubit. It is congruent across the board from each man's detailed account of his experiences with her.

7 Anna Kubit is by no means the only woman to play these games, but she is in a very tiny minority of women (about 1%) who will play all of these games in the course of a several week dating period.

Unfortunately, Anna Kubit (and similar) is a woman who dates for the purposes of exerting power, ego boosts and manipulation, rather than dating for the wonderful experience of finding out about another human being and the many natural and pleasurable experiences that can follow.

Out of several men, we have identified 13 distinct, manipulative dating characteristics of Anna Kubit (and similar). We hope this will help keep your psychological and/or physical welfare intact if you should ever run across this woman, or one like her.

The Games:

1 - Shallow initial contact: She'll come on to you, flirt on the phone or in person, even act sexually suggestive with absolutely no intention whatsoever of getting involved on a serious level.

What's her mind game?: She wants to get a rise out of you to assure herself that she's attractive to you and other men. It's an ego boost, at your expense.

2 - The quadruple date: Upon meeting at an agreed upon location for a date, you discover she has taken the liberty of inviting one or two of her male friends, without your knowledge.

What's her mind game?: This is another bid for power. It's a matter of making you jump through hoops, presenting you with the unexpected and then observing your reaction. She just wants to reassure herself that she can control you and other men with her sexuality.

3 - Hard to get: She turns down for your plans for a date or doesn't return your call, even if she's interested in going out with you.

What's her mind game?: Usually this is simply a power play and what she wants is for you to chase her, to determine how desperate you are to be with her. If you bite, then she knows she's totally in control of the relationship and you'll forever jump to the crack of her whip.

4 - Broken dates: She breaks your date at the last minute, changes the time, changes the venue, or perhaps doesn't show up at all.

What's her mind game? She knows that the one being pursued controls the course of the relationship and she wants to ensure that you dance to her tune early on. Many women play this game to see how desperate a man is. If you roll over and puppy-dog it at this point, you might as well just put a collar around your neck.

5 - Unusual or inappropriate requests: Just before meeting for a date, she'll specify what type of clothes you should wear, how you should groom (like dressing a Ken Doll), and will invite her friends on your date that originally was meant for only you and her.

What's her mind game? Besides being downright rude, she's trying to figure out how much she can get away with and wants to gauge your reactions. She wants to be the one calling the shots; she wants you to run after her and have you wonder if she's really interested in you. Furthermore, if she makes you wait for her, she sends a clear signal that she values her time more than she does yours. She wants also to see how well you can handle and impress her friends, as she doesn't have the constitution to judge for herself what she finds acceptably attractive. Therefore she needs the "social proof" of friends to help her make the decision.

9 6 - Expensive dates: After the simple coffee phase is over, she wants to go to the most expensive restaurant, the most expensive adventures. The most exclusive club, the hottest play and expects you to fund the whole thing.

What's her mind game? She's aware that you know that if you don't fork over the cash, you won't have a prayer. To make matters worse, she might even do this if she has unequivocally no intention of developing any type of relationship with you whatsoever. Your credit card is going to be smoking.

7 - Physical Tease: She does everything to set a romantic, sexual setting, invites you to her house, gets you hot and bothered and then backs off.

What's her mind game? This is a perfect example of complete manipulation and exultation of her sexual power over you, plain and simple. She might also play this game to extract more cash, dates, adventure from you (see previous point).

8 - Serial flirt: She flirts with other men in front of you.

What's her mind game?: What she's doing is testing to see how interested you are and underscoring the fact that she's sexually desirable to other men (so you'd better toe the line).

9 - Selfish ways: She acts any way she pleases to see if you'll tolerate her bad behavior or pushes you around to see if you'll stand up to her.

What's her mind game?: She's testing to see "how much of a man" you are (how much control she has over you), as well as arming herself with ammunition for future manipulations, in case you get mad and fly into a rage.

10 - Mind reading: This is a good one. She expects you to read her mind. This includes but is not limited to: her sexual desires, what questions you're supposed to ask or not ask, have a perfect understanding of what her "life goals" are, etc.

What's her mind game?: You are somehow supposed to magically guess exactly what she's thinking, what she wants and how she wants it without her ever having to say a word or elaborate on anything. When, naturally, you fail to "just know," she ruins the entire interaction, usually by saying something like, "the chemistry just isn't there."

11 - Comparison to others: She compares you to some image she has of some ideal guy.

What's her mind game?: She's always looking to feather her nests or "better-deal" you. If she finds a better deal, she'll toss you aside and move on to her next victim... uh, boyfriend.

12 - Crazy antics: She makes you jump through hoops in order to "enjoy the company of her presence."

What's her mind game?: She wants to know just how much crap you'll put up with.

13 - Inconsistent wants: She indulges in contradictory thinking. She wants a meathead-on-steroids type manly man who takes charge, but who has metrosexual traits and can love watching romantic comedies.

What's her mind game?: She tells you that she wants you to show more emotion, but when you do, she brands you as "weak." This is yet another example of her keeping the upper hand in the relationship, by making you feel like she can be the one dumping you if you're not exactly what she wants.

HIV+

When people ask me about this, my only answer is that I don't know if Anna Kubit had the HIV only a few months before we met, or years. It could be either and I will probably never know for sure. But the important thing is that it never happens to anyone else.

WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT:

I am making this post to let people know to be VERY careful when meeting people on the internet and also warn them about this Anna Kubit specifically. Apparently she has done this before and may still be doing it. I also found out later that she is now claiming to be a "dating coach" and that I was just one of her many personal experiments out of dozens of men. I met this crazy girl (I'm sure there are more) and she gave me H.I.V. Don't ruin your life over a fling on the internet. Please be careful!

Quotes from Anna Kubit:

"In my opinion we all have some sociopathic tendencies. Different people to different degrees. You can argue any point in sooo many directions!!"

"This is why I stay home most of the time - as I HATE putting up with people like you. And yes, I am angry - frankly I'm furious that people like you exist"

"I want to go to Florida and make a killing on the backs of as many men as possible."

"I actually saw the movie Basic Instinct and I happen to like Catherine [Tramell]"

(note: Catherine Tramell is the character of a psychopathic murderer)

"the NLP and psychology that I read and study can be used to manipulate people"

"You people on here [usenet] all make me sick"

"Thank you all you interested folks in generating almost 200 hits to my site in the one week that this topic has been in Google Groups. It should put me higher in the search engines and help me with my [manipulative] purposes."
