why can't you help me please explain.

i have helped you so much, and you used my money to pay of your credit cards, to help your credit rating go up so that you can buy a house that you can not afford. and now you even do not want to write a short letter that you have paid for my holidays to help me?

and you dare to ask me "how are you?"

by the way, i have found out who that steve guy is. i traced his ip. he only stayed in naples for a couple of months and originally he is from england. i know everything about him.

anna, it will all come back to you.
what comes around goes around. that you will go bankrupt is just the first thing.

you can not cheat people and behave badly. what makes it sad (especially me in the past) that you even do not realize what you are doing.

and i think you went to far with certain of your actions. actually i am happy that i let you steal my mothers credit card money so that you could higher your credit rating to buy the house that will make you bankrupt. i am happy that i dropped my charges while you acted hysterical with your gun. i am happy i kept polite. because now all will come back to you. and no, i did not needed your letter. you proofed with so many things that you are 1. crazy OR 2. to young to realize OR 3. just a very bad person OR 4. a combination.

and i know more then you think! unto the smallest details!

i never want to talk to you again, these were my last words.
