1

Can the court please explain why it cannot issue me a cease and decist order mandating that the websites remove the clearly false defamation from their websites (as evidenced by an HIV test result) so that I may on my own attempt to remove the defamation from websites like GoogleGroups? I cannot sue a specific person nor GoogleGroups as 1. The person cannot be traced at this time, so I have no person to sue 2. GoogleGroups appears immune to lawsuits as they are not a publisher, yet they will not comply with removing the defamation, even though I have been contacting them to do so for 2 years now.

The only way I can get the defamation removed is if I have a cease and decist order from a court.

Could the court please explain how I may receive the Cease and Decist order? I am a pro se litigant with no attorney to advise me. I am looking for an attorney, but as of yet do not have one.

Kind regards,

Anna Kubit, Pro Se
