This matter comes before the Court on the Parties' Corrected Joint Motion to Enlarge Pretrial Deadlines and Continue Trial (Doc. #127) filed on October 22, 2014. In their Motion, the Parties seek a Fourth Amended Case Management and Scheduling Order, extending all dates by an additional 150 days. In support, the Parties aver that “substantial privilege issues have arisen which have complicated and delayed discovery.” (Doc. #127 at 2). The Parties also note that document production by third parties has been substantial and ongoing. (Doc. #127 at 4). In light of the complexity of this case and the outstanding discovery issues, the Court finds that an extension of pre-trial deadlines and the trial date is warranted. Because these deadlines have already been extended numerous times, the Court is not inclined to extend the deadlines by 150 days. However, the Court finds that an extension of 90 days is appropriate. However, the Court will look with disfavor on future requests for extensions of time.

Accordingly, it is now

ORDERED:

1. The Parties' Corrected Joint Motion to Enlarge Pretrial Deadlines and Continue Trial (Doc. #127) is GRANTED in part.
