FILED

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE
OBJECTION TO REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

1. Jose Antonio Rodriguez Menendez aka Joseph A. Rodriguez (“Menendez”) respectfully motions this Court to grant Menendez extension of time in which to prepare and file objection to Magistrate Pizzo’s Report and Recommendation.
2. Magistrate Pizzo filed Report and Recommendation on June 3, 2009 that Summary Judgment be granted to Kingdom of Spain, that other claimants be dismissed, and that res return to Spain.
3. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. section 636(b)(1) and Local Rule 6.02(a) parties have ten days in which to object to the Report and Recommendation.
4. A second, thirty item batch of Original Document baptismal and/or marriage certificates are presently arriving in Tampa from official archival sources in Spain. Additional, vitally important documents, are now being retrieved by archivists in Spain for shipment to Tampa. These documents include two ancient court rulings containing ancestral genealogies and/or ancient court rulings declaring the validity of the four hundred forty-four year-old Asiento (contract) forming the basis of Menendez’s legal argument in this case. All documents must be perused and translated into English, in accurate and painstaking fashion.
5. Other parties in this case have been granted or are presently petitioning for time extensions in which to prepare and file their objections to Magistrate Pizzo’s Report and Recommendation. Menendez respectfully requests a July 6, 2009 deadline in which to file his objection and an August 7, 2009 deadline in which to reply to any objections.
