Request at first level of appeal with the penalty and bond of 12,500 "dobas" at the behest of His Majesty's Prosecutor in the lawsuit which he conducts with the Heirs of the Adelantado Pedro Menendez de Aviles concerning the pretension that they be granted perpetual title of Adelantado of Florida in their House and entailed estate and that the Crown comply with certain decree of Grace

Don PH Cetta. Attorneys Fernando de Villasenor, Don Pedro de Vivanco y Villa Gomez, Don Lorenzo Ramirez de Prado, Don Luis de Paredes, Dr. Bustos de Bustar ante, I provide Royal certification of the Indies that they might view at first level of appeal the lawsuit litigated between Don Pedro Menendez de Aviles, nephew of the Adelantado Pedro Menendez de Aviles and Successor in his House and entailed estate (having been substituted by Don Martin Menendez de Aviles youngest son of said Don Pedro) and my Prosecutor concerning compliance with the contract which said adelantado entered into with the King my Lord, for the glorious conquest and settlement of the provinces of Florida which sentences were handed down after first and second judicial reviews. The first review absolved said Prosecutor from charges made against him by the Heirs; the second review confirmed that the Heirs are owed title of Adelantado of said provinces of Florida, perpetual title in their House and entailed estate, and that the Crown should comply with a Royal Decree that was granted to said Pedro Menendez de Aviles during the past year of 1609, from Indian rents that become available in New Spain, totaling 40,000 ducados, to be paid as 2 of 20, 2000 ducados each, so that they might purchase 2000 ducado rental units, for incorporation in the entailed estate
