Allen K. Von Spiegelfeld

Attorney(s) for Kingdom of Spain:

James Goold

Attorney(s) for Keith Bray:

Frank D. Butler

PROCEEDINGS: Telephone conference to clarify the relief requested in Odyssey's motions to conduct a hearing in camera.

* The Court asked Odyssey to clarify whether it sought an in camera hearing regarding the disclosures required by this Court's January 10, 2008 orders, or whether it sought an in camera hearing regarding the disclosures required by this Court's March 12, 2008 interrogatories issued in 06-cv-1685 and 07-cv-614. Odyssey informed the Court that its concern related to the responses to the interrogatories.

* The Court directed Odyssey to respond to the Court's interrogatories by April 11, 2008, as required by the Court's March 12, 2008 orders in 06-cv-1685 and 07-cv-614. The Court instructed Odyssey that if necessary, Odyssey may seek a protective order requesting that the answers or portions of the answers be submitted in camera. The Court, upon reviewing these filings, will determine whether it is necessary to conduct a hearing in camera.

* The Court extended the time for the Kingdom of Spain to file its responses to Court interrogatories to May 9, 2008.

* The Court directed the parties to attempt to resolve all other disputes on their own, or to file a motion. The Court stated that if motions are filed, it would not hesitate to award sanctions.

* Orders will follow.
