The Receiver was appointed on January 21, 2009. By January 26, 2009, the Receiver established an informational website, www.nadelreceivership.com. The Receiver has updated this website periodically and continues to update it with the Receiver's most significant actions to date; important court filings in this proceeding; and other items that might be of interest to the public. This Report, as well as all previous and subsequent reports, will be posted on the Receiver's website.

Overview of Significant Activities During this Reporting Period

During the time covered by this Interim Report, the Receiver and his Professionals engaged in the following significant activities:

- As of August 4, 2014, the Receiver has reached 158 agreements to settle with Profiteers and non-profit organizations in the amount of $25,642,331.09 and obtained 18 judgments against Profiteers in the amount of $6,364,671.90, for a total combined amount of $32,007,002.99 (plus additional non-cash assets);²

- Prevailed on appeal in two matters in which the Court had granted summary judgment in favor of the Receiver, but denied the Receiver's request for prejudgment interest; the appellate court affirmed the granting of summary judgment in favor of the Receiver and reversed and remanded the denial of prejudgment interest;

² This amount does not include a judgment in the amount of $4,028,385.00 the Receiver obtained against Don and Joyce Rowe and certain of their affiliated entities (the “Rowe Judgment”).

- Sold the assets of Receivership Entity Tradewind, LLC for $1,200,000 and reached an agreement to resolve the outstanding loan balance and claim held by Bank of Coweta resulting in net proceeds to the Receivership in the amount of $322,482.43;
- Maintained Receivership funds in appropriate accounts. As of August 4, 2014, the total funds in all Receivership accounts are approximately $9,263,546.71, which includes $2,803,646.58 being held in reserves for objections in the claims process and $2,229,463.15 being held in escrow until a claim to these funds is resolved;

- Obtained an order granting the Receiver's motion for approval of a fourth distribution and distributed 346 checks totaling $4,923,843.67 to Claimants holding claims which were determined to be entitled to participate in the fourth interim distribution; seven checks totaling $87,600.75 remain outstanding from this interim distribution.

The above activities are discussed in more detail in the pertinent sections of this Interim Report.

BACKGROUND

I. Procedure and Chronology.

Defendant Arthur Nadel (“Nadel”) was the Hedge Funds’ principal investment advisor and an officer and director of Scoop Management and sole managing member of Scoop Capital. On January 21, 2009, the Commission filed a complaint in this Court charging the Defendants with violations of federal securities laws. In this proceeding, the Commission alleged that Nadel used the Investment Managers to defraud investors in the Hedge Funds from at least January 2008 forward by “massively” overstating investment returns and the value of fund assets to investors in these funds and issuing false account statements to investors. The Commission also asserted that Nadel misappropriated investor funds by transferring $1.25 million from Viking IRA Fund and Valhalla Investment Partners to secret bank accounts. The Court found the Commission demonstrated a prima facie case that the Defendants committed multiple violations of federal securities laws. On August 18, 2010, the Court entered a consent Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief against Nadel which permanently enjoined Nadel from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws and ordered Nadel to disgorge ill-gotten gains and pay prejudgment interest (Doc. 460).

On January 21, 2009, the same day the Commission filed its complaint, the Court entered an order appointing Burton W. Wiand as Receiver for the Investment Managers and Hedge Funds (the “Order Appointing Receiver”). (See generally Order Appointing Receiver (Doc. 8).) Between January 27, 2009, and May 24, 2013, the Receiver sought and successfully obtained the expansion of the Receivership to include: Venice Jet Center, LLC; Tradewind, LLC; Laurel Mountain Preserve, LLC; Laurel Preserve, LLC; Laurel Mountain Preserve Homeowners Association, Inc.; the Marguerite J. Nadel Revocable Trust UAD 8/2/07; the Guy-Nadel Foundation, Inc.; Lime Avenue Enterprises, LLC; A Victorian Garden Florist, LLC; Viking Oil & Gas, LLC; Home Front Homes, LLC; Summer Place

Development Corporation; Traders Investment Club; Respiro, Inc.; and Quest Energy Management Group, Inc. These entities will hereinafter be referred to collectively as the “Additional Entities.” (Docs. 17, 44, 68, 81, 153, 172, 454, 911, 916, and 1024.)

On June 3, 2009, January 19, 2010, September 23, 2010, October 29, 2012, and March 7, 2013, the Court entered orders Reappointing Receiver. (Docs. 140, 316, 493, 935, and 984.) The January 21, 2009, June 3, 2009, January 19, 2010, September 23, 2010, October 29, 2012, and March 7, 2013 Orders are referred to collectively as the “Orders Appointing Receiver.”

On April 28, 2009, Nadel was indicted on six counts of securities fraud, one count of mail fraud, and eight counts of wire fraud. On February 24, 2010, Nadel pled guilty to all counts in the indictment. On October 21, 2010, Nadel was sentenced to 14 years in prison. Nadel died in prison on April 16, 2012.

II. Overview of Findings.

The Receiver discovered that from 1999 through 2008, approximately $330 million was raised in connection with over 700 investor accounts on behalf of one or more of the Hedge Funds by Nadel and his entities, Scoop Management and Scoop Capital; by the rest of the Fund Managers; and by Neil and Christopher Moody (the “Moody’s”) through the offer and sale of securities in the form of interests in Hedge Funds as part of a single, continuous Ponzi scheme. As discussed in prior Interim Reports, Nadel grossly overstated the trading results of the Hedge Funds. Despite significantly lower, and typically negative yields (i.e., trading losses), Nadel, the Moody’s, and the Fund Managers falsely communicated to investors and potential investors, through monthly “statements,” Hedge Funds’ “Executive Summaries,” and other methods, that investments were generating positive returns and yielding between 10.97% and 55.12% per year. For most years, they falsely represented the investments were generating returns between 20% and 30%.

To perpetrate and perpetuate this scheme, Nadel caused the Hedge Funds to pay investors “trading gains” as reflected on their false monthly statements. The funds used to pay these trading gains were not generated from trading activities; rather they came from new or existing investors. Nadel further caused the Hedge Funds to pay tens of millions of dollars in fees. Those fees were based on grossly inflated returns, and thus, were improperly and wrongfully paid. The negative cash flow of the Hedge Funds made the eventual collapse of Nadel’s scheme inevitable.

As mentioned above, on February 24, 2010, Nadel pled guilty to all counts in the indictment relating to this scheme and on October 21, 2010, was sentenced to 14 years in prison. For a more detailed overview of the Receiver’s findings, please refer to the Ninth Interim Report.

ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE RECEIVER

Since his appointment on January 21, 2009, the Receiver has taken a number of steps to fulfill his mandates under the Order Appointing Receiver. For additional efforts of the Receiver, please refer to prior Interim Reports.

III. Securing the Receivership Estate.

A. Securing and Recovering Receivership Funds.

During the time covered by this Interim Report, Receivership funds were held at Bay Cities Bank in a non-interest bearing operating account and two variable interest rate money market accounts. As of August 4, 2014, the total funds in all Receivership accounts are approximately $9,263,546.71, which includes $2,803,646.58 being held in reserves for objections in the claims process and $2,229,463.15 being held in escrow until a claim to these funds is resolved. The Receiver continues to review the appropriate action to take with respect to Receivership funds in light of the current state of the economy. If appropriate and in the best interests of the Receivership, he will move the funds into other interest-bearing accounts and/or revenue-generating investments.

On July 25, 2014, the Receiver filed a motion for (1) possession of brokerage accounts controlled by Arthur Nadel; (2) authorization to relinquish remaining brokerage accounts; and (3) partial modification of asset freeze (Doc. 1133). The Receiver sought this relief to close six brokerage accounts opened or held through Shoreline Trading Group, LLC which were frozen by the Court after the collapse of Nadel's scheme. Of the six accounts, only two have any value with a total collective cash balance of approximately $5,822.60. One account held in the name of the Chris Moody Revocable Trust contained securities which appear to be actively traded and may have some value. The Receiver is in the process of arranging for the transfer of those securities. The remaining three accounts' holdings are essentially valueless, and the costs to gain possession of the contents of those accounts would exceed the value of those contents. Thus, the Receiver sought an order from the Court granting him possession of the two accounts with value, which will entail a partial modification of the freeze order, and authority to relinquish the remaining accounts which contain worthless or otherwise de minimus holdings. The Court granted the Receiver's motion on July 28, 2014 (Doc. 1134). The Receiver is in the process of obtaining the funds from the accounts with value and closing or otherwise handling the remaining accounts.

1. Recovery of Tax Refunds.

The Receiver has sought to obtain tax refunds owed to certain insiders based upon taxes paid in prior years on nonexistent trading profits, periodic taxes paid on anticipated income that was never earned, and/or overpayment of taxes as a result of loss of investment. As a result of these efforts, the Receiver has recovered a total sum of $3,777,343.60 in tax refunds from Form 1045 Applications for Tentative Refund (“Form 1045”) for carryback losses on behalf Marguerite Nadel, Chris Moody, Neil Moody, and Sharon Moody. The Receiver also submitted a Form 1045 for Arthur Nadel seeking the return of approximately $1,183,525.00. The Receiver sought and received authorization from the Court to execute and submit this return and receive any tax refund payable to Nadel (Docs. 1097, 1100 and 1105).

The Receiver also recovered two tax refund checks totaling $1,261,359.33 from Mrs. Nadel as a result of improperly filed documents with the IRS on behalf of a Receivership Entity. Including these two refund checks, the total amount the Receiver has recovered from federal tax refunds to insiders is $5,038,702.93. For more detailed information regarding the Receiver’s efforts to recover tax refunds, please refer to the Ninth Interim Report.

B. Receivership Accounting Report.

Attached as Exhibit A to this Interim Report is a cash accounting report showing the amount of money on hand as of February 1, 2014 less operating expenses plus revenue through June 30, 2014. This cash accounting report does not reflect non-cash or cash-equivalent assets. Thus, the value of all property discussed in Section IV below is not included in the accounting reports. From February 1, 2014 through June 30, 2014, the Receiver received $424,095.57 in business income from ongoing operations of some Receivership Entities;³ $30,749.68 in interest/dividend income; $322,482.43 in business asset liquidation; $2,719,884.07 in third-party litigation income; and $40,972.58 in other income.⁴ (Ex. A.)

Since the inception of the Receivership through June 30, 2014, the Receiver received $6,293,281.12 in business income from ongoing operations of some Receivership Entities; $2,066,501.32 in cash and securities; $960,702.47 in interest/dividend income; $7,146,143.58 in business asset liquidation; $120,000.00 in personal asset liquidation; $65,584,751.66 in third-party litigation income; and $7,146,477.58 in other income.

IV. Asset Analysis and Recovery.

A. Expansion of Receivership to Include Additional Entities.

As noted above, the Receiver sought and successfully obtained the expansion of the Receivership to include the Additional Entities. The Receiver's investigation revealed that the Additional Entities were purchased and/or funded with money derived from Nadel's fraudulent investment scheme. The following discussion of the Additional Entities includes a description of assets the Receiver has acquired as a result of the businesses' inclusion in the Receivership. Assets, including Additional Entities, which have been sold or otherwise disposed of are identified on the attached Exhibit B. Exhibit B includes a description of the asset, any known encumbrances related to the asset, the disposition of the asset, and the amount received from the sale of the asset, and/or the amount of debt waived in connection with the disposition of the asset. For more information regarding assets identified on Exhibit B, please refer to prior Interim Reports. Assets which have not been sold or otherwise disposed of are discussed below.

1. Tradewind, LLC.

Tradewind, LLC (“Tradewind”) owned and controlled five planes and one helicopter and 31 hangars at the Newnan-Coweta County Airport in Georgia (the “Georgia Hangars”). The Receiver’s investigation revealed that Tradewind was funded with money from Nadel’s scheme. On January 27, 2009, the Court expanded the Receivership to include Tradewind. After the Receiver’s appointment as Receiver of Tradewind, he took control of it and continued to operate the business. Tradewind collected approximately $20,000 in monthly rent and incurred varying monthly expenses, which included land rent, loan payments, and various utilities.

The Receiver had possession and control of the Georgia Hangars, which had one known encumbrance: a loan with the Bank of Coweta. The loan matured on June 25, 2012, and was not renewed. The principal balance of the loan at the time of maturity was approximately $874,501.21. The Receiver made monthly interest-only payments of approximately $5,500 per month. As of February 26, 2014, the balance of the loan including interest was $876,505.30 and interest accrued at $182.19 per day. Bank of Coweta timely filed a claim in the claims process for the unpaid balance of the loan. The Receiver recommended that the bank's claim should be allowed in the amount of the principal amount of the loan outstanding at the time of the eventual sale of the hangars, not to exceed $891,628.04, but that the claim should only be paid from the proceeds of the sale of the hangars (Doc. 675). The Court approved this recommendation (Doc. 776).

On March 13, 2014, the Receiver filed a motion to authorize the sale of Tradewind's assets and approve an agreement with the Bank of Coweta regarding its loan and claim (Doc. 1109). In pertinent part, the Receiver agreed to sell Tradewind's assets for $1,200,000 to a private buyer and satisfy Bank of Coweta's loan balance in full and resolve the bank's claim for $869,501.21 – which is the principal balance of the loan less $5,000 for fees and costs incurred by the Receiver to maintain and sell the hangars – plus interest of $182.19 per day through the date of closing. The Court entered an Order granting this motion in full on March 27, 2014 (Doc 1110). The Receivership received the net amount of $322,482.43 from the sale of Tradewind's assets.

2. Laurel Mountain Preserve, LLC; Laurel Preserve, LLC; and Laurel Mountain Preserve Homeowners Association, Inc.

Laurel Preserve, LLC (“Laurel Preserve”), holds title to approximately 420 acres near Asheville, North Carolina intended for the development of home-sites (the “Laurel Mountain Property”). On February 11, 2009, the Court expanded the Receivership to include Laurel Mountain Preserve, LLC, Laurel Preserve, and the Laurel Mountain Preserve Homeowners Association, Inc. Since the Receiver's appointment as Receiver of these entities, he has taken control of them and is working on marketing for sale the Laurel Mountain Property. This property currently does not generate any income. The Laurel Mountain Property encompasses 29 lots, including 23 estate-sized and 6 cottage-sized lots. There is also a cabin home on this property that, according to the Buncombe County Property Appraiser, is valued at $294,000 (as of August 15, 2013). The Laurel Mountain Property's infrastructure is fully developed: infrastructure and utilities are in place and are fully functional. The Laurel Mountain Property has two known encumbrances. The first encumbrance is a $360,157.37 loan from BB&T Bank. The second encumbrance is a $1,900,000 interest only loan from Wells Fargo. There is a monthly payment of $5,149.66 due on this latter loan and the Receiver is not making the loan payments.

3. Guy-Nadel Foundation, Inc.

The Guy-Nadel Foundation, Inc. (the “Foundation”), is a Florida non-profit corporation Nadel formed in December 2003 for “charitable, educational and scientific purposes.” The Foundation was funded with proceeds of Nadel’s scheme. On March 9, 2009, the Court expanded the Receivership to include the Foundation. Since the Receiver’s appointment as Receiver of the Foundation, he has taken control of it and is working on marketing the real property owned by the Foundation.

North Carolina Parcels

The Receiver has possession and control of approximately eight lots that are essentially adjacent to each other and to the Laurel Mountain Property. The Receiver is currently marketing this property with the Laurel Mountain Property. Parties interested in purchasing this property should contact the Receiver directly.

Thomasville, Georgia Parcels

Additionally, the Receiver has possession and control of two small undeveloped lots in Thomasville, Georgia (collectively referred to as the “Lots”). The first lot is a .12 acre parcel located at 211 Church Street (the “Church Street Lot”) that was purchased by the Foundation in December 2006 for $4,000. In 2013, the Thomas County Board of Tax Assessors assigned the Church Street Lot a taxing value of $2,224. The second lot is a 1.17 acre parcel located on North Stevens Street (the “North Stevens Street Lot”) that was purchased by the Foundation in January 2008 for $24,000. In 2013, the Thomas County Board of Tax Assessors assigned the North Stevens Street Lot a taxing value of $10,342.

In the more than three years that the Receiver has been marketing the Lots, he received only one offer to purchase each property. The Receiver determined that neither offer adequately represented the value of the Lots and declined to accept either offer. Given the lack of success in his marketing efforts, the Receiver determined that a public sale by online auction would provide the best opportunity to sell the Lots. On May 6, 2013, the Receiver filed a motion to approve the public sale of the Lots by online auction (Doc. 1011).

On May 8, 2013, the Court approved the Receiver's motion in its entirety (Doc. 1016). The order also authorized the Receiver to sell the Lots for prices which the Receiver believes reasonably reflect the value of the Lots without further order from the Court. A public online auction of the Lots was held from June 1 through June 28, 2013. Despite marketing and advertising efforts, the auction did not result in any offers which the Receiver believed reasonably reflected the value of the Lots. The Receiver is considering other appropriate steps to sell these Lots. Parties interested in purchasing the Lots should contact the Receiver directly.

4. Viking Oil & Gas, LLC.

Viking Oil & Gas, LLC ("Viking Oil") is a Florida limited liability company formed in January 2006 by the Moodys to make personal investments in an oil and gas venture. Viking Oil was funded with proceeds from Nadel's scheme. On July 15, 2009, the Court expanded the Receivership to include Viking Oil. (Order, Doc. 153.) The funds invested in Viking Oil were used to purchase an investment interest in Quest. Between February 2006 and April 2007, through Viking Oil, the Moodys invested $4 million to fund a working interest in Quest. As discussed in Section IV.A.6, below, the Receiver has expanded the Receivership to include Quest.

5. Summer Place Development Corporation.

Summer Place is a Florida company that was purchased by Clyde Connell in December 2005 and from whom Nadel, through Scoop Capital, purchased a fifty-percent ownership stake with total payments of $63,204.99 to Mr. Connell. In April 2009, the Receiver replaced Nadel as Director, Secretary, and Treasurer of Summer Place and Scoop Capital's shares in Summer Place were transferred to the Receiver. The Receiver attempted to sell his fifty-percent ownership with no success. In April 2012, Mr. Connell and Juanita Connell, the only other Summer Place shareholders, relinquished their interest in Summer Place and transferred their membership units to the Receiver in exchange for the Receiver's agreement to pay them one-half of the net proceeds from the sale of assets owned by Summer Place.

Summer Place owns a six-acre parcel in Bradenton, Florida, which has no known liens or encumbrances. Summer Place was originally created to build thirty affordable home sites on this property. However, due to the decline in the market for affordable housing, no development ever occurred. Summer Place has had no operations for several years and currently generates no income. Taxes on the property are approximately $3,000 a year. On September 11, 2012, the Receiver filed a motion asking the Court to expand the Receivership to include Summer Place (Doc. 909). The Court granted this motion on September 12, 2012 (Doc. 911). The Receiver sought the expansion of the Receivership to include Summer Place so that he could market and sell the six-acre parcel of land. 6. Quest Energy Management Group, Inc.

Quest is an oil and gas exploration and production company based in Texas. Paul Downey was its Chief Executive Office, and his son Jeff Downey was its Chief Operating Officer (collectively the “Downeys”). The Moodys, through Viking Oil, used scheme proceeds of $4 million to fund Quest. Through Valhalla Investment Partners, L.P., the Moodys funneled an additional $1.1 million to Quest in exchange for a promissory note from Quest and the Downeys to Valhalla Investment Partners. In February 2009, the Receiver began communications with the Downeys for recovery of the scheme proceeds provided to Quest. After considerable time and effort, the Receiver reached a conditional agreement to resolve his claims against Quest dependent upon receipt of $2.3 million from Quest. Quest failed to make this payment and ignored the Receiver’s repeated demands for payment. In February 2013, Quest informed the Receiver it was having cash flow problems. Because of Quest’s failings and to try to preserve Quest’s value for the benefit of the Receivership estate and, ultimately, for defrauded investors in Nadel’s scheme, on March 21, 2013, the Receiver moved to expand the Receivership to include Quest (Doc. 993). The Court granted this motion on May 24, 2013 (Doc. 1024).⁵ The Receiver filed an Interim Report on Quest on August 26, 2013 (Doc. 1054) and a Second Interim Report on Quest on May 23, 2014 (Doc. 1117) (the “Quest Reports”).

⁵ On June 14, 2013, the Downeys filed a notice of appeal of the Court’s May 24, 2013 Order to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit in the name of Quest (Doc. 1027). On July 19, 2013, the appellate court informed the parties that it may lack jurisdiction over the appeal and requested briefing on this issue. On August 2, 2013, the Receiver filed his response and also moved to dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction on other grounds. On September 17, 2013, the appellate court ordered that the motion to dismiss and other jurisdictional issues be carried with the case. On February 11, 2014, the Downeys filed a motion to supplement the record which the Receiver opposed. The appellate court ruled that the motion to supplement be carried with the case. Oral argument before the Eleventh Circuit was had on May 13, 2014. The argument focused solely on jurisdictional issues. No ruling has been issued yet.

The Receiver has taken control of Quest and is determining the most prudent course of action to take with respect to it. Since the expansion of the Receivership to include Quest, the Receiver has and will continue to maintain a separate accounting of revenues and expenses for Quest. The Receiver has been able to grow Quest's revenues since that time and therefore, he believes Quest will likely generate sufficient revenues to cover its expenses. The Receiver currently believes that the assets and potential value of Quest is significantly less than the outstanding balance of investors' investment amount in Quest. If, however, the Receiver is able to generate sufficient funds from the sale of Quest's assets, he will conduct a separate claims process to deal with the claims of investors and other creditors of Quest. Should that occur, the Receiver will assert a claim on behalf of Viking Oil and Valhalla Investment Partners, L.P. Any monies recovered as a result of that claim could be distributed to current claimants with allowed claims.

For more information regarding Quest, the Receiver's investigation of it, and the Receiver's proposed course of action, please refer to the Receiver's Quest Reports, which are available on the Receiver's website.

B. Recovery of Real Property.

In addition to the assets discussed in conjunction with the expansion of the Receivership in Section IV.A, the Receiver has also recovered a number of other assets, some of which continue to be valued, assessed, and otherwise analyzed for liquidation, disposition, or other action. Again, assets which have been sold or otherwise disposed of are identified on the attached Exhibit B.

1. Fairview, North Carolina.

On March 30, 2009, the Court granted the Receiver's motion (Doc. 98) for possession of property located in Fairview, North Carolina (the "Fairview Property") (Doc. 100). Nadel and his wife purchased the Fairview Property for $335,000 on June 14, 2004. The Fairview Property was a secondary residence of the Nadels and is located in the mountains of North Carolina. The Fairview Property has one known encumbrance: a loan with BB&T Bank on which there is a remaining principal balance of approximately $248,941.73. On April 1, 2012, the Receiver secured a caretaker for the property who is providing upkeep for the property in lieu of rent. Parties interested in purchasing the Fairview Property should contact:

2. Sarasota, Florida (La Bellasara).

On January 28, 2010, the Court granted the Receiver's motion (Doc. 324) for possession of property located at 464 Golden Gate Point, Unit 703, Sarasota, Florida (the "Bellasara Property") (Doc. 327). The Bellasara Property is a residential condominium unit in a building called La Bellasara. On or about May 23, 2006, Neil Moody as Trustee of the Neil V. Moody Revocable Trust purchased the Bellasara Property for $2,160,000. The Bellasara Property was Neil Moody's primary Florida residence. The Bellasara Property has two known encumbrances: a primary mortgage loan from MSC Mortgage, LLC in the amount of $956,000 and a home equity line of credit from Wells Fargo with an initial balance of $880,000. Parties interested in purchasing the Bellasara Property should contact:

3. Marshfield, Vermont.

The Receiver obtained two adjacent parcels of real property located in Marshfield, Vermont at 3343 U.S. Route 2 and 3353 U.S. Route 2 (collectively the “Vermont Properties”) in connection with the settlement of litigation against Nadel’s daughter-in-law, Anne Nadel. Nadel purchased the 3343 Property on September 3, 2004 for $122,000 and purchased the 3353 Property on July 29, 2005 for approximately $56,884. There is a tax lien on the properties in the amount of approximately $49,710, which the Receiver intends to satisfy upon the sale of the properties. Parties interested in purchasing the Vermont Properties should contact:

C. Recovery of Other Items.

The Receiver has recovered various other items, including vehicles, jewelry, promissory notes, and stock. Any of these items which have been sold or otherwise disposed of are identified on the attached Exhibit B. For more information regarding these items and their disposition, please refer to prior Interim Reports.

1. Deficiency Judgment and Promissory Note.

The Receiver has a deficiency judgment against the former owner of a condominium who had executed a promissory note payable to Mrs. Nadel. The Receiver foreclosed on the condominium and obtained a deficiency judgment in the amount of $99,963.37. The Receiver recorded this judgment and is attempting to collect on it. (See Exhibit B for information regarding the disposition of the condominium.)

As mentioned above in Section IV.A.6, the Receiver also has a promissory note from Quest and the Downeys to Valhalla Investment Partners in the amount of $1,100,000. Quest made monthly interest payments on this note through January 2013.

2. Miscellaneous Items.

The Receiver recovered a myriad of other items that he may be able to sell, including a variety of furniture, artwork, sculptures, fixtures, computers, and miscellaneous supplies. The Receiver will make reasonable efforts to maximize the amount he is able to recover from the possible sale of these items.

D. Recovery of Assets from the Moodys.

The Receiver's investigation revealed that a significant portion of activities of certain Hedge Funds should have been managed and directed by the Moodys. Together, the Moodys received approximately $42 million in fees from certain Receivership Entities.⁶

Chris Moody cooperated with the Receiver in connection with the turnover of all of his assets. On January 19, 2010, Chris Moody gave the Receiver a power of attorney which allowed the Receiver to effectuate the transfer of most of his assets without any direct participation from Chris Moody. The Receiver met with Chris Moody, confirmed the assets he owned, and reviewed in detail Chris Moody's interests and liabilities in those assets.

Neil Moody initially did not cooperate with the Receiver. Accordingly, the Receiver instituted an action against him individually and in his capacity as Trustee of the Neil Moody Revocable Trust and the Neil Moody Charitable Foundation. On January 6, 2011, the Receiver reached an agreement with Neil Moody to settle claims brought by the Receiver against him and his related entities. The Court approved this settlement on February 23, 2012 (Doc. 754). For more information regarding this settlement, please refer to the Twelfth Interim Report.

Meaningful assets the Receiver has identified for Chris Moody are delineated on the attached Exhibit C. Neil Moody's meaningful assets are identified on the attached Exhibit D. Where possible, Exhibits C and D provide the percentage of interest acquired or purchase price and the status or disposition of the asset. The Receiver is continuing to evaluate these assets and will take appropriate actions as he determines are in the best interests of the Receivership. Entities in which the Receiver believes he may have a viable interest or potential for meaningful recovery have been put on notice of the Receiver's interests and rights.

E. Litigation.

In January 2010, the Receiver filed 134 lawsuits seeking approximately $71,096,326.43. The lawsuits sought (1) the recovery of false profits from investors; (2) the recovery of transfers from Receivership Entities to Neil and Sharon Moody, Donald and Joyce Rowe, and certain of their affiliated entities;⁷ (3) the recovery of other transfers, such as commissions, from other individuals and/or entities;⁸ and (4) the recovery of certain charitable contributions made with scheme proceeds.⁹ The Receiver also initiated litigation against Holland & Knight,¹⁰ Wells Fargo Bank, and Anne Nadel.

1. Recovery of “Investment” – Related Transfers from Investors.

As discussed in Section III.C above, the Receiver determined that some purported investor accounts received monies in an amount that exceeded their investments. These purported profits were false because they were not based on any trading or investment gain, but rather were fruits of a Ponzi scheme that consisted of commingled funds of new and

⁹ All actions the Receiver brought against non-profit organizations have been amicably resolved by settlement agreements. For more information regarding these actions and their resolution, please refer to the Twelfth Interim Report and prior Interim Reports.

existing investors. The Receiver discovered approximately $35 million in such “false profits.” In consultation with the Commission, the Receiver concluded that, in the best interests of the Receivership Entities and the investors as a whole, these inequitable distributions should be recovered and distributed in an equitable manner among Claimants holding legitimate and allowed claims (as determined by the claims process).

As of August 4, 2014, the Receiver has reached 158 agreements to settle with Profiteers and non-profit organizations in the amount of $25,642,331.09 and obtained 18 judgments against Profiteers in the amount of $6,364,671.90 for a total combined amount of $32,007,002.99 (plus additional non-cash assets).¹¹ The Court has approved all of the settlements. As of the date of this Report only one action against a Profiteer remains pending. This action is in arbitration.

In January 2010, the Receiver initiated 121 lawsuits against Profiteers seeking to recover total false profits of approximately $32,755,269.13 (“January 2010 Cases”).¹² The complaints set forth claims for unjust enrichment and fraudulent transfers pursuant to Florida’s Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act (“FUFTA”). From May 25, 2011 through ¹¹ This includes $127,114.23 which was awarded to the Receiver in an arbitration proceeding encompassing two clawback cases. The defendants paid the Receiver the entire amount awarded while the Receiver’s motion to confirm the award was pending before the Court. This also includes a judgment in the amount of $6,477.30 for attorneys’ fees and costs which the Receiver obtained against a profiteer in connection with his frivolous objections to the Receiver’s determination of claims he submitted in the claims process. See Section V below.

¹² In September 2010, the Receiver filed 12 additional actions against Profiteers who invested with Traders’ “accounts.” All of these cases have been resolved. For more information regarding these matters, please refer to prior Interim Reports.

September 28, 2012, the Receiver filed Omnibus Motions for Summary Judgment (“Summary Judgment Motions”) in all January 2010 Cases then pending. Beginning on November 29, 2012 and continuing through January 11, 2013, the Honorable Magistrate Judge Mark A. Pizzo entered Reports and Recommendations on the Summary Judgment Motions in the January 2010 cases (collectively the “Report and Recommendation”). See, e.g., Wiand v. Dancing $, LLC, Case No. 8:10-cv-0092-EAK-MAP (M.D. Fla.), Doc. 121. The Magistrate Judge recommended the Summary Judgment Motions be granted and found that (1) Nadel operated the Hedge Funds and Traders as a Ponzi scheme at the time he made the transfers to the defendants, and (2) the transfers to the defendants were made with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of Nadel as required by FUFTA. The Magistrate Judge further recommended that judgments be entered in favor of the Receiver. See, e.g., id.

The Receiver filed limited objections to the Report and Recommendation only to the portion which declined to award prejudgment interest. See, e.g., Wiand v. Diana Cloud, Case No. 8:10-cv-150-T-17MAP (M.D. Fla.), Doc. 72. The defendants also filed objections to the Report and Recommendation, to which the Receiver responded. On January 23, 2013 and March 7, 2013, the District Court Judge entered orders adopting the Report and Recommendation in its entirety. The Court directed that the clerk enter judgments against the defendants in these matters for a total combined amount of $2,832,354.12.¹³ Judgments have been entered and the Receiver is proceeding with collection efforts as appropriate.

Defendants in three matters where judgments were entered against them appealed the entry of the judgments: Lee; Dancing $; and Meeker. (See Lee, Doc. 171; Dancing $, Doc. 131; and Meeker, Doc. 150). On March 4 and May 22, 2013, the Receiver filed motions for permission to prosecute limited cross-appeals on the issue of the denial of prejudgment interest (Docs. 981 and 1020). The Court granted the Receiver permission to file limited cross-appeals (Docs. 982 and 1022). Oral argument occurred on December 11, 2013 in the Lee appeal. Oral argument was set for March 7, 2014 in Dancing $; however, the court stayed the oral argument pending a decision in Lee. No oral argument was set for Meeker.

On June 2, 2014, the Eleventh Circuit issued a decision in Lee affirming the District Court's grant of summary judgment in favor of the Receiver and reversing its denial of the Receiver's request for prejudgment interest for abuse of discretion. The Eleventh Circuit remanded the decision to the District Court to determine whether equitable considerations as set forth in Blasland, Bouck & Lee, Inc. v. City of N. Miami, 283 F.3d 1286 (11th Cir. 2002) justify denying or reducing a prejudgment interest award in light of Florida's general rule that prejudgment interest is an element of pecuniary damages. The Receiver sought $437,734 in prejudgment interest in this matter.

Similarly, on July 15, 2014, the Eleventh Circuit issued a decision in Meeker affirming the District Court's grant of summary judgment in favor of the Receiver and reversing its denial of the Receiver's request for prejudgment interest for abuse of discretion.

Wiand v. Meeker, Case No. 8:10-cv-166-T-17MAP (M.D. Fla.), Doc. 145 (awarding $645,641.67).

The denial of prejudgment interest was also remanded to the District Court to apply factors set forth in Blasland to determine if equitable considerations justify denying or reducing a prejudgment interest award. No decision has been rendered in Dancing $ yet.

a. Cases Referred to Arbitration.

In 24 of the January 2010 Cases, defendants – all of whom received false profits – filed motions to compel their cases to arbitration. The Receiver vigorously opposed these motions. The Receiver opposed arbitration because by enforcing the purported arbitration agreements in the “investment contract” at the heart of Nadel’s scheme, those documents would be allowed to oust this Court’s “complete jurisdiction and control” over Receivership property in favor of numerous separate private arbitrators in Florida, New York, and Illinois. The Receiver argued that result directly contradicted the purpose of this Receivership and would be costly and inefficient. Specifically, the arbitrations (1) would require payment of costly administrative and arbitrator fees, not to mention the Receiver’s fees and costs incurred pursuing these actions in numerous different forums; (2) would have the inherent risk of inconsistent decisions because the cases would be heard before various arbitrators; (3) would significantly hinder the Receiver’s ability to use the appellate process to correct arbitrator errors due to the limited review of arbitration decisions; and (4) would delay and extend the Receivership and distribution of funds to victims. In other major receiverships, courts followed the arguments of the Receiver refusing to enforce similar illegal purported contracts. See, e.g., In re Randy, 189 B.R. 425, 441 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1995) (enforcing such contracts “would only help finish what [the wrongdoer] ... long ago started, which is, defrauding many innocent investors”). Despite the Receiver’s opposition, the Court ordered the cases to arbitration. The Receiver filed seven arbitrations (corresponding to 19 clawback cases previously filed in court). Of the seven filed arbitrations, one remains pending.¹⁴

The Receiver prevailed on the one arbitration proceeding which has proceeded to final hearing, Wiand, as Receiver v. John D. Whitlock, et al., Case No. 33-512-0025-12 (American Arbitration Association (“AAA”)). The Arbitrator entered an Award finding the respondents could not and did not provide any reasonably equivalent value for the false profits received and therefore, could not retain these sums. As such, the arbitrator awarded the Receiver $114,672.91 representing the full amount of false profits and an additional $12,441.32 representing 75% of the fees and expenses charged by the AAA. On September 11, 2013, the Receiver filed a motion with the Court to lift the stay and confirm the arbitration award. Wiand v. John D. Whitlock, Case No. 8:10-cv-00119-EAK-MAP, Doc. 66 (M.D. Fla.) and Wiand v. John Whitlock and Thomas Luck, as Co-Trustees of the Edward J. Whitlock Jr. Marital Trust Two, Case No. 8:10-cv-184-T-17MAP, Doc. 68 (M.D. Fla.). The respondents fully satisfied the arbitration award before a decision was rendered on the motion to confirm the award.

The Receiver also received a favorable award in the arbitration proceeding against World Opportunity Fund, L.P. (“WOF”). Wiand, as Receiver v. World Opportunity Fund, L.P., 51-512-Y-892-12 (AAA). In WOF, the parties filed cross motions for summary judgment. On October 28, 2013, after considering the parties' pleadings, arguments, and evidence, the arbitration panel awarded the Receiver $2,290,865.60 from WOF, which represents the amount of the defendants' false profits. On October 30, 2013, the Receiver filed a motion to lift stay and confirm the arbitration award (WOF, Doc. 62). The Court granted the motion on December 9, 2013 and directed that judgment be entered in favor of the Receiver in the full amount awarded (WOF, Doc. 69). The judgment was entered on December 10, 2013. The Receiver is proceeding with collection efforts as appropriate. As of August 4, 2014, the Receiver has collected $345,569.54 on this judgment.

Despite the well-reasoned decisions in Whitlock and WOF, as predicted the Receiver has encountered an arbitrator decision in favor of Profiteers based on arguments lacking legal merit, thus resulting in inconsistencies, inequities, and increased expense in pursuing the arbitrations. Specifically, in Wiand, as Receiver v. Roberta Schneiderman and Robert D. Zimelis, as Co-Executors of the Estate of Herbert Schneiderman and Roberta Schneiderman, individually, Case No. 33 512 00315 12 (AAA), the arbitrator rendered a Final Order and Award before the final hearing without any basis in law or fact resulting in a grave inequity. In Schneiderman, the arbitrator refused to hear pertinent and material evidence and found that the Receiver's fraudulent transfer and unjust enrichment claims were time barred by certain probate statutes because they were not filed within two years of nonparty Herbert Schneiderman's death. This decision is completely contrary to clear law that these probate statutes do not apply to claims that arise after a decedent's death. As this Court previously explained in this very Receivership, a fraudulent transfer claim arises at the time of the transfer. The respondents did not receive the pertinent fraudulent transfer until more than nine months after Mr. Schneiderman's death. If this Award is allowed to stand, the respondents will be the first individuals allowed by a tribunal to retain false profits.

The Receiver filed a motion to lift the stay and vacate this arbitration award on August 1, 2013 (Doc. 61). On January 10, 2014, the United States Magistrate Judge issued a Report and Recommendation denying the motion to vacate (Schneiderman, Doc. 70). The Magistrate Judge found that the Receiver was unable to prove any of the very limited grounds for vacating an arbitration award and overcome the strong presumption that arbitration awards cannot be disturbed. This award and the recommendation that the Receiver's motion to vacate be denied exemplify the Receiver's grave concerns noted above about referring these matters to arbitration. The Receiver filed objections to this Report and Recommendation. On February 21, 2014, the District Court Judge entered an order adopting the Report and Recommendation (Schneiderman, Doc. 73). On July 14, 2014, the Receiver filed a Motion for Permission to Prosecute Appeal to proceed with an appeal of two orders in this action: (1) the order compelling the matter to arbitration and (2) the order denying the Receiver's motion to vacate the arbitration award (Doc. 1128).¹⁵ The Receiver agreed to pursue the appeal at a reduced flat fee. The Court granted the Receiver's motion on July 16, ¹⁵ The Court had previously authorized the Receiver to proceed with an appeal of the order compelling the matter to arbitration, but the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals determined that this order was interlocutory and dismissed the appeal and the District Court denied the Receiver's motion to certify an interlocutory appeal. After entry of the order denying the Receiver's motion to vacate, both it and the order compelling arbitration became appealable, and the Receiver proceeded with the appeal. Although the court previously authorized an appeal of the order compelling arbitration, out of an abundance of caution, the Receiver sought to renew and expand that authorization to include the order denying the Receiver's motion to compel.

2014 (Doc. 1129). The Receiver filed his initial appellate brief on May 29, 2014. The defendants' answer brief is due on August 29, 2014.

2. Litigation Against Anne Nadel.

An investigation by the Receiver revealed that Nadel purchased the Vermont Properties entirely with investor funds unlawfully obtained through his fraudulent scheme and transferred title to them to his now deceased son and his wife, Anne Nadel. (See Section IV.B.3 infra for a description of these properties.) Ms. Nadel refused to voluntarily transfer title to the Receiver. On November 7, 2012, the Receiver sued Ms. Nadel for the recovery of these properties. Wiand v. Anne Nadel, Case No. 8:12-cv-2532-SDM-TGW (M.D. Fla.). On July 9, 2013, the Receiver filed a motion to approve a settlement agreement between him and Ms. Nadel (Doc. 1035). The settlement agreement provided, in pertinent part, the Receiver would pay Ms. Nadel $10,000.00 according to a set payment schedule and an additional $1,500 for payment of outstanding real property taxes on the Vermont Properties and in return for these payments, Ms. Nadel will transfer title to the properties to the Receiver. The Court approved the Receiver's motion on July 9, 2013 (Doc. 1036). Subsequently, however, the Receiver learned that a material representation made by Ms. Nadel as consideration for the settlement agreement relating to liens on those properties was not accurate in that there was an additional significant tax lien. The Receiver is working with Ms. Nadel to address that matter. In the meantime, however, Ms. Nadel has vacated the properties and the Receiver is in possession of them.

3. Receiver's Litigation Against Wells Fargo.

The Receiver retained the law firm of James, Hoyer, Newcomer, & Smiljanich (“James Hoyer”) to pursue litigation against Wells Fargo and Timothy Ryan Best, Nadel’s relationship manager with the bank. On February 13, 2012, James Hoyer, on behalf of the Receiver, instituted an action against Wells Fargo and Timothy Best seeking to recover damages in excess of $168 million relating to the bank’s close and extensive relationship with the Ponzi scheme underlying this Receivership.¹⁶

The parties have engaged in extensive motion practice. In ruling on the defendants’ motion to dismiss a second amended complaint, the Court granted the motion to dismiss negligence claims brought by Victory IRA Fund, Valhalla Investment Partners, and Viking IRA Fund. The Court also dismissed all claims of aiding and abetting. However, the Court denied the remainder of the motion to dismiss and allowed the Receiver to proceed on his FUFTA claims against Wells Fargo, unjust enrichment claims, individual claims against Best, and negligence claims by Victory Fund and Scoop Real Estate. The parties mediated this matter on October 4, 2013, but were unable to reach an accord.¹⁷

¹⁶ On January 8, 2014, the court entered an ordering dismissing all remaining claims against Mr. Best pursuant to a stipulation by the parties.

¹⁷ Wells Fargo is pursuing a claim and other purported interests it believes it has to Receivership property. As part of those efforts, Wells Fargo has aggressively interfered with the Receivership. For example, it has sought to bypass the claims process, alter it, take property away from the Receivership, petition another court for relief without informing this Court or the Receiver, and delay the Receiver’s interim distribution. It also sought to disqualify the Receiver and his counsel from this Receivership. The Court denied the disqualification efforts in their entirety after concluding that the Receiver and his counsel acted appropriately. On January 17, 2013, the Court entered an order stating that it would defer ruling on Wells Fargo’s motion for determination that it did not have to file claims
(footnote cont’d)

On January 3, 2014, in response to evidence belatedly produced by Wells Fargo at the end of December 2013, the Receiver filed a motion for leave to amend the second amended complaint. Wells Fargo had resisted the Receiver's efforts to obtain discovery related to its investments in the Scoop Real Estate and Viking Fund and only produced documents related to these investments after ordered to do so. The new evidence demonstrates additional knowledge of the bank as a result of its investment in these Hedge Funds and its status as a limited partner in certain Hedge Funds. The Receiver believes that this evidence supports the reinstatement of his claims for (1) aiding and abetting conversion and breach of fiduciary duty on behalf of Scoop Real Estate and Viking Fund, and (2) negligence on behalf of the Viking Fund. As directed by the court, the Receiver filed a proposed Third Amended Complaint on January 13, 2014. Wells Fargo opposed the Receiver's motion. On March 6, 2014, the court granted in part, and denied in part, the Receiver's motion. As a result, the Court reinstated Viking Fund's negligence claim against the Bank.

On January 5, 2014, the defendant filed a motion to strike the Receiver's demand for a jury trial. The Receiver opposed this motion. On April 25, 2014, the court issued a Report and Recommendation on the motion which denied the motion in large part. The Report and Recommendation found that a jury trial waiver was enforceable only in connection with two Scoop Real Estate transactions. The defendant filed an objection to the Report and regarding its purported interest in Receivership property, or alternatively, for permission to file late claims, pending the outcome of the Receiver's case against Wells Fargo and Timothy Ryan Best (Doc. 955).

Recommendation on May 9, 2014. On August 5, 2014, the District Judge adopted the Report and Recommendation in full.

On June 10, 2014, the defendant filed a motion for summary judgment seeking judgment in its favor on all claims remaining against it. The Receiver opposed this motion and also filed a renewed motion for partial summary judgment on June 10, 2014. The Receiver's motion seeks summary judgment on the following: (1) Nadel operated a Ponzi scheme through the Hedge Funds from 1999 through January 2009; (2) every transfer of an asset Nadel made was made with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors as required by FUFTA; (3) because Nadel operated the Hedge Funds as a Ponzi scheme, each of the Hedge Funds and Nadel were insolvent; (4) the in pari delicto defense is not available to the defendant because individuals who invested in the Hedge Funds were innocent stakeholders; and (5) the remaining affirmative defenses should be decided in the Receiver's favor because the defendant failed to plead any facts in support of the defenses. No rulings have been issued on the motions for summary judgment yet. The trial of this case had been referred to the Jacksonville Division for trial; however, at a pretrial conference on August 8, 2014, the judge indicated that the case will be tried by jury in Tampa likely in October 2014. The matter is ready for trial. The motions for summary judgment are all that remain presently before the court.

4. Receiver's Litigation Against Rowe

The Receiver sued Donald Rowe, individually ("Rowe") and as Trustee of the Wall Street Digest Defined Benefit Pension Plan ("Plan"), Joyce Rowe, and Carnegie Asset Management, Inc. ("CAM") (collectively "Rowe Defendants") to recover sums received from the Receivership Entities. The Receiver and the Rowe Defendants entered into a settlement agreement, which was approved by the court on February 5, 2013 (Doc. 963). As part of that settlement, the Rowe Defendants consented to entry of a joint and several judgment in the amount of $4,028,385.00, the Rowe Judgment, which was entered by the Court on February 25, 2013 (Rowe, Doc. 124).¹⁸

After entry of the Rowe Judgment, the Receiver conducted discovery in aid of execution and learned that the Rowe Defendants made blatant efforts to shed their assets by transferring them to third parties with the intent to hinder the Receiver's collection efforts. On May 21, 2013, to recover those fraudulently transferred assets, the Receiver filed a motion to commence proceedings supplementary and to implead the third parties who received these assets (Doc. 156). The Court granted the motion on August 8, 2013 (Doc. 223). The third parties impleaded include, among others, Ty Hardin who is Joyce Rowe's son, Choice Mail Direct f/k/a Carnegie Marketing Associates ("Choice Direct"), SRB Associates, LLC ("SRB"), Marianne Siegal, as trustee of the Hardin Family Irrevocable Trust ("Hardin Trust"), and Band Weintraub, P.L. ("Band Weintraub"). The Receiver has information and belief that the impleaded third parties received transfers in excess of $3 million. As of August 4, 2014, the Receiver has recovered $2,116,859.81 and an annuity with a value of $327,822.33 (as of June 30, 2014) in connection with settlements with SRB, Hardin Trust, Band Weintraub, T. Hardin and Choice Direct. For more information regarding these settlements, please refer to the Receiver's Fifteenth Interim Report.

¹⁸ For more information regarding the Rowe litigation and settlement please refer to the Thirteenth Interim Report and prior Reports.

The Receiver discovered that Band Gates received transfers totaling $345,441.22 and personal property with an approximate value of $10,000. On March 7, 2014, the Receiver filed a motion to approve a settlement with Band Gates wherein the Receiver and Band Gates agreed to settle the Receiver's claims in exchange for Band Gates' payment of $167,208.30 and turnover of the personal property (Doc. 1107).¹⁹ The Court approved the settlement on March 7, 2014 (Doc. 1108). Band Gates paid the Receiver $167,208.30 and gave the Receiver the personal property as specified in the settlement agreement. The Receiver sold some of this property through auction and received the net amount of $1,146.00 from these sales. The Receiver is working on selling the remaining property.

In addition to the above, the Receiver obtained writs of garnishment against several entities. The Receiver has received final judgments of garnishment against these entities as follows: Band Gates, P.L., directing payment of $28,232.92; Band Weintraub, directing payment of $5,000; Morgan Dramis, P.A., directing payment of $2,000; SPB, directing payment of $4,545.78; and SRB, directing payment of $21,000. These judgments have been paid in full for the total amount of $60,778.70.²⁰ On October 15, 2013, the Receiver also directed a writ to MetLife Investors USA Insurance Company ("MetLife") to garnish an annuity the Rowes purchased from MetLife. The Receiver and Joyce Rowe filed cross motions for summary judgment in March 2014. On July 11, 2014, the court granted summary judgment in favor of Mrs. Rowe. On July 16, 2014, the Receiver filed an emergency motion to stay dissolution of the writ pending an appeal of the July 11, 2014 Order, which the court granted. On July 24, 2014, the Receiver filed a notice of appeal. The Receiver intends to pursue this appeal and shortly will file a motion for permission to do so.

¹⁹ Band Gates subsequently transferred some of the monies it received to third parties. Of the $345,441.22 Band Gates received, the Receiver already recovered $178,232.92 from these third parties. Band Gates agreed to pay the remaining amount that has not been recovered. In other words, as a result of this settlement, the Receiver has recovered 100% of the transfers Band Gates received.

The Receiver also seized a 2007 Lexus LS from Donald Rowe and recovered $24,605.25 from the sale of the Lexus. As of August 4, 2014, the Receiver has recovered a total of $2,698,420.39 on the Rowe Judgment.²¹ The Receiver will continue vigorously pursuing collection of the Judgment and make every reasonable effort to collect as much as possible. However, the Receiver anticipates that it will be difficult to fully satisfy this judgment.

V. Claims Process.

On April 20, 2010, the Receiver filed his Motion to (1) Approve Procedure to Administer Claims and Proof of Claim Form, (2) Establish Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claim, and (3) Permit Notice by Mail and Publication and Incorporated Memorandum of Law (Doc. 390) (“Claims Motion”), which the Court granted on April 21, 2010 (Doc. 391). Pursuant to the Court’s Order, any person or entity who failed to submit a proof of claim to

The Receiver took $40,000 as a distribution from this annuity on April 24, 2014 and will continue to take the maximum distribution allowed without incurring a penalty.

The Receiver received 504 claims. Of the 504 claims, 478 claims were submitted in connection with 473 investor "accounts"²² ("Investor Claimants"). The Receiver also received 26 claims from other purported creditors ("Non-Investor Claimants") (Investor Claimants and Non-Investor Claimants are collectively referred to as "Claimants"), including two claims from taxing authorities. The Receiver received claims from Investor Claimants totaling approximately $149,033,449.32 and claims from Non-Investor Claimants totaling approximately $9,205,581.14, for a total claim amount of approximately $158,239,030.46.²³

On December 7, 2011, the Receiver filed his Motion to (1) approve determination and priority of claims, (2) pool Receivership assets and liabilities, (3) approve plan of distribution, and (4) establish objection procedure ("Claims Determination Motion") (Doc. 675). After careful review and consideration, the Receiver made the following determinations:²⁴ (1) 423 Investor Claims should be allowed (in full or in part) for the total amount of $131,304,461.51; (2) two Tax Lien Claims should be allowed for the total amount of $4,481.99; (3) two secured non-investor claims (“Non-Investor Secured Claims”) should be allowed to recover only from proceeds of the sale of the secured asset, subject to certain limitations set forth in the Claims Determination Motion; (4) 13 unsecured non-investor claims (“Non-Investor Unsecured Claims”) should be allowed or allowed in part for the total amount of $526,998.86, subject to certain limitations set forth in the Claims Determination Motion; (5) 35 Investor Claims and 8 Non-Investor Claims should be denied for reasons set forth in the Claims Determination Motion; and (6) 24 Investor Claims and one Non-Investor Claim should be denied because the claims were waived. Not including Non-Investor Secured and Unsecured Claims, the Receiver recommended that $131,308,943.50 in claims be allowed. On March 2, 2012, the Court granted the Claims Determination Motion except with respect to a claim submitted by Wells Fargo (the “March 2 Order”) (Doc. 776).²⁵

The objection procedure proposed by the Receiver in the Claims Determination Motion and adopted by the Court allowed each Claimant twenty days from receipt of notice of the March 2 Order to serve the Receiver with a written objection to the determination of the Claimant's claim and/or claim priority and to object to the plan of distribution. The deadline to serve any objections was March 28, 2012. The Receiver received objections relating to 23 claims. These objections were raised by twelve Claimants, four of whom have multiple claims. The Receiver has been working on the resolution of these objections. As of the filing of this Interim Report, objections relating to 15 claims have been resolved. (See Claim Nos. 157, 444, 445, 449, 450, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 471, 476, 483, and 504).

During the time covered by this Report, the Receiver resolved objections to six claims which were raised by one individual (Claim Nos. 462-467). On May 30, 2014, the Receiver filed a motion to overrule the objections to Claim Numbers 462 through 467 and for sanctions in the form of attorneys' fees and costs (Doc. 1118). The Receiver sought to overrule the objections and sanctions because the basis of the claimant's objections was the exact issue fully litigated by the Receiver and the claimant which the Court had already decided in favor of the Receiver in a clawback action brought by the Receiver against the claimant. Wiand, as Receiver v. Vernon M. Lee, et al., Case No. 8:10-cv-210-T-17MAP (M.D. Fla.). Despite this fact, the claimant refused to withdraw his objections. The Court granted the Receiver's motion on June 18, 2014 and awarded sanctions in the amount of attorneys' fees and costs (Doc. 1121). On June 23, 2014, the claimant filed a motion to vacate the Court's Order overruling the objections (Doc. 1122), which the Court denied the same day (Doc. 1123). On June 27, 2014, the Receiver's counsel filed a Declaration in Support of Attorneys' Fees and Costs seeking $6,477.30 in fees and costs (Doc. 1125). On July 16, 2014, the claimant filed a motion to overrule this declaration (Doc. 1130). The Court denied this motion on July 18, 2014 and directed that judgment be entered against the claimant in the amount sought by the Receiver (Doc. 1131). Judgment was entered against the claimant in the amount of $6,477.30 on July 21, 2014.

On April 27, 2012, the Receiver filed a motion seeking the approval of (1) a first interim distribution of $25,994,012.73 on a pro rata basis; (2) establishment of reserves of $1,789,268.46 for claims for which timely objections were received and for Wells Fargo's and TRSTE, Inc.'s purported interests in Receivership assets and the Receivership estate; and (3) approval of revisions to certain claim determinations previously submitted by the Receiver and approved by the Court in the Claims Determination Motion (Doc. 825). The Court overruled a limited objection filed by Wells Fargo and granted the Receiver's motion in its entirety on May 7, 2012 (Doc. 839). All first interim distribution checks have been sent to Claimants holding claims which were determined to be entitled to participate in the first interim distribution and have been negotiated.

On November 14, 2012, the Receiver filed a motion seeking the approval of (1) a second interim distribution in the amount of approximately $22 million on a pro rata basis; (2) revisions to certain claim determinations previously submitted by the Receiver and approved by the Court; (3) an increase in reserves of $1,327,793.22; and (4) the release of reserves in the amount of $197,951.10 (Doc. 945). The Court granted the Receiver's motion in its entirety on November 16, 2012 (Doc. 946). All second interim distribution checks have been mailed to Claimants holding claims which were determined to be entitled to participate in the second interim distribution and have been negotiated.

On November 6, 2013, the Receiver filed a motion seeking the approval of (1) a third interim distribution of $5,000,000.00 on a pro rata basis; (2) an increase in reserves of $246,488.43; and (3) the release of reserves in the amount of $615,746.25 (Doc. 1085). The Court granted the Receiver's motion in its entirety on November 22, 2013 (Doc. 1087). All third interim distribution checks have been mailed to Claimants holding claims which were determined to be entitled to participate in the third interim distribution and have been negotiated.

On April 10, 2014, the Receiver filed a Motion to Approve Fourth Interim Distribution and Increase Certain Reserves (Doc. 1113). The motion sought the approval of (1) a fourth interim distribution of $5,000,000.00 on a pro rata basis, representing an additional recovery of 3.81% of the Allowed Amount of claims receiving a distribution at that time, bringing the total recovery to 44.37% of the Allowed Amount of these claims and (2) an increase in reserves of $253,793.83, which will leave in place a total reserve amount of $2,803,646.58 for claims for which timely objections were received and remain unresolved and for Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.'s and TRSTE, Inc.'s purported interests in Receivership assets and the Receivership estate as set forth in the motion. The Court granted the Receiver's motion in its entirety on April 24, 2014 (Doc. 1114). The Receiver mailed 346 checks totaling $4,923,843.67 to Claimants holding claims which were determined to be entitled to participate in the fourth interim distribution.²⁶ Seven checks totaling $87,600.75 remain outstanding from this distribution.

²⁶ Claim Number 391 is not allowed to participate in any distributions of Receivership assets until and if all Class 1 Claims receive 50% of their Allowed Amounts. Because the

VI. Overview of Remaining Assets.

As of August 4, 2014, the total funds in all Receivership accounts are approximately $9,263,546.71, which includes $2,803,646.58 being held in reserves for objections in the claims process and $2,229,463.15 being held in escrow until a claim to these funds is resolved. The Receiver has submitted a tax return on behalf of Art Nadel seeking a refund in the amount of $1,183,525.00.

As discussed above, the Receiver has already distributed a total of approximately $57 million to Claimants with Allowed Claims which were entitled to receive distributions, representing a total recovery of 44.37% of the Allowed Amounts for those claims. The Receiver is diligently working on recovering more funds in the hopes to make additional distributions to these Claimants. To accomplish this, the Receiver is (1) managing and attempting to sell the remaining properties and other miscellaneous assets currently held by the Receivership; (2) pursuing pending litigation against clawback defendants; (3) continuing to collect on outstanding settlement agreements and engaging in collection efforts on judgments obtained in connection with litigation; and (4) continuing to pursue litigation against Wells Fargo.

A. Remaining Properties and Other Assets.

The Receiver is in possession of essentially seven properties which remain to be sold. Of these seven properties, three of them are heavily encumbered by liens from various institutions. In particular, Wells Fargo has asserted loans on two properties of nearly $3 million. The total amount of encumbrances on these properties is in excess of $4 million. Given the decline in property values in recent years, the amount the Receiver anticipates he will be able to recover from sale of these properties may not greatly exceed the amount of the encumbrances. As mentioned above, the Receiver is contesting Wells Fargo's claim to these properties and may contest other asserted liens. The ultimate recovery obtained from the sales of these properties will be contingent upon the outcome of these asserted liens.

The Receiver also has possession of various miscellaneous assets which include artwork, furniture, and the like. While the Receiver is attempting to maximize the recovery from the sale of these assets, he does not anticipate any significant recovery (i.e., in excess of $20,000). The Receiver is also diligently working on evaluating, managing, and selling various assets obtained from the Moodys. The Receiver expanded the Receivership to include Quest, a Texas oil and gas company. As stated in Section IV.A.6 above, the Receiver believes that the oil well leases held by Quest have potential value and may be sold for the benefit of investors and other creditors (see also Doc. 1117). The Receiver will market Quest and is operating it in an effort to preserve and maximize its value. The Receiver acquired the Moodys' interests in various other companies. However, from the Receiver's research it appears that many of these companies are no longer in business and thus, the interests in these companies have little to no value. For more information regarding these interests, please refer to Exhibits C and D.

B. Remaining Clawback Litigation.

The Receiver has resolved the vast majority of the clawback cases brought against Profiteers and non-profit organizations. All clawback cases which were pending in district court have been resolved.²⁷ There is only one clawback case remaining in arbitration. In that arbitration, the Receiver is seeking to recover fraudulent transfers of approximately $46,959.12, which is the amount of false profits the defendant received. The Receiver is also pursuing an appeal of the denial of a motion to vacate an arbitration award and the order referring the matter to arbitration. The Receiver believes the award was rendered without any basis in law or fact and that the matter should never have been referred to arbitration. (See Section IV.E.1 above.)

C. Settlements and Outstanding Judgments.

As noted above, as of August 4, 2014, the Receiver has settled 158 cases brought against Profiteers and non-profit organizations for the total amount of $25,642,331.09. The Receiver has collected $25,556,995.61 of the total settlement amount and $85,335.48 remains to be paid. The Receiver also has obtained 18 judgments against Profiteers and non-profit organizations for the total amount of $6,364,671.90. The Receiver has collected $958,290.24 of the total judgment amount. As noted above, three Profiteers owing judgments totaling $1,688,445.29 filed appeals of the judgments awarded. Decisions have been rendered in two of the appeals. The decisions affirmed the Court's granting of summary judgment in favor of the Receiver and reversed and remanded the Court's denial of prejudgment interest. The Receiver also has a judgment against the Rowe Defendants in the amount of $4,028,385.00. To date, the Receiver has recovered $2,698,420.39 on this judgment. (See Section IV.E.4 above.) The Receiver is proceeding with collection efforts on the outstanding judgments as appropriate. While the Receiver is hopeful that he will recover funds on the majority of these judgments, the Receiver anticipates that it will be difficult to fully satisfy them.

D. Litigation involving Wells Fargo.

The Receiver instituted this action against Wells Fargo and Timothy Best seeking to recover damages and fraudulent transfers in excess of $168 million relating to the bank's close and extensive relationship with the Ponzi scheme underlying this case. As noted above, Wells Fargo is pursuing a claim and other purported interests it has to Receivership property. To that end, Wells Fargo filed several motions and objections in connection with the claims process. The Court has deferred ruling on Wells Fargo's claims motions pending the outcome of the Receiver's litigation against Wells Fargo. On June 10, 2014, the parties filed motions for summary judgment. No ruling has been issued on these motions yet. The case is ready for trial and will be tried by jury in Tampa likely beginning in October 2014.

VII. The Next Ninety Days.

The Receiver will proceed with the claims process by continuing to address the remaining objections.

The Receiver will proceed with pending litigation and collection efforts. He will engage in discovery and motion practice. He will continue to thoroughly consider and review any settlement offers and engage in settlement negotiations. The Receiver will make every effort to reach compromises that are in the best interests of the Receivership Entities and the investors.

The Receiver will continue to pursue the recovery of tax refunds where possible, and will continue to attempt to locate additional funds and other assets. If appropriate, the Receiver will institute proceedings to recover assets on behalf of the Receivership Entities.

The Receiver will also continue the operations of all ongoing businesses of the Receivership Entities to maintain and, if possible, enhance their value. The Receiver will continue to market properties for sale and entertain offers for purchase.

CONCLUSION

Creditors and investors in the Receivership Entities are encouraged to periodically check the informational website (www.nadelreceivership.com) for current information concerning this Receivership. The Receiver and his counsel have received an enormous amount of emails and telephone inquiries and have had to expend significant resources to address them. To minimize those expenses, creditors and investors are strongly encouraged to consult the Receiver's website before contacting the Receiver or his counsel. However, the Receiver continues to encourage individuals or attorneys representing investors who may have information that may be helpful in securing further assets for the Receivership estate or identifying other potential parties who may have liability to either the Receivership estate or investors directly either to email jrizzo@wiandlaw.com or call Jeffrey Rizzo at 813-347-5100.
