Re: Securities and Exchange Commission v. Nadel, et al.
U.S. Dist. Ct., M.D. Fla., Case No. 8:09-cv-87-T-26TBM

Dear Mr. Hatchett:

As you know, we represent Burton W. Wiand in his capacity as Receiver (the “Receiver”) appointed by the Court in the above-referenced Securities & Exchange Commission enforcement action (the “SEC Action” or the “Receivership”). On May 24, 2013, the Court in the SEC Action entered an Order (the “May 24 Order”) expanding the Receivership to include Quest Energy Management Group, Inc. (“Quest”). Attached is a copy of that Order. Previously, the Court entered several orders appointing or re-appointing the Receiver, and the May 24 Order states that Quest is now “included within the ambit of the Court’s previous orders appointing and reappointing Burton W. Wiand as the Receiver” in the SEC Action. May 24 Order at 8. A copy of the latest Order Reappointing Receiver is attached (“Order Reappointing Receiver”).

This office has previously provided you with correspondence advising you of the Receiver’s appointment and the injunctive provisions of the Order Appointing Receiver. However, it has recently come to my attention that, during discussions with the Receiver, you have indicated your intent to take various actions that would interfere with and/or adversely affect Quest’s property and financial interests. This includes Quest’s rights under the current Oil and Gas Lease (“Lease”) dated April 15, 2011, to which Quest is a party. Please take notice that any action taken would be in direct violation of the Order Reappointing Receiver, and will result in the Receiver filing for an order to show cause in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida as to why you should not be held in contempt for violating the injunctive provisions of the Order Reappointing Receiver.

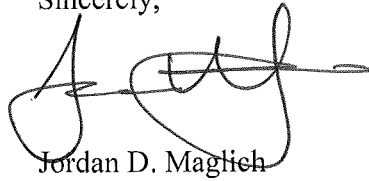

In relevant part, paragraph 15 of the Order Reappointing Receiver states: “Without prior permission from this Court, during the period of this receivership all persons, including creditors ... or others, with actual notice of this Order, are enjoined ... from in any way disturbing the assets or proceeds of the receivership or from prosecuting any actions or proceedings which involve the Receiver or which affect the property of the Receivership Entities” This injunctive provision enjoins taking any action which disturbs the assets or property of the Receivership, including the Lease and Quest’s financial and/or ownership interest in any other oil and/or gas leases. Any action taken inconsistent with these provisions will result in the Receiver seeking relief from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida and pursuit of all available legal remedies, including the costs associated with seeking such relief.
