UNOPPOSED RECEIVER'S TWENTY-SECOND INTERIM MOTION FOR ORDER AWARDING FEES, COSTS, AND REIMBURSEMENT OF COSTS TO RECEIVER AND HIS PROFESSIONALS

Burton W. Wiand, as Receiver, by and through his undersigned counsel and pursuant to Rule 66 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Court's Order Appointing Receiver dated January 21, 2009 (the "Order Appointing Receiver"; Doc. 8), respectfully moves this Court for the entry of an order awarding fees, costs, and reimbursement of costs to the Receiver and his professionals. This motion covers all fees and costs incurred for the eight month period from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017. The Standardized Fund Accounting Report (“SFAR”) for this period is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.<sup>1</sup> For the time covered by this Motion, the Receiver and Wiand Guerra King P.A. (“WGK”) seek approval to pay total fees and costs of $135,094.44 for their services (of which $86,973.48 will be paid exclusively from Quest’s revenues and assets as detailed in the pertinent Sections below). During this same time, the Receiver collected $416,283.80 in cash from business income and interest/dividend income. From the inception of the Receivership through March 31, 2017, the Receiver has collected the net amount of $66,834,605.77 in cash from these same sources, as well as cash and securities, business asset liquidation, personal asset liquidation, third party litigation income, and miscellaneous income which is less fees, expenses, and tax payments paid during that time. To date, the Receiver has made seven distributions totaling approximately $67 million.<sup>2</sup> As of October 3, 2017, the total funds in all Receivership accounts are approximately $4,458,281.14, which includes approximately $2.2 million in seventh interim distribution checks which have not been negotiated yet.

Since the appointment of the Receiver, he and those he has retained to assist him have engaged in substantial and continuing efforts for the benefit of the Receivership. As of the date of this Motion, among other things, the Receiver and his professionals have done the following:

<sup>2</sup> This includes the seventh interim distribution which the Receiver mailed out to claimants entitled to participate on September 22, 2017.

- Pursued and/or continue to pursue litigation or post-judgment efforts for (1) the recovery of false profits or other transfers from investors (i.e., from “Profiteers”); (2) the recovery of transfers from Receivership Entities to Donald and Joyce Rowe, and certain of their affiliated entities; (3) the recovery of other transfers, such as commissions, from other individuals and/or entities; and (4) the recovery of certain charitable contributions made with scheme proceeds;
- Prevailed on six summary judgment motions in the District Court for the Middle District of Florida resulting in the entry of judgments against Profiteers for a total amount of $2,869,015.43;
- Reached agreements to settle with 159 Profiteers and non-profit organizations and obtained 19 judgments against Profiteers and non-profit organizations for a total combined amount of $32,077,470.74 (plus additional non-cash assets) as of October 3, 2017;<sup>3</sup>
- Obtained two arbitration awards in favor of the Receiver in the total combined amount of $2,417,979.83, which is included in the total amount of settlements and judgments above;
- Obtained full satisfaction of a judgment against a clawback defendant in the amount of $2,290,865.60 through extensive collection efforts;
- Prevailed on three appeals in which the Court had granted summary judgment in favor of the Receiver but had denied the Receiver’s request for prejudgment interest; the appellate court affirmed the granting of summary judgment in favor of the Receiver and reversed and remanded the denial of prejudgment interest;
- Reached an agreement to settle, provided notice of the settlement to all potentially interested parties, and obtained an order approving a settlement with Holland & Knight LLP (“H&K”), pursuant to which H&K paid $25,000,000 to the Receiver;
- Reached an agreement to settle, provided notice of the settlement to all potentially interested parties, and obtained an order approving the settlement between the Receiver and Goldman Sachs Execution & Clearing, L.P. (“GSEC”), pursuant to which GSEC paid $9,850,000 to the Receiver;

<sup>3</sup> This amount does not include a judgment in the amount of $4,028,385.00 the Receiver obtained against Donald and Joyce Rowe and certain of their affiliated entities (the “Rowe Judgment”).

Moody, Marguerite Nadel, and Sharon Moody and successfully recovered the total amount of approximately $7,959,062.64 in federal tax refunds issued for Peg and Arthur Nadel, Sharon Moody, Neil Moody, and Chris Moody, which includes a refund for Arthur Nadel in the amount of $2,920,359.71 received on August 28, 2017;

“Moody’s”) from further violations of the anti-fraud provisions of the federal securities laws and allowing the Commission to seek disgorgement and/or civil penalties from the Moody’s by motion to the Court;

- Finalized and obtained Court approval of a settlement agreement with Neil Moody to settle claims brought by the Receiver against him individually and in his capacity as Trustee of the Neil Moody Revocable Trust and the Neil Moody Charitable Foundation, which provides in pertinent part, that all of the Receiver’s claims are dismissed without prejudice and with an express waiver of any time bar defenses by Neil Moody in exchange for (1) the transfer of all of Neil Moody’s meaningful assets identified in the settlement agreement, along with a sworn affidavit by Neil Moody verifying the extent of his assets; (2) transfer to the Receiver of his tax refunds, which included a check for $365,284.99 received March 12, 2012; and (3) cooperation with and assistance to the Receivership in the Receiver’s ongoing efforts to recover monies on behalf of investors subject to Neil Moody’s Fifth Amendment rights;

Motions for Fees and Costs, including the amounts sought and awarded by the Court, please refer to Exhibit 3.

As described above and more fully in the Interim Report, the Professionals have provided services and incurred expenses to investigate the affairs of the Receivership Entities, preserve and sell Receivership assets, attempt to locate and recover additional assets, administer the claims process, and institute and pursue litigation and post-judgment collection efforts. These services are for the benefit of aggrieved investors, creditors, and other interested parties of the Receivership Entities.

I. The Receiver.

The Receiver requests the Court award him fees for the professional services rendered for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, in the amount of $20,545.00. The standard hourly rate which the Receiver charges clients is $460. However, the Receiver agreed that for purposes of his appointment as the Receiver, his hourly rate would be reduced to $350 per hour, representing nearly a twenty-four percent (24%) discount off the standard hourly rate which he charges clients in comparable matters. This rate was set forth in the Commission's Emergency Motion for Appointment of Receiver and Memorandum of Law (Doc. 6), which the Court granted on January 21, 2009 (Doc. 8).

The Receiver commenced services immediately upon his appointment. The Receiver has billed his time for these activities in accordance with the Billing Instructions. The Billing Instructions request that this Motion contain a narrative of each "business enterprise or litigation matter" for which outside professionals have been employed. The Billing Instructions identify each such business enterprise or litigation matter as a separate "project."

Further, the Billing Instructions request that time billed for each project be allocated to one of several Activity Categories.<sup>6</sup>

A. The Receivership.

During the relevant period of this Receivership, the work of the Receiver and WGK focused on investigating, pursuing, and recovering additional assets for the Receivership; selling or otherwise disposing of assets in a manner that is in the best interests of the Receivership; administering the claims process and addressing objections; and pursuing litigation and post-judgment efforts to recover false profits and other improper transfers and damages. These activities of the Receiver are set forth in detail in the Interim Report. (Ex. 2.) A copy of the statement summarizing the Receiver's services rendered and costs incurred for the Receivership is attached hereto as Exhibit 4. The Receiver's time and fees for services rendered for each Activity Category for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, are as follows:

<sup>6</sup> The Activity Categories set forth by the Commission in the Billing Instructions are as follows: (1) Asset Analysis and Recovery, which is defined as identification and review of potential assets including causes of action and non-litigation recoveries; (2) Asset Disposition, which is defined as sales, leases, abandonment and related transaction work (where extended series of sales or other disposition of assets is contemplated, the Billing Instructions provide that a separate category should be established for each major transaction); (3) Business Operations, which is defined as issues related to operation of an ongoing business; (4) Case Administration, which is defined as coordination and compliance activities, including preparation of reports to the court, investor inquiries, etc.; (5) Claims Administration and Objections, which is defined as expenses in formulating, gaining approval of and administering any claims procedure; and (6) Employee Benefits/Pensions, which is defined as reviewing issues such as severance, retention, 401k coverage and continuance of pension plan. The Billing Instructions provide that time spent preparing motions for fees may not be charged to the Receivership Estate. In accordance with these instructions, the Receiver created an additional Activity Category for work on fees motions and has accounted for time spent on such work but has not charged any amount for this work.

B. Discrete Litigation Matters and Projects.

In conjunction with the Receivership, the following eight discrete litigation matters or projects have been formally commenced by the Receiver.

1. Home Front Homes Litigation.

This was a lawsuit against Brian C. Bishop, a former employee who also had an ownership interest in Home Front Homes, LLC (“Home Front Homes”) an operating business. This matter has been resolved. The Receiver did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

2. Carolina Mountain Land Conservancy Easement.

This was a project involving the recovery of a conservancy easement that Laurel Mountain Preserve, LLC, had granted to the Carolina Mountain Land Conservancy. This matter has been resolved. The Receiver did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

3. Recovery from Investors and Others Including False Profits.

This is a project involving the Receiver's efforts to primarily recover profits from investors whose purported accounts received monies in an amount that exceeded their investments. (See also Ex. 2 § IV.E.1.) These purported profits were false because they were not based on any trading or investment gain, but rather were proceeds of a Ponzi scheme that consisted of funds of new and existing investors. This project also included the Receiver's efforts to recover charitable contributions made with scheme proceeds. (See also Ex. 2 § IV.E.) The Receiver did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

4. Recovery of Assets from the Moodys.

This is a project involving the Receiver's efforts to recover money and other assets from the Moodys. (See also Ex. 2 § IV.D.) The Receiver did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

5. Recovery from Recipients of Commissions and Other Related Transfers.

This is a project involving the Receiver's efforts to recover commissions and/or other related transfers from individuals and/or entities who received commissions or other improper transfers from the Receivership Entities. (See Ex. 2 § IV.E.) The Receiver did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

6. Litigation Against Holland & Knight LLP.

This was a project involving the Receiver's pursuit of malpractice and other claims by the Hedge Funds against H&K which sought to recover the Hedge Funds' losses that occurred after January 1, 2003. The Receiver settled this action for payment of $25,000,000 by H&K to the Receiver. This matter has been resolved. The Receiver did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

7. Quest Energy Management Group, Inc.

This is a project involving the Receiver's investigation, operation, and marketing of Quest Energy Management Group, Inc. ("Quest"). (See Ex. 2 § IV.A.5; Docs. 1054, 1117, and 1145.) Quest is an oil and gas exploration and production company based in Texas. The Receivership was expanded to include Quest on May 24, 2013 (Doc. 1024). A copy of the statement summarizing the Receiver's services rendered and costs incurred for this project for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, is attached hereto as Exhibit 5. The Receiver will pay these fees exclusively from Quest's assets and funds generated by its operations.<sup>7</sup> The Receiver's time and fees for services rendered on this matter for each Activity Category are as follows:

Quest Energy Management Group, Inc. Receiver's Time and Fees for Services Rendered

Activity Category	Hours Expended	Fee Amount
Asset Disposition	6.60	$2,310.00
Asset Analysis and Recovery	6.90	$2,415.00

Case Administration	6.90	$2,415.00
Claims Administration	.30	$105.00
TOTAL	33.40	$11,690.00

8. Schneiderman Appeal.

This was a project involving the Receiver's appeal of two orders entered in a clawback action. See Wiand, as Receiver v. Roberta Schneiderman and Robert D. Zimelis, as <sup>7</sup> Since the expansion of the Receivership to include Quest, the Receiver has and will continue to maintain a separate accounting of revenues and expenses for Quest. The Receiver has been able to grow Quest's revenues since that time and believes Quest likely will generate sufficient revenues to cover its expenses.

Co-Executors of the Estate of Herbert Schneiderman and Roberta Schneiderman, individually, Case No. 8:09-cv-87-T-26TBM (M.D. Fla.) (seeking recovery of $163,660); see also Receiver's Nineteenth Interim Report at § IV.E.1. This matter has been resolved. The Receiver did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

II. Wiand Guerra King P.A. And Other Counsel.

The Receiver requests the Court award WGK fees for professional services rendered and costs incurred for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, in the amounts of $110,431.35 and $4,118.09, respectively. A categorization and summary of all costs for which WGK seeks reimbursement is attached hereto as Exhibit 6.

As an accommodation to the Receiver, WGK agreed to reduce the hourly rates of the Receiver's counsel in accordance with the discounted fee structure that was in place at Fowler White as provided in the Fee Schedule attached hereto as Exhibit 7. WGK began providing services on November 8, 2009. The activities of WGK for the time covered by this Motion are set forth in the Interim Report. (See Ex. 2.) WGK has billed time for these activities in accordance with the Billing Instructions.

A. The Receivership.

As discussed above, during the relevant period of this Receivership, the work of the Receiver and WGK focused on investigating, pursuing, and recovering additional assets for the Receivership; selling or otherwise disposing of assets in a manner that is in the best interests of the Receivership; administering the claims process and addressing objections; and pursuing litigation and post-judgment collection efforts as detailed in the Interim Report.

(Ex. 2.) A copy of the statement summarizing the services rendered and costs incurred by WGK for the foregoing for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, is attached hereto as Exhibit 8. WGK’s time and fees for services rendered on this matter for each Activity Category are as follows:

This matter has been resolved. WGK did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

2. Carolina Mountain Land Conservancy.

This was a project involving the recovery of a conservancy easement that Laurel Mountain Preserve, LLC, granted to the Carolina Mountain Land Conservancy. This matter has been resolved. WGK did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

3. Recovery from Investors and Others Including False Profits.

This is a project involving the Receiver's efforts to primarily recover profits from investors whose purported accounts received monies in an amount that exceeded their investments. (See also Ex. 2 § IV.E.1.) These purported profits were false because they were not based on any trading or investment gain, but rather were fruits of a Ponzi scheme that consisted of funds of new and existing investors. This project also included the Receiver's efforts to recover charitable contributions made with scheme proceeds. (See also Ex. 2 § IV.E.) A copy of the statement summarizing WGK's services rendered and costs incurred for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, for this project is attached hereto as Exhibit 9. This is a project involving the Receiver's efforts to recover commissions and/or other related transfers from individuals and/or entities who received commissions or other improper transfers from the Receivership Entities. (See Ex. 2 § IV.E.) WGK did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion

6. Litigation Against Holland & Knight LLP.

This was a project involving the Receiver's pursuit of malpractice and other claims by the Hedge Funds against H&K which sought to recover the Hedge Funds' losses that occurred after January 1, 2003. The Receiver settled this action for payment of $25,000,000 by H&K to the Receiver. This matter has been resolved. WGK did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

7. Litigation Involving Wells Fargo.

The Receiver determined that it was prudent and necessary to retain separate counsel to represent him in connection with all Receivership matters involving Wells Fargo. (See Doc. 730.) The Receiver retained James, Hoyer, Newcomer & Smiljanich, P.A. ("James Hoyer") to represent him in connection with matters involving Wells Fargo. These matters include (1) responding to Wells Fargo's objections and various other motions relating to the claims process; (2) Wells Fargo's asserted interests in real property held by the Receivership; and (3) Wells Fargo's attempts to disqualify the Receiver. In an April 25, 2012, Order, the Court concluded that WGK could not represent the Receiver in "matters specifically involving Wells Fargo Bank or its affiliates." (Doc. 822.)

Further, the Receiver retained James Hoyer to pursue litigation against Wells Fargo and Timothy Ryan Best, Nadel's relationship manager with the bank, on a contingency fee basis. On February 13, 2012, James Hoyer, on behalf of the Receiver, instituted an action against Wells Fargo and Timothy Best seeking to recover damages in excess of $168 million relating to the bank's close and extensive relationship with the Ponzi scheme underlying this Receivership. After extensive motion practice, on February 9, 2015, the District Court granted summary judgment in favor of Wells Fargo on all counts. This unexpected ruling had a significant impact on this Receivership. On March 10, 2015, the Receiver filed a motion to prosecute an appeal of this decision due to the nature of the ruling and its impact on the Receivership to the detriment of innocent victims (Doc. 1162).

As part of that motion, the Receiver sought the Court's permission to retain James Hoyer to litigate the appeal. James Hoyer agreed to be compensated on an hourly fee basis at the same rates as those charged by the Receiver's primary counsel, WGK. As part of this compensation arrangement, the Receiver and James Hoyer agreed that, should the Receiver's appeal be successful, and the Wells Fargo litigation result in either a favorable jury verdict or settlement, any contingency fee James Hoyer was awarded would have been offset by the hourly fees it was paid to represent the Receiver in the appeal. On March 27, 2015, the Court granted the Receiver's motion to appeal this decision and the retention of James Hoyer on an hourly basis (Doc. 1167). Oral argument of the appeal was held on May 19, 2016. On January 26, 2017, the appellate court issued an opinion affirming the District Court's granting of summary judgment in favor of Wells Fargo.

The Receiver requests the Court award James Hoyer fees for professional services rendered and costs incurred for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, in the amounts of $29,809.80 and $659.90, respectively.<sup>8</sup> A copy of the statement summarizing James Hoyer’s services rendered for the eight months from April 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, for general Receivership matters involving Wells Fargo is attached as Exhibit 10. James Hoyer’s time and fees for services rendered on this matter for each Activity Category are as follows:

Receivership Matters Involving Wells Fargo
James Hoyer’s Time and Fees for Services Rendered

Activity Category	Hours Expended	Fee Amount
Claims Administration	93.70	$28,864.80
TOTAL	93.70	$28,864.80

A copy of the statement summarizing James Hoyer’s services rendered for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, for pursuing the appeal is attached hereto as Exhibit 11. James Hoyer’s time and fees for services rendered on this matter for each Activity Category are as follows:

Wells Fargo Appeal

TOTAL	3.00	$945.00

<sup>8</sup> As the Receiver previously informed the Court (see, e.g., Doc. 730), although James Hoyer is representing the Receiver in his prosecution of claims against Wells Fargo on a contingency fee basis, in all other Receivership matters involving Wells Fargo, James Hoyer’s representation is on an hourly fee basis.

8. Quest Energy Management Group, Inc.

This is a project involving the Receiver's investigation, operation, and marketing of Quest. (See Ex. 2 § IV.A.5; Docs. 1054 and 1117.) Quest is an oil and gas exploration and production company based in Texas. The Receivership was expanded to include Quest on May 24, 2013 (Doc. 1024). A copy of the statement summarizing WGK's services rendered and costs incurred for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, is attached hereto as Exhibit 12. The Receiver will pay these fees exclusively from Quest's assets and funds generated by its operations. WGK's time and fees and costs for services rendered on this matter for each Activity Category are as follows:

Quest Energy Management Group, Inc.
WGK's Time and Fees for Services Rendered

Activity Category	Hours Expended	Fee Amount
Asset Disposition	21.30	$3,715.40
Asset Analysis and Recovery	116.20	$31,141.00

In addition, WGK incurred costs of $2,368.63 in connection with Quest.

9. Schneiderman Appeal.

This was a project involving the Receiver's appeal of two orders entered in a clawback action: the order referring the matter to arbitration and the order denying the Receiver's motion to vacate the arbitrator's erroneous award. See Wiand, as Receiver v. Roberta Schneiderman and Robert D. Zimelis, as Co-Executors of the Estate of Herbert Schneiderman and Roberta Schneiderman, individually, Case No. 8:09-cv-87-T-26TBM

(M.D. Fla.) (seeking recovery of $163,660); see also Receiver's Nineteenth Interim Report at § IV.E.1. This matter has been resolved. WGK did not charge any fees or incur any costs for this matter for the time covered by this Motion.

PDR Certified Public Accountants.

The Receiver requests the Court award PDR fees for professional services rendered and costs incurred for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017 in the amount of $29,622.24. Of this amount, $8,428.75 was incurred in connection with work related to Quest. The Receiver will pay fees approved by the Court which relate to Quest from Quest's assets and revenues. PDR started providing services for the Receivership on January 22, 2009. PDR has billed time for these services in accordance with the Billing Instructions. Because PDR's work for the period covered by this motion could be allocated to specific Receivership Entities and/or related entities, PDR has billed its time separately for each entity and indicated the appropriate Activity Category for each time entry.<sup>9</sup> Copies of

The total hours billed by each PDR professional and their respective total amount of billing are set forth on composite Exhibit 13. PDR's statements also include a summary of the total time spent on each relevant Activity Category in connection with each Receivership Entity (or "project" as identified in the Billing Instructions). For a discussion of entities delineated in the statements, please refer to Sections IV.A and IV.B of the Interim Report.

III. E-Hounds, Inc.

The Receiver requests the Court award E-Hounds fees for professional services rendered and costs incurred for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, in the amount of $195.00. All of these fees were incurred in connection with work related to Quest. The Receiver will pay fees approved by the Court which relate to Quest from Quest's assets and revenues. E-Hounds is a computer forensics firm which assists the Receiver in securing and analyzing electronic data. E-Hounds started providing services for the Receivership on January 22, 2009. A copy of the statement summarizing the services rendered and costs incurred for the pertinent period is attached as Exhibit 14.

IV. The RWJ Group, LLC.

The Receiver requests the Court award RWJ fees for professional services rendered and costs incurred for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, in the amount of $9,603.46. Of this amount, $2,938.41 was incurred in connection with work and costs related to Quest. As noted above, the Receiver will pay fees and costs approved by the Court which relate to Quest from Quest's assets and revenues. RWJ, which is owned and operated by Roger Jernigan, is an asset manager for the Receivership Entities. Mr. Jernigan assists the Receiver with overseeing ongoing business operations and property recovered by the Receiver, including aiding with efforts to sell such businesses and property. His efforts are designed to ensure that Receivership assets are maintained and/or enhanced to allow for maximum recovery for the Receivership estate. RWJ started providing services for the Receivership on February 1, 2010. Copies of the statements summarizing the services rendered and costs incurred for the pertinent period are attached as composite Exhibit 15.

V. Miscellaneous Others.

To assist with the protection and recovery of assets in a bankruptcy proceeding initiated by Vernon Lee, the Receiver determined that it would be in the Receivership's best interest to retain the services of counsel specializing in bankruptcy law. The Receiver also determined it would be beneficial to use this same firm to assist with the Wells Fargo matter as it related to its claims against certain property. Accordingly, the Receiver requests the Court award Stichter, Riedel, Blain & Prosser P.A. ("Stichter Riedel") fees and costs for professional services rendered and costs incurred for the eight months from August 1, 2016 through March 31, 2017, in the amounts of $9,861.00 and $7.28, respectively. Copies of the statements summarizing the services rendered and costs incurred for the pertinent period are attached as composite Exhibit 16.

To assist with regulatory matters involving Quest and the Texas Railroad Commission, the Receiver determined that it would be helpful and more cost-effective to retain the services of Texas counsel specializing in oil and gas regulation. Accordingly, the Receiver requests the Court award Scott Douglass & McConnico, L.L.P. ("Scott Douglass") fees and costs for professional services rendered and costs incurred for the eight months from August 1, 2016, through March 31, 2017, in the amounts of $4,653.00 and $9.22, respectively to be paid by Quest. Copies of the statements summarizing the services rendered and costs incurred for the pertinent period are attached as composite Exhibit 17.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

It is well settled that this Court has the power to appoint a receiver and to award the receiver and those appointed by him fees and costs for their services. See, e.g., SEC v. Elliott, 953 F.2d 1560 (11th Cir. 1992) (receiver is entitled to compensation for faithful performance of his duties); Donovan v. Robbins, 588 F. Supp. 1268, 1272 (N.D. Ill. 1984) (“[T]he receiver diligently and successfully discharged the responsibilities placed upon him by the Court and is entitled to reasonable compensation for his efforts.”); SEC v. Custable, No. 94-C-3755, 1995 WL 117935 (N.D. Ill. Mar. 15, 1995) (receiver is entitled to fees where work was of high quality and fees were reasonable); SEC v. Mobley, No. 00-CV-1316, 1317RCC, 2000 WL 1702024 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 13, 2000) (court awarded reasonable fees for the receiver and his professionals); see also (Doc. 8, Order Appointing Receiver, at p. 14). The determination of fees to be awarded is largely within the discretion of the trial court. See Monaghan v. Hill, 140 F.2d 31, 34 (9th Cir. 1944). In determining reasonable compensation for the services rendered by the Receiver and his Professionals, the Court should consider the circumstances surrounding the receivership. See Elliot, 953 F.2d at 1577.

Here, because of the nature of this case, it was necessary for the Receiver to employ attorneys and accountants experienced and familiar with financial frauds, federal receiverships, securities laws, banking, finance, and trusts and estates. Further, in order to perform the services required and achieve the results obtained to date, the skills and experience of the Receiver and the Professionals in the areas of fraud, securities, computer and accounting forensics, and financial transactions were indispensable.

As discussed above, the Receiver and WGK have discounted their normal and customary rates as an accommodation to the Receivership and to conserve Receivership assets. The rates charged by the attorneys and paralegals are at or below those charged by attorneys and paralegals of comparable skill from other law firms in the Middle District of Florida.

This case has been time-intensive for the Receiver and his Professionals because of the need to resolve many issues rapidly and efficiently. The attached Exhibits detail the time, nature and extent of the professional services rendered by the Receiver and his Professionals for the benefit of investors, creditors, and other interested parties. The Receiver anticipates that additional funds will be obtained through the Receiver's negotiations or litigation with third parties.

Although the Commission investigated and filed the initial pleadings in this case, the Receiver has assumed the primary responsibility for the investigation and forensic analysis of the events leading to the commencement of the pending lawsuits, the efforts to locate and gather investors' money, the determination of investor and creditor claims and any ultimate payment of these claims. While the Receiver is sensitive to the need to conserve the Receivership Entities' assets, he feels that the fees and costs expended to date were reasonable, necessary, and benefited the Receivership. Notably, the Commission has no objection to the relief sought in this motion. Custable, 1995 WL 117935, *7 ("In securities law receiverships, the position of the SEC in regard to the awarding of fees will be given great weight.”).

CONCLUSION

Under the terms and conditions of the Order Appointing Receiver, the Receiver, among other things, is authorized, empowered, and directed to engage professionals to assist him in carrying out his duties and obligations. The Order further provides that he apply to the Court for authority to pay himself and his Professionals for services rendered and costs incurred. In exercising his duties, the Receiver has determined that the services rendered and their attendant fees and costs were reasonable, necessary, advisable, and in the best interest of the Receivership.

WHEREFORE, Burton W. Wiand, the Court-appointed Receiver, respectfully requests that this Court (1) award the following sums and direct that payment be made from the Receivership assets:

RECEIVER'S CERTIFICATION

The Receiver has reviewed this Twenty-Second Interim Motion for Order Awarding Fees, Costs, and Reimbursement of Costs to Receiver and His Professionals (the “Motion”).

To the best of the Receiver’s knowledge, information, and belief formed after reasonable inquiry, the Motion and all fees and expenses herein are true and accurate and comply with the Billing Instructions provided to the Receiver by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

All fees contained in the Motion are based on the rates listed in the Fee Schedule, attached as Exhibit 7. Such fees are reasonable, necessary, and commensurate with (if not below the hourly rate that is commensurate with) the skill and experience required for the activity performed.

The Receiver has not included in the amount for which reimbursement is sought the amortization of the cost of any investment, equipment, or capital outlay (except to the extent that any such amortization is included within the permitted allowable amounts set forth in the Billing Instructions for photocopies and facsimile transmission).

To the extent the Receiver seeks reimbursement for any service which the Receiver justifiably purchased or contracted for from a third party (such as copying, imaging, bulk mail, messenger service, overnight courier, computerized research, or title and lien searches), the Receiver has requested reimbursement only for the amount billed to the Receiver by the third-party vendor and/or paid by the Receiver to such vendor. The Receiver is not making a profit on such reimbursable service.
