We are working out a few nits with the Bank of Albany and waiting for it to sign the agreement resolving its claims but the motion is essentially ready to file. I am not sure if Roger told when you spoke last week but the notice of sale will publish in the Abilene Reporter-News for one day. The motion contemplates that we will publish the notice shortly after we file the motion and then the statute requires we wait 10 days. If no bona fide offer that exceeds the sale price by 10% is submitted, we will inform the Court and ask he judge to grant the motion. Let me know if you have any additional questions.
