RECEIVER'S MOTION TO APPROVE SETTLEMENT

Burton W. Wiand, as Receiver, moves the Court for an order approving settlement of claims against David Quade for recovery of sums received from one or more Receivership Entities in excess of his investment ("false profits") on the basis of the Settlement Agreements attached as Exhibits A and B.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

The Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission" or "SEC") instituted this action to "halt [an] ongoing fraud, maintain the status quo, and preserve investor assets . .

. .” (Dkt. 1, Compl., ¶ 7.) Burton W. Wiand was appointed by this Court as the Receiver for Defendants other than Arthur Nadel and for Relief Defendants. (See Order Reappointing Receiver (Dkt. 140).) Additionally, the Receivership was expanded to include Venice Jet Center, LLC and Tradewind, LLC (Dkt. 17); Laurel Mountain Preserve, LLC, Laurel Preserve, LLC, the Marguerite J. Nadel Revocable Trust UAD 8/2/07, and the Laurel Mountain Preserve Homeowners Association, Inc. (Dkt. 44); The Guy-Nadel Foundation, Inc. (Dkt. 68); Lime Avenue Enterprises, LLC, and A Victorian Garden Florist, LLC (Dkt. 79); Viking Oil & Gas, LLC (Dkt. 153); and Home Front Homes, LLC (Dkt. 172). All of the entities in receivership are collectively referred to as the “Receivership Entities.”

Pursuant to the Order Reappointing Receiver (Dkt. 140), the Receiver has the duty and authority to:

2. Investigate the manner in which the affairs of the Receivership Entities were conducted and institute such actions and legal proceedings, for the benefit and on behalf of the Receivership Entities and their investors and other creditors as the Receiver deems necessary . . . against any transfers of money or other proceeds directly or indirectly traceable from investors in the Receivership Entities; provided such actions may include, but not be limited to, seeking imposition of constructive trusts, disgorgement or profits, recovery and/or avoidance of fraudulent transfers under Florida Statute § 726.101, et. seq. or otherwise, rescission and restitution, the collection of debts, and such orders from this Court as may be necessary to enforce this Order.

Dkt. 140 at ¶ 2.

The Receiver’s investigation has revealed a number of investors who received “false profits” (i.e., investors who received returns greater than their investments) (“profiteers”) to the detriment of those investors who lost money as a result of their investment. The Receiver began recovery efforts by mailing letters to numerous profiteers, inquiring whether they agreed with the Receiver’s calculated amount of false profits and whether they would return the transfers voluntarily to expedite the process and to avoid litigation. The Receiver, with the approval of the Commission, believes it is appropriate to accept 90% of the amount claimed in consideration of payment before the commencement of litigation to recover the false profits.

One of the letters was sent to David Quade (“Quade”) seeking recovery of false profits in connection with two investment “accounts.” After the Receiver, Mr. Quade and his wife, Ms. Schuster, determined the precise amount of false profits received in connection with their “accounts,” Quade has agreed to pay 90% of the total sums received in excess of their investment(s) in one or more Receivership Entities for a total amount of $1,128,675.70.

As shown by the Settlement Agreements attached hereto as Exhibits A and B, Quade, subject to the approval of this Court, has agreed to pay a combined amount of $1,128,675.70 (the “Settlement Amount”), plus 6% annual simple interest, by December 17, 2011, in accordance with set payment schedules. By this motion, the Receiver seeks approval of this settlement.

The settlement reflected by the Settlement Agreements is in the best interests of the Receivership, the investors in the Receivership Entities, and Quade because resolution of the claims avoids protracted litigation, conserving Receivership assets and judicial resources, and avoids the cost of litigation to Quade.

WHEREFORE, the Receiver moves the Court to approve the settlement reflected by the attached Settlement Agreement.

LOCAL RULE 3.01(g) CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL

The undersigned counsel for the Receiver is authorized to represent to the Court that the SEC has no objection to the Court's granting this motion.
