Re: In Re Seroquel Products Liability Litigation: MDL-1769

Dear Jonathan:

Pursuant to my notice, we have enclosed a portable hard drive containing documents for AstraZeneca's forty-fourth Custodian production in the above referenced matter. In particular, this production contains documents belonging to thirteen new custodians. This production is subject to the protective order entered in the MDL on September 19, 2007, as well as any state court protective orders.

Similar to recent productions, the large size of this Production demands the Custodians be set forth in multiple folders and corresponding sets. For your convenience, I have listed the Custodians according to their sets with corresponding bates numbers. The contents of the sets and the corresponding bates ranges are:
