This cause comes before the Court on the parties' Joint Motion to Extend Deadlines. (Doc. No. 86). In this motion, the parties explain their efforts to diligently complete discovery in the case and request a three month extension to the discovery and dispositive motion deadlines. While the Court will grant the requested extensions, the Court must also move the pretrial conference and trial dates by three months so that the Court will have enough time to rule on any dispositive motions prior to the pretrial conference. The Court will issue a third amended scheduling order.
