ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the Parties' Joint Statement (Dkt. 86) in which the parties contend that this case should be dismissed without prejudice, since Petitioner's death sentence was vacated and a re-sentencing was granted.<sup>1</sup> The court agrees. Because Petitioner will be resentenced, his judgment of conviction is no longer final for purposes of 28 U.S.C. 2254. *See Insignares v. Sec'y, Fla. His federal habeas petition therefore is no longer ripe for review. See Rainey v. Sec'y for the Dep't of Corr., 443 F.3d 1323, 1329 (11th Cir. 2006) ("when a petitioner files an application challenging, in part, a judgment which is not final, the petition is not ripe for review until that judgment becomes final."), overruled on other grounds by Ferreira v. Sec'y, Dep't of Corr., 494 F.3d 1286, 1293 (11th Cir. 2007); Maharaj v. Sec'y for the Dep't of Corr., 304 F.3d 1345, 1348-49 (11th Cir. 2002) (a Section 2254 petition for habeas corpus relief is not ripe for review in federal court where state convictions and sentences have not become Accordingly, Petitioner's amended petition for a writ of habeas corpus (Dkt. 53) is DISMISSED without prejudice. The Clerk of the Court shall close this case.
