ORDER

This cause comes before the Court in consideration of Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of a Temporary Restraining Order (Doc. # 18) on December 14, 2023. This Temporary Restraining Order is sought against the fully interactive, e-commerce stores operating under the seller aliases identified in Schedule A (Doc. # 15-2) and using at least the domain names identified in Schedule A and the online marketplace accounts identified in Schedule A (the "Online Marketplaces"). For the reasons that follow, the Court grants the Motion.

This Court finds, in the absence of adversarial presentation, that it has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Florida. Specifically, Plaintiff has provided a basis to conclude that Defendants have targeted sales to Florida residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more seller aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Florida, and have sold products using infringing and counterfeit versions of Plaintiff's federally registered U.S. Patent D907360S to residents of Florida. Plaintiff has presented screenshot evidence that each Defendant e-commerce store is reaching out to do business with Florida residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Florida residents can and do purchase products infringing Plaintiff's patent without authorization. (Doc. # 15-3).

This Court also finds that issuing this Order without notice pursuant to Rule 65(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is appropriate because Plaintiff has presented specific facts in the Declaration of Robert DeWitty in Support of Motion for Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) (Doc. # 18-1) and accompanying evidence clearly showing that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the movant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition. Specifically, in the absence of an ex parte Order, Defendants could and likely would move any assets from accounts in financial institutions under this Court's jurisdiction to offshore accounts.

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED:

(1) Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be temporarily enjoined and restrained from:

- (a) further infringing U.S. Design Patent D907360S;
