

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
PENSACOLA DIVISION

WILLARD J. HARRELL,
Plaintiff,

vs.

Case No.: 3:08cv66/LAC/EMT

MICHAEL J. ASTRUE,
Commissioner of Social Security,
Defendant.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This matter is before the court upon Plaintiff's "Motion and Memorandum for Attorney Fees and Costs Under the Equal Access to Justice Act" (EAJA) (Doc. 18) and Defendant's response thereto (Doc. 20). Plaintiff seeks an award, payable to his attorney, of fees in the amount of $3,116.40, and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $17.00 (i.e., a total of $3133.40 in fees and expenses), as well as filing fee costs in the amount of $350.00, for a total award of $3,483.40 (Doc. 18 at 1, 4). Defendant has responded to Plaintiff's motion (Doc. 20). Defendant states that he does not contest the amounts requested and does not object to the payment being made to Plaintiff's attorney, in light of the fact that Plaintiff signed an "Assignment of EAJA Fee," assigning any fee awarded under the EAJA to his attorney¹ (id.).

The EAJA, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, allows for the award of attorney fees and other expenses against the government provided, 1) the party seeking such fees is the "prevailing party" in a civil action brought by or against the United States; 2) an application for such fees, including an itemized justification for the amount requested, is timely filed within 30 days of the final judgment in the action; 3) the position of the government is not substantially justified; and 4) no special circumstances make an award unjust. The absence of any one of the above factors precludes an award of fees. 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(A), (B).

In Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292, 113 S. Ct. 2625, 124 L. Ed. 2d 239 (1993), the Supreme Court held that a social security plaintiff who obtained a remand reversing the Commissioner's decision under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) was the "prevailing party," and as such was entitled to attorney fees and expenses under the EAJA. Here, the court reversed the decision of the Commissioner and remanded the case pursuant to sentence four of § 405(g) (see Docs. 15, 16). The application was timely filed, and the Commissioner's position was not substantially justified. Moreover, Defendant does not disagree that fees should be paid in this case (see Doc. 20). Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to fees.

With regard to the question of the reasonableness of the fee sought, 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A) states:

(The amount of fees awarded under this subsection shall be based upon prevailing market rates for the kind and quality of the services furnished, except that . . . (ii) attorney fees shall not be awarded in excess of $125.00 per hour unless the court determines that an increase in the cost of living or a special factor, such as the limited availability of qualified attorneys for the proceedings involved, justifies a higher fee.)

Plaintiff's attorney seeks compensation for 21.2 hours at the rate of $147.00 per hour ($3,116.40), for work performed in 2008, in representing Plaintiff in court-related proceedings and in obtaining an award of fees from the court (see Doc. 18). Although Plaintiff seeks an award based upon an hourly rate higher than $125.00, Defendant has represented to the court that he does not contest an award of attorney fees based upon the higher hourly rate, and this court concludes that amounts greater than $125.00 per hour are reasonable, as has been found in numerous recent cases. See, e.g., Facine v. Barnhart, Case No. 5:02cv26/MD (N.D. Fla. 2004) (finding compensation at the rate of $145.00 per hour reasonable for work performed in 2001 through 2004); Godwin v. Barnhart, Case No. 3:04cv298/RV/EMT (N.D. Fla. 2006) (finding compensation at the rate of $147.63 per hour reasonable, based upon a change in the Consumer Price Index, for work performed in 2004 through 2005). Additionally, Defendant has stated no objection to the amount of time claimed by Plaintiff's counsel (i.e., 21.2 hours), and the court finds that the time expenditure is reasonable. Finally, Defendant does not contest expenses in the amount of $17.00 or filing fee costs in the amount of $350.00; however, Defendant asserts that the filing fee should be paid from the Judgment Fund administered by the United States Treasury.

Accordingly, it respectfully RECOMMENDED that Plaintiff's Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs Under the Equal Access to Justice Act (Doc. 18) be GRANTED as follows:

Plaintiff's counsel, Nick A. Ortiz, Esquire, is entitled to recover expenses and fees in the amount of $3,133.40, for representing Plaintiff before the United States District Court for the Northern District of Florida pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2412 (EAJA); the amount of attorney fees and hourly rates requested under the EAJA are reasonable; and the Commissioner is directed to pay counsel that amount. Filing fee costs in the amount of $350.00 are also awarded, to be paid from the Judgment Fund of the United States Treasury.

At Pensacola, Florida, this 5th day of January 2009.
