MR. COLBERT: Well, I think you asked him, if there's anything other than what was testified to on direct examination, which would take it outside the scope of cross.

MR. BOCK: Okay.

MR. COLBERT: I think that's the way you phrased it. Is there anything else other than what you have already talked about?

MR. BOCK: Other than the -- yes, you are right. That was my question. So your ruling is?

MR. COLBERT: My ruling is, to the extent that you are asking for work product, investigative reports, et cetera, prepared by Mr. Collins and not produced in this case and not submitted on direct, then it's privileged.

- O. (By Mr. Bock) You did testify about a report that was prepared by Memo. Do you recall that?
- A. Yes, I do.
- Q. And my recollection of your testimony is that that was not instigated by your attorney, but was instigated by you and Mr. Nehemiah; is that correct?
  - A. It was brought on by my agent, yes.

because we didn't know what the chemical compound of the cream that was put on me was, and we figured that he would know, because just -- because at that point in time, we know that he was cooperating with the government, so ... We figured if he was cooperating, and I was cooperating, we were on the same side at that point in time.

- Q. But you contacted him because you knew of his association with Trevor Graham. Isn't that what you testified to on direct examination?
- A. I did not contact him. My agent contacted him.
- Q. Had your agent contacted him because of his association with Trevor Graham, correct?
- A. I did not have my agent contact him. I did not order him contacted. My agent contacted him, and brought it through me, and felt at that point in time, it would be a good idea to at least talk to him, and see what he had to offer.
- Q. Because he was associated in the past with Trevor Graham?
  - A. Him being associated with Trevor

Page 426

Q. And that report also was -- that report was provided directly to you and your agent in written form; is that correct?

A. To my agent, yes.

- Q. And that report has never been provided to this panel or to USADA; is that correct?
  - A. I don't know.
  - Q. What was in Memo's report?
- 10 A. Just the levels of my positive test,
- 11 and the T/E ratios, as far as I'm concerned.
- 12 O. How about comments about creams that 13 were used by Trevor Graham?
- 14 A. No, not that I know of.
- 15 Q. But that was one of the reasons that 16 you went to him, right? Because he had 17 familiarity with what Trevor Graham dld? 18 A. He was familiar in that area, that
- 19 subject, not by -- we didn't ask him anything 20 about Trevor Graham. We asked him about certain
- 21 creams.

25

- 22 Q. But the reason that you contacted 23 him was because the -- in the papers, it was
- 24 known that he worked with Trevor Graham, right?
  - A. The reason we contacted him was 1 Graham, at that point in time, I felt, had 2 nothing to do with what was going on with me. I 3 was trying to find out what was in my system to 4 exonerate myself.

Q. I took notes on your first examination, and do you recall testifying about the newspaper showing you that that he was known to be working with Trevor Graham or to have worked with Trevor Graham?

A. I know that he knows Trevor Graham, and he has a history with Trevor Graham.

Like I said, my motive to contact with him had nothing to do with Trevor Graham. My motive to contact him was to find out what was in my system, and could he find out what was in my system. Nothing to do with Trevor Graham.

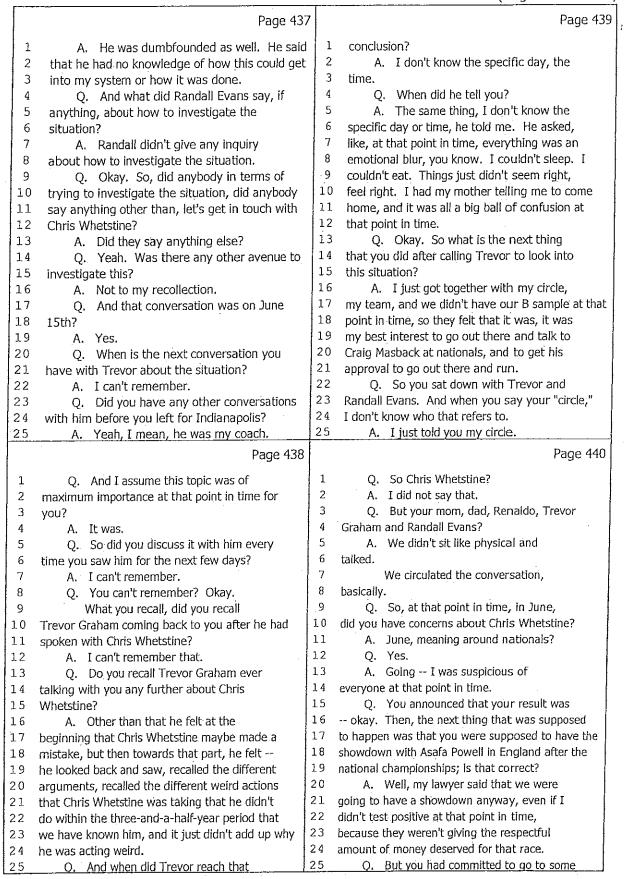

- Q. And at the time that you contacted him, you were cooperating with the government, correct?
- A. Yes, I was.
  - Q. And this was November of 2006?
  - A. Yes.
- Q. And your communications with him took place over a several-month period; is that right?

I turn your attention to USADA 0264, England. 4 which is an article dated July the 29th, 2006 --4 Q. And why didn't you go? 5 A. Well, I tested positive. It was 5 Saturday, July 29th, discussing the б announcement, Saturday's announcement that you a -- I felt that it was wrong for me to go out 7 7 there and run races knowing that I had this had tested positive. 8 hanging over my head, and why would -- me not 8 Do you have any reason to believe 9 9 that July the 29th is not the date that your being a cheater, I didn't want to take on the 10 attorneys and your agent announced that you had 10 responsibility of winning prize money or winning 11 appearance fees and then have to give it back. 11 a positive test result? 12 A. No. 12 I mean, I felt that would be stealing, in a way, 13 13 Q. I want to turn your attention to so I didn't want to do that. 14 USADA 0271. Do you recall Trevor Graham saying: 14 Q. So you didn't run in the meets in 15 "We know who the person is who actually did 1.5 England in late June or July, because you wanted 16 this. We hope the individual has the guts to to protect the other competitors in those 17 events? 17 come forward and say he did it." 18 18 A. Yes. A. Yes. 19 19 Q. Do you recall, as stated in the one, Q. And you didn't want them to have to 20 go through the disappointment, if you were to 20 two, three, four, the fourth full paragraph, 21 that that statement by Trevor Graham took place 21 beat them --22 the day after your announcement of the positive 22 A. I'm not familiar with that date on 16 the top of my head, I'm sorry. 16 Q. And he made that statement closely 17 Q. Do you recall that there was a point 17 after your announcement, correct? 18 A. As I said, I don't know. 18 in time in which you made a public announcement 19 Q. Did you coordinate your announcement about the positive drug test, that the B sample 19 20 with Trevor Graham? 20 had been confirmed? 21 A. I knew that my agent and Octagon did 21 A. No. 22 22 make a public announcement. Q. Did you talk with him about his 23 conclusions about what had happened? 23 Q. And does July the 29th -- Saturday, 24 A. Any statements that Trevor Graham 24 July 29th sound like the right date? 25 25 A. I don't know. Like I said, it made, he made on his own in the paper. Any

Page 447 Page 445 statements I made, I took it to my lawyers and 1 happened after the, after the race. 1 2 And, in fact, he identifies the 2 to my agency, so it was not conspired together. 3 3 Q. And were you communicating with actual product that was supposed to have been 4 put on you, a cream by Sarati Laboratories. 4 Trevor about what happened at that point in 5 Did you have a conversation with 5 time? 6 Trevor Graham about him identifying the 6 MR. COLLINS: Could you -- which 7 particular product that he says was put on you? 7 point in time? 8 8 MR. BOCK: July the 30th, 2006. A. Yes. 9 9 Q. When did that occur? MR. COLLINS: Okay. Because you are pointing to a December 16th article, right? 10 A. I don't know the exact date. 10 11 Q. What did he say? 11 MR. BOCK: It references what A. He said that he went and looked at 12 12 happened on July 30th, 2006. 13 the Internet to find out what the cream was that 13 MR. COLLINS: Okay. 14 he thought that Chris Whetstine used, and he A. I can't remember the exact date when 14 15 came across DHEA. 15 I cut ties from Trevor and stopped talking to 16 Q. And tell us more specifically how he 16 him. 17 17 knew what to look for. Q. Well, that might be helpful if you 18 MR. COLLINS: I'm going to object as 18 could at least try to narrow the range of 19 to how -- he's asking him to testify to what to 19 possible dates. You can 4 negotiations on my own with the assistance of 4 5 5 Renaldo Nehemiah. Renaldo Nehemiah, yeah, that answer the question. 6 A. Could you restate the question, 6 was then the person I went to. 7 Q. Prior to signing the contract which 7 8 Q. I was asking if you're aware -- I -8 became effective January of '05, what was your 9 relationship with Nike? Did you have a contract 9 believe Marion Jones has never had a USADA case 10 or some other arrangement? 10 actually brought against her, but I think all 11 A. We had a verbal agreement. I worked 11 the other athletes have had, like, a USADA or --12 12 back when USA Track and Field were doing it, on a daily fee basis. 13 Q. Do you recall what the daily fee 13 some sort of doping issue; is that correct? 14 was? 14 A. Bob Kennedy? 15 15 A. Yes, sir. Q. No, no, no. The names I read. 16 Q. What was that? 16 A. Oh, yeah, a lot of them. The 17 preeminent athletes in the industry have had 17 A. $350 a day, plus customary expenses. 18 Q. How was the day part of that 18 accusations lodged against them over the years. 19 19 calculated? Was that -- did you have to travel? Q. So when you, in 2003, when John 20 Did you have to see an athlete? Did you see one 20 Capriotti brings you up, that's the first time 21 athlete? I just don't -- I'm just trying to 21 you get employed by Nike? figure that -- actually, let me strike that 22 A. Yes, sir. 23 question. I will try to be a little more 23 O. Prefontaine is sometimes called the 24 articulate. 24 Nike race, because Prefontaine was near and dear to the founder of that Nike -- his name suddenly When you were working with Nike, you

You also saw other athletes? 4 A. Yes, sir. 4 was the parameters of my job description? 5 5 Q. What constituted a "day" to kick in Q. What services did you provide to 6 6 athletes? the 350? 7 7 A. Well, a day could include -- you A. Massage therapy services. 8 8 know, it could run the gamut from driving to Q. What would that entail? 9 Portland to work on Daniel Kipngetich Komen and 9 A. Well, typically for me, it would 10 Eliud Kipchoge, who are preeminent and middle-10 begin with evaluation of the video. I would 11 collect all video that I could find to evaluate 11 and long-distance athletes, as I did in 2006, 12 the form and style of the athlete; discuss 12 to -- I also worked with Alberto Salazar in the 13 13 certain postural and biomechanical issues with Oregon Project -- to hopping on a plane and flying 5,000 miles and getting off the plane and 14 the coach; evaluate the athlete on the track 14 15 promptly beginning a ten-hour day. 15 from multiple angles, making sure to attend 16 16 every single practice; preparing the athlete Q. You refer to something known as the 17 17 prior to practice, with various techniques, Oregon Project? 18 A. Yes, sir. 18 generally, with a handful of athletes at that 19 Q. Could you explain what that is? 19 point. And then typically working on them after 20 20 A. Alberto Salazar, who is -- I guess or during, even, the session, and then following 21 21 up with therapy services, generally in the hotel we would call him a legend in the industry --22 22 came up with an innovative project, where he room or whatever venue we were at, after the --23 23 brought preeminent - well, developmental or and I would be speaking specifically of a day at 24 and it was also open to higher-level athletes 24 practice after the -- after the session was 25 25 over. where they were developing them for the Page 498 Page 500 1 Q. Now, you talked about looking at 1 marathon. They would take 5,000-meter and 2 2 10,000-meter guys and kind of like a marathon video and analysis and style and form. You 3 training school of sorts. There's been much 3 weren't coaching these athletes, were you? You 4 4 were looking for a different purpose? written about --5 5 A. I'm not a coach, no. Q. That's the one that involves the 6 6 Q. Okay. So what were you looking for house where they seal it and suck the air 7 7 pressure out to 10,000 feet so it's like you are in the videos? I'm just --8 8 living in altitude? A. Just problems, structural problems. 9 9 Q. What kind of structural problem? A. Yeah, they did that to me once. 10 10 A. Problems with heel-strike push-off, Q. But that's part of the Oregon 11 Project? 11 mid-stance, drive-space-through-acceleration 12 12 problems; anything that pertains to the A. Yeah. 13 Q. Now, what was your relationship, 13 discipline involved, any moments that pertains 14 14 what services would you perform for the to the discipline involved. 15 Q. Okay, then, what would be the 15 athletes? 16 16 problem? I'm not sure I understand. A. Are you speaking specifically of my 17 17 relationship with Alberto Salazar? A. I think maybe this is beyond your 18 Q. No, not an Oregon Project. I'm 18 scope, but I will try to answer it for you in 19 19 sorry. Just generally, when you would treat an layman's terms. 20 20 athlete, what sort of services would you When someone runs, they will --21 21 provide? I'm assuming it wasn't legal services generally, they will break it down into a series 22 22 of what you'd say events within the discipline, like I provide? 23 23 MR. TYGART: Do you want to give some like block-clearance-to-drive phase, drive phase 24 sort of time frame? I mean, just to try to get to acceleration, you know. And so then they would practice these things over and over again, this to the relevant issues.

Page 503 Page 501 Q. Did you do things more than just 1 Ouite a fascinating process, because 2 you are dealing with, you know, obviously, let's 2 stretching? 3 3 A. Massage, if required. say the top .01 percent of humanity. And so you 4 Q. And what would the massage entail? 4 will watch these people, and you will gauge them 5 A. Generally kneading, pétrissage, 5 at the moment of fatigue. And you have to have 6 effleurage, cupping, active-isolated stretching, a keen eye to be able to discern what is going 7 7 wrong, attempt to correct it, convey that to the most of it generally with -- you know, they will 8 have their warmup gear on, so they are trying to coach so that he can assist the athlete in 9 9 get their muscles as hot as possible, so they providing him with training cues that can help 10 don't generally expose it to the open air, so 10 him to overcome that barrier once the 11 11 most of it's -- most of that's done with their, physiological obstruction is removed. 12 12 you know, with their tights on and stuff like O. That's when you are at the practice, 15 was doing it in some way that caused the stress 16 right? 16 on his body as opposed to whether it was slowing 17 1.7 him down? Is that an accurate summary of what A. Yeah. 18 That's not the case when you are 18 you are saying? giving them in your room? 19 19 A. I guess so. 20 20 Q. Okay. You said you would work on A. Oh, no. 21 Q. Would you -- did you use anything to 21 after and during practice. What sort of work 22 assist you in your massages? 22 would you perform? 23 A. A table. 23 A. Well, whatever was required or 24 24 requested by the athlete. Q. That's it? 25 Q. Can you be a little more specific? 25 A. A rope. Page 504 Page 502 Q. A table and rope. Anything else? 1 1 A. Oh, I'm sorry. 2 It would typically begin with the A. No. 2 3 Q. What about when you are in the room? 3 athletes stretching or doing some light drills. 4 And then they would come over to the table for 4 A. Table, rope, gel, lotion, cream. 5 what's a -- a series of movements that I perform 5 Q. Any machines? 6 A. Yes, sir. that are -- fall loosely under the title of 6 7 O. What machines would you use? 7 "active-isolated stretching," to -- well, they 8 A. I was trained by Nike in the Tecar would run, that would take, from active-isolated 9 stretching if we didn't have any -- if there machine, which is an RFI machine that we were 10 exposed to in Rome in 2005. Advanced Therapy Massage Gel -- it's called 1 2 massage gel -- and it's basically a massage oil. 3 And that's the product I settled on after using various Biotone products, a company by whom I'm 4 5 sponsored. And I settled on the Advanced 6 Therapy Massage Gel because you could use a 7 lighter application, and once again, that would diminish the amount that I would have to carry 8 9 on these extensive trips that I would have to take. As well, dating back to 1998, under the express direction of Trevor Graham, I was instructed to use Voltaren cream, and that was to be used immediately -- this started with Marjon Jones -- immediately on the athlete post-competition. It's an anti-inflammatory

And let's see. I used the Tecar

20 products, two of the Tecar products from the 21 Italian: the Tecar gel; and then there's a --22 kind of like a -- I don't know if you would call 23 it a balm. I gave out -- I gave samples of all of this stuff from -- actually, it was from the bags that I was using, to Justin Gatlin's

investigators straight from my bags that I was 1 using at nationals, when they visited my house 2 3 in July of 2006, yeah, last year, 2006. 4

Hold on a second. Biotone, Graston Tech, Voltaren cream, the Tecar gel plus the balm. That's it.

O. Okay. Now, you indicated you tried to use some that absorbed a little less because African-Americans absorb more frequently because 10 of the weight? I'm not sure -- then later you said it had to do with how much you had to 11 12

Are you indicating that you would bring a big volume of this stuff? Is that what 14 I was to understand?

A. Of the Graston Tech? No, I would 16 bring a very small amount of that. It would 17 take maybe, you know, a dab of it, and you could 18 basically cover the whole, you know, whatever 19 20 you are working on. If the person is face up,

21 it's the anterior portion of the thigh and lower extremity, or the reverse being true if they're 22

23 flipped over. And you can use a very small amount 24

25 of it, and it would provide a non -- I don't know if a nonpermeable, but a less permeable surface; then apply the oil, so that you could get the proper viscosity required to complete the job without having to go over to the pump over and over again.

And, you know, then you are going to be searching around for, you know -- you know, new lotion, and then you are going to be buying stuff that's off-the-shelf. And, you know, you don't want to be doing that, because you don't know what the product is, you don't know its viscosity, you don't know ultimately its content, you know, because we have -- we're very, very cautious and very careful about things like that.

16 I mean, I'm not only very particular 17 about the products I use. I started out just using olive oil, if you want to know the truth 18 19 -- of course, extra virgin. But I would use just olive oil. And of course, when we're at a 20 hotel, you can get that out of the kitchen when 21 22 you run out, but -- of course, that stains your 23 clothing, so -- I'm kind of just running far 24 afield here.

Q. Okay. So it's safe to say you would run out of this stuff fairly often?

A. No, not at all. That's my point, is I used the Graston Tech a base so I wouldn't.

Q. But you would still, over the course of a year, you would have to refill several times?

A. Oh, over the course of the year?

Q. Yeah.

A. Between my practice and my trips on the road?

Q. Yeah.

A. Oh, yeah.

O. About how often?

14 A. Well, running out is relative. I mean, Biotone sends it to me by the gallon. 15 16 Graston Tech, we buy it by the case. You don't 17 run out. You buy it a year's worth, or, you know, in the case of Biotone, gosh, I have got 18 19 products I have had to give away to the sports

20 clubs that I managed the therapy staff for 21 because we were worried that the product was 22 going to get out of date.

23 Excuse me. I now want to add two 24 more products to the list of products that I 25 used. I did not include Biofreeze products.

- $1\ $  which is both the PROSSAGE heat product, and the
- 2 Biofreeze, whether it be in the Biofreeze spray,
- 3 roll-on or gel. Typically, we preferred the
- 4 spray or the roll-on because it's also, once
- 5 again, a product that you can stain your
- 6 clothing with. And when we're on the road, you
- 7 are sensitive to that, because of how much
- 8 clothing you can carry and when you can get to9 the laundry and issues like that.
  - Q. When you say you wouldn't buy off the shelf, were you mixing your own stuff?
  - A. No. It was sent to me by the company. You order direct.
  - Q. Now, you said you were sponsored by a company. Other than Nike, what company sponsored you?
- 17 A. I was sponsored by a number of 18 companies. Impact, which is the maker of 19 vibrocusser, which is, you know, vibrocusser, 20 it's an impact tool, it's a massage tool, kind 21 of like a vibrating tool.

22 Biotone, Biofreeze, Nike, PowerBar.

- I'm on PowerBar Team Elite, where I advise thestaff on athlete -- their athlete roster,
- 25 distribute products at events. I made sure that

Page 514

- I would take pictures of athletes that were sponsored by them, so that they could get
- 3 their -- you know, get the pictures to the
  - athlete, so they could send them in to PowerBar,
- 5 so they could get their -- you know, there's
- 6 contracts -- there's little bonuses that they
- use, stuff like that. So those are thecompanies.
- Q. When you say you are sponsored by them, you receive compensation from those companies?
  - A. I receive -- most of it is product in-kind, except for my relationship with Nike, of course, which was financial.
- Q. And then the product in-kind you received, you used on the athletes in different places and used in your regular business?
  - A. Yes, sir.
  - Q. And you would get it in large volume?
- A. Well, they would send it to me in large volumes for particular sporting events.
- large volumes for particular sporting eventsAnd so that's what I would refer to as, you
- 24 know, like, what I use in my practice, I would
- 2.5 have a one-gallon pump bottle, you know, that would typically -- I mean, that would, of course -- as you can imagine, that would last forever.

Page 515

And then they also sent me lots of products for distribution, as I was the director of athlete support services for the Nike Prefontaine Classic, as I mentioned earlier, as well as distributing their product on the road to other, to other -- well, athletes and massage therapists along with product information.

Oh, and I was also sponsored by StrongLite, who made a special table for me, that would be less of an encumbrance in airport, you know, weight and baggage, with a specially built table for me.

Q. Your regular practice, your non-Nike practice, you were making $350 a day with Nike. What would you make in your normal practice?

MR. CAMPBELL: I think it was 850, he said, a day.

21 MR. COLLINS: 350.

MR. CAMPBELL: It was 3?

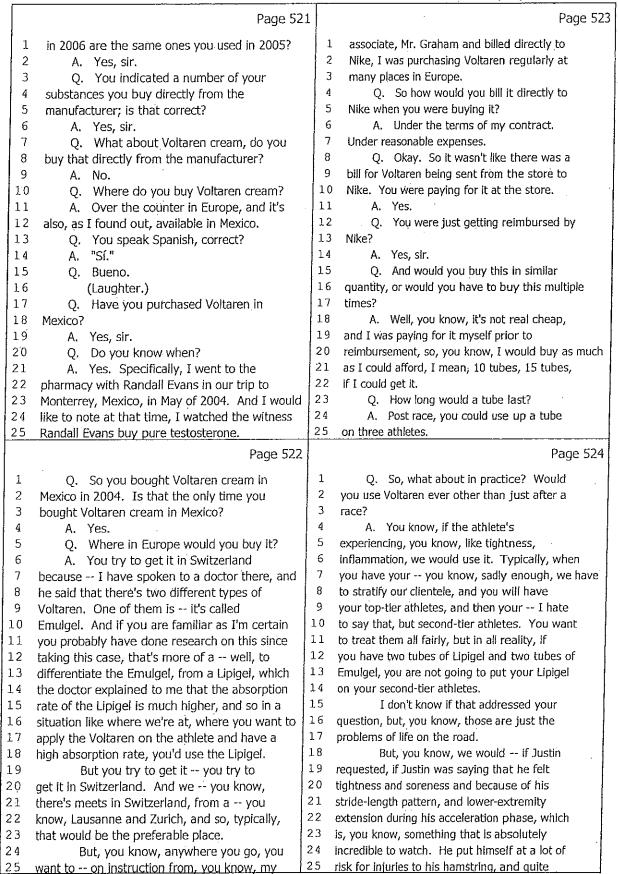

- A. At which point in time?
- Q. Say 2003.
- A. Oh, I would work, you know, anywhere from three to six sessions a day, which could include anywhere from 5 to 8-plus hours' worth of work.

- Q. What would your compensation be for a day, then?
- A. I think in 2003, my rate was $70 per session. It's since gone to 80.
  - Q. Do you know when it went to 80?
  - A. I can't tell you specifically, no.
- Q. So the 350, you gave me an estimate of three to six sessions a day and $70 a day, so the 350 a day you are getting from Nike roughly would equal what you are making in your practice?
  - A. Roughly.
- Q. And do you have a pretty busy practice?
  - A. Yes, sir.
- Q. In 2003, 2004, generally, working five days a week?
- A. Well, with the travel schedule, during the season of travel, it was difficult.
- I mean, you're kind of in a -- it places atherapist with a private practice in a difficult

Q. Now, you, in your last statement, you said something to the effect that Trevor Graham says -- well known Renaldo Nehemiah is trying to replace me.

When you used the word "me," were you referring to what Trevor Graham was saying about Trevor Graham, or was that "me," Chris Whetstine? I wasn't sure I understood that quote.

9 10 A. Well, it has always been, as I --11 you know, it was paramount in my contract with 12 Nike to make that a very distinct separation. 13 And I guess I'm alluding to the confusion that 14 Trevor Graham suffered from in thinking that I 15 worked for him. And in my reassociation with 16 the sport of track and field - I came back from 17. working on the PGA tour after I had left Marion for the second time prior to World Championships 18 19 in 2001 -- that I would never work for an 20 athlete directly. I mean, I worked for Ben 21 Crane, but when it came down to a group setting 22 such as this, I would never work for an athlete. 23 I would definitely never work for Trevor Graham.

And sometimes things became a bit contentious in reinforcing that point to Mr. Graham. And I looking for a massage therapist, correct?

A. Yeah. I had phone calls -conversations with Trevor Graham, and he explained to me how he was fiercely attempting to protect my job against the vicious attempts by Renaldo Nehemiah to usurp his power over Justin and influence Justin to no longer work with me.

- Q. Okay. When you said "me" there, you are saying --
- A. I'm talking about a fellow named Chris Whetstine, the guy you're talking to.
  - Q. Okay. That was what I --
- A. I'm sorry if I'm not being clear enough. It seems to make perfect sense to me. But I'm sorry, I will be more clear.
- Q. Thank you. So Renaldo was trying to replace you?
  - A. That's not what Renaldo said.
  - Q. Okay. What did Renaldo say?
- A. I don't know that he actually commented. He -- I don't think that he actually specifically commented on the issue.
- Q. Renaldo is a friend of yours, though, right?

Page 536

- believe that is the episode that you are referring to here.
- Q. Well, actually, I'd asked a different question than that.
  - A. Oh, I'm sorry. What was that?
- Q. You had just given a statement saying that Trevor Graham had said it was all Renaldo Nehemiah trying to replace me, and when you used the word "me," I didn't know if you
- 10 were using that as what Trevor Graham had said,
- 11 so Trevor Graham said it was all about Renaldo 12
- trying to replace Trevor, or if Renaldo
- 13 Nehemiah, when the Web -- because we were
- 14 talking about the Web posting on Sprint Capitol.
- 15 So is it your testimony that Renaldo Nehemiah 16 was trying to replace you, Chris Whetstine, or
- 17 was Renaldo Nehemiah trying to replace Trevor
- 18 Graham? 19
- A. You are being very confusing. 20 You're trying to say Trevor is advertising for a 21 replacement of Trevor on his Web site?
- 22 Q. No, I'm trying to understand a 23 statement you made. I will try it again. Okay. 24 You learned about -- you didn't look at the Web
- site, but you learned that Sprint Capitol was

- A. Yes.
- Q. Because he had negotiated your contract with Nike?
- A. Well, he helped me. Like I said, again, I would have to say, I thought Renaldo was my friend as well. I recognized both him and Don Quarry as, you know, greats.

When I came into the business in '98 -- I mean, you have to understand my history. I was born and raised here in Eugene. Oregon. And I was raised as a little kid who

- 12 would stand outside the fence at Hayward Field 13 and, you know, watch the Prefontaine on the
- 14 track. And I wasn't reading the baseball
- 15 scores. I was reading Edwin Moses and Renaldo 16 Nehemiah, completely in awe of the sport,
- 17 complete with my own tube of Shoe Goo, and 18 repairing my old Adidas over and over again, you
- 19 know, just a typical running kid from Eugene.

20 And so I found very few people that 21 I enjoyed more than speaking with Renaldo

- 22 Nehemiah, and attempted to develop a
- 23 relationship with him, wherein if an athlete, 24
  - you know, ever asked me for advice about what agent, you know, they might consider, I would

And when I heard Mr. Nehemiah speak

Page 539 Page 537 always make sure and let them know that I felt 1 O. Now --2 2 A. I've made no further contact with that Renaldo Nehemiah was a person who I felt 3 was fair, credible, and a person of good Renaldo Nehemiah since that time, because of the 4 4 nature of his comments. integrity. 5 5 Q. Okay. Q. Now, you claim that -- you just 6 A. Unfortunately, however, claimed in that answer that Justin Gatlin and 7 7 Trevor Graham threatened you and tried to buy Mr. Nehemiah --8 Q. I think you have answered my 8 you off. 9 9 question. As I understand, you have also 10 10 produced to the federal government and USADA A. You don't want to hear the end of 11 11 copies of text messages from Justin Gatlin. it? 12 12 A. Yes, sir. I have produced copies of MR. COLBERT: I would like to hear 13 the end of it. This is Edward Colbert. 13 text messages, the phone calls from Trevor 14 14 Graham of the same day, as well as a phone call A. Oh, at the last conversation that I 15 had with Mr. Nehemiah seemed to echo the tone of 15 of September 21st, 2006, wherein Justin Gatlin 16 16 when I was -- I will use the word "threatened" claimed that he knew exactly what this 17 by both Trevor Graham and Justin Gatlin -- or 17. conspiracy was all about, that he knew why 18 working together, in August of 200- -- yeah, in 18 Llewellyn Starks had beaten me up, and claimed 19 19 that I had colluded with John Smith, Emanuel August of 2006, he made a similar comment to me 20 Hudson, Llewellyn Starks, and a couple of other 20 as Justin and Trevor had done. And I think it 21 21 guys -- and I'm now quoting verbatim from his was in December. 22 And when he said, Well, what are you 22 communication to me -- and that the truth would 23 going to -- what are you going to do to help out 23 soon be told. 24 24 Q. All right. Those text messages were Justin Gatlin? As if he was also asking me to become the fall guy for whatever has happened not sent in September, were they? Page 540 Page 538 here in this unfortunate circumstance. 1 A. They were sent August 6th or 7th, 1 2 Q. Do you know if that was done by 2 the same day that -- hours after Trevor had 3 3 contacted me on -- it would be August 6th or 7th e-mail or by phone? 4 4 of 2006. A. It was done by phone. 5 5 Q. Okay. You don't recall an e-mail in Q. Are you aware that prior to Justin 6 December of 2006 from Renaldo Nehemiah telling 6 Gatlin sending those text messages, Trevor 7 7 you he wanted you to just tell the truth, Graham had informed him that you were willing to 8 8 come clean and say what you had done, but you whether it was good or bad for Justin, whatever 9 9 came out, just tell the truth? were worried that you might get sued by Justin? 10 10 A. I don't recall, but I believe that's A. No. 11 11 what I'm doing right now. O. Does Justin in those text messages 12 12 Q. But you said you felt that you were use -- you know, when you ask him what he wants 13 13 you to do, he says to tell the truth, is that in threatened by Renaldo Nehemiah? 14 14 A. It felt threatening. It felt like those text messages? 15 15 A. After he said he won't hurt me or my after, you know -- you have to understand, sir, 16 16 I was beaten severely as a result of this. And family. 17 17 Q. Well, a lawsuit which would hurt subsequent to that, I was contacted by both 18 your finances would hurt you, wouldn't it? Mr. Graham and Mr. Gatlin on the same day in an 19 19 attempt to -- they were colluding in an attempt A. Excuse me? 20 20 Q. Would a lawsuit against you hurt to get me to sign an affidavit with the promise

Q. So it was never out of your sight?

10 A. Oh, it's been out of my sight, yes. 11

O. But no one could get access to it?

A. Anything is possible, but I would say if you were to take a cross-section of people, I would say that I'm extremely professional. When I leave my room, I make sure 16 all of my stuff is secured. When I'm in an environment where other athletes and spectators are, I keep a very close watch over my stuff.

18 19 And I'm -- so was I being careful as I possibly 20 could be? Yes.

it, would he have not had that opportunity to do 2 that?

A. That would also be a complete fabrication.

Q. So if he said he looked in your bag in Indianapolis with another person in the room, that would be a complete fabrication?

A. Randall Evans came into my room after I had been beaten.

Q. I was asking about Justin Gatlin. I'm sorry.

A. Oh, about Justin Gatlin? Oh, I mean, sir, there's no BioMart. All this BioMart, I don't know what you are talking about. It does not exist.

Q. You're not aware that there's a BioMart company in China, in Shanghai, China, that makes a number of substances including testosterone, human growth hormone, and other substances?

A. No, I have no knowledge.

O. You have been to Shanghai?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, do you recall asking Justin 25 Gatlin for a bonus at the end of the 2005

Page 542

It didn't come through.

Q. You previously indicated that his routine of working with the athletes did not change at all between 2005, 2006 - or be more specific, that he would come up to the athletes immediately after the race. That's what Trevor Graham had instructed him in '98, and that remained his procedure through 2006?

A. Up to the very last time I worked on Justin Gatlin.

11 Q. Okay. Was it always part of your 12 procedure that you would then rub stuff on the 13 back of their knees and then on their inner 14 thiahs?

A. To include the back of the knee and the inner thigh, the front of the thigh, and the anterior and posterior, lower extremity as well.

18 Q. Now, you indicated that you kept 19 tight controls over your materials, so if 20 Randall Evans were to have said that he looked 21 in your bag and saw a bottle that said "BioMart" 22 on it, he would not have had that opportunity? 23

A. Randall Evans would be lying.

24 Q. If Justin Gatlin said he looked in season?

No, I asked Renaldo Nehemiah.

But you were being paid by Nike at the time?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you aware that based on your asking for this bonus, it caused friction with the Gatlins and Nike?

A. No, I have no knowledge of that. My - my employer never brought it up to me. And there is a clause in my contract that if I ever engage in any unprofessional behavior, that my contract is subject to immediate termination.

Q. So if someone -- if someone was to testify that when they notified John Capriotti that you had asked for a bonus and John Capriotti got all upset, that person would be making it up?

A. I'm not saying that. I was saying I would be surprised if John Capriotti hadn't immediately called me and said -- and made his concerns known to me.

 Q. And you are saying that John 25 your bag and saw a bottle that said "BioMart" on | 25 Capriotti never called you to say there was a . .

Page 545 Page 547 1 1 concern about you asking for a bonus? A. Yes, sir. 2 2 Q. Do you recall filing an affidavit on A. None. 3 Q. So based on that, you believe that 3 or about March 3rd of 2006, in the state of 4 Oregon, Circuit Court of State of Oregon for 4 John Capriotti was never notified of you 5 5 Lane County in the matter of Christopher Thomas requesting that bonus? 6 Whetstine and Theresa Marie Keene in which you 6 A. I can't comment on that. 7 7 Q. Now, you have had some prior legal stated that you, in this affidavit, that you 8 limit your international travel to 60 days per 8 issues, haven't you? 9 9 year? A. Yes, sir. 10 A. I don't recall. 10 Q. You have got a marijuana conviction? 11 11 Q. So if you put that in an affidavit, A. Yes, sir. 12 that would be a false statement under oath, 12 O. And it was not just for use, it was 13 13 for unlawful manufacture of a controlled correct? 14 A. Let's -- you know, if you need me to 14 substance? 15 A. Yes, sir. 15 go back and look at my overall travel dates, we 16 may find that on -- in those years, specifically 16 Q. It was unlawful delivery of a the dates when that happened, when that 17 1.7 controlled substance. 18 affidavit was written, that that was the case. 18 A. Yes, sir. Q. Now, you are aware that you are 5 I in no manner, shape, or form am attempting to 5 under oath today, correct? 6 6 not tell the truth here or at that time. A. Yes, sir. 7 7 Q. Okay. You have not always told the truth Q. Doesn't that add up to a number much 17 bigger than $10,000? 17 when you are under oath, have you? 18 A. Yes, sir. You would have to discuss 18 A. and these sort of things, I won't hurt you and your family.

That was clearly indicating that I was being threatened by these guys and being solicited to collude with them to engage in an attempt to take the fall in exchange for some monetary gain.

Now, what I did with that information was I immediately contacted the federal government to ask them, you know, what it is that I'm supposed to do in response to that. And they immediately wanted to come up, and I guess we'll use the word -- you know, I grew up in Watergate days -- "wire tap," but, you know, surveil and be in my home for a period of like three days; and they would be up tomorrow, which would have been -- whenever -- I think it was a Tuesday, that would have been

19 Wednesday. 20 The Gatlin camp was in New York. I am led to believe that that was the first 22 physical contact that Trevor and Justin had been 23 able to make with each other, and that's when 24 the plan was hatched, because they were supposed 25 to provide some sort of documentation that and truthful in my answer, and that pretty much covers what happened.

Q. Other than what you have just testified to, is there any other evidence that would suggest that they were -- that either Trevor Graham or Justin Gatlin were trying to bribe you?

A. No, that was the extent of the contact.

The only other thing that worried me was finally, after so much cooperation that I had given them, Renaldo Nehemiah flat-out asked me: So what are you going to do to help Justin Gatlin?

And the echo of that inflection and tone reflecting back to the incidents I have just described, made me suspicious, and I terminated all contacts with Renaldo, understanding that we weren't a team anymore.

Q. And I don't know if you are free to testify to this, but what caused your fight with Llewellyn Starks?

A. I have no idea. What happened directly preceding the fight, my girlfriend and I had gone out -- I worked a ten-hour day, and

Friday -- maybe it was to you guys, which I guess would put us on the 10th -- maybe it was to you guys, I guess you would have to look at your calendar, but the federal government certainly knew what I was talking about, and they wanted to surveil for three days.

My doctor said absolutely not. And so quite truthfully, out of my concern for Justin Gatlin in that he may have been being unduly influenced by Mr. Graham, we contacted -and I say "we," through my counsel -- contacted his attorneys and let them know what Justin was doing, and to save Justin from what I figured was being indicted by the federal government for whatever rubric this sort of activity would fall under. I also made a second phone call to Justin Gatlin's attorney, in an attempt to help quiet him, after the September 21st phone call, wherein he indicated to me that there was a conspiracy that I was involved in, that he knew why Llewellyn Starks had beaten me up, that I was acting in concert with Emanuel Hudson, John Smith, and a couple of other guys. And that's kind of running on, but I want to be complete

1 we had gone out and encountered him at a 2 location. And he was extremely intoxicated, and 3 my girlfriend witnessed him receive a phone call 4 where he -- you know, we were in a bar, and she could -- she was at the opposite end -- you know, he took the call at the opposite end of 7 the bar. This was the same day that USATF -- we 8 later find out that USATF and Nike and the 9 Gatlin people met together, and he yelled 10 "what?" I mean, really loud. 11

I was speaking with Mark Wetmore at the time, and Debbie -- I mean, we have all been, you know, pretty close. We have worked together for quite awhile. And Debbie was visibly concerned about Llew and interjected in my conversation with Mr. Wetmore, "What's wrong with Llew?" To which I commented flippantly, "Honey, Llew is drunk."

After that, she decided it would be the best course of action due to his behavior, that we walk him home.

And along the way, he became agitated and further agitated, and I wasn't engaged in conversation with him, Debbie was. She was quite disturbed by his

Q. Did the case have anything to do with the utilization of any substances with regard to a client?

A. No.

It more has to do with a client who showed up distressed and didn't get better, and since they didn't get better and they'd always gotten better before, that it must be my fault.

Page 570

After the investigators showed up in late July and then the news broke, Debbie and I looked at each other, and it was kind of an "aha" moment, and we put two and two together. And then after we read Jeanette Gatlin's quote in the paper referring to the meeting that took place within hours of the assault that took place upon me, it seemed to make -- it seemed more than coincidental.

Does that fully answer your question?

Q. Yeah, I think it does. MR. COLBERT: All right.

Sam?

EXAMINATION

BY MR. CHERIS:

Q. Okay. My name is Sam Cheris. I'm one of the other arbitrators. Could you please give me the background on what the issue was with regard to the sanction that you received from the State of Oregon?

A. Well, I'm prohibited by the terms of the settlement to speak about the particulars of the case, you know, involving what happened and, Page 572

I will go out on a limb. It correlated very closely to a death in the person's family. And other professionals examined the individual and determined them -that it was -- that I was foolish to continue to help them, and that I had damaged myself by continuing to help this person who probably needed to see a counselor more than they needed to see me. And I really am going out on a limb there. But I will provide that information.

Q. You were asked to give a bonus -you asked to get a bonus from Renaldo Nehemiah?

A. Yes. When we were in Yokohama in 2006, I had a professional meeting with Renaldo wherein I discussed the possibility of a consideration -- I offered up for consideration the idea of having his client consider bonusing me.

I mean, we had experienced a great deal of success, as well published in the papers and seen on television, and, you know, we had the world -- I mean, we were, the world championships, gold medals in the Olympics. I mean, I just offered up the idea. I put it in his hands.

- Q. Were you an employee of Mr. Gatlin?
- A. Was Mr. Nehemiah an employee of
- Mr. Gatlin?
  - Q. No, were you?
- A. Oh, no. I'm a sole contractor for
- Nike.

O. For Nike.

You were in need of money at that time? Your finances weren't very good?

A. That was not what prompted the solicitation of the idea to Mr. Nehemiah. It just seemed reasonable, given the degree of success that we had. He bonused another member of the camp.

It's not uncommon for people of the caliber of Michael Johnson, Marion Jones, people like that, to show appreciation to their staff, and one of the ways to do that is to bonus the athletes, you know, much like you receive a Christmas bonus. And Renaldo had been bonused, Randali had been bonused.

And I asked Renaldo if he would engage Mr. Gatlin professionally to ask about the consideration of a bonus. It was by no means a demand. It was done very professionally. It was not discussed with Mr. Gatlin. I do not consider that professional. It was only discussed with Mr. Nehemiah.

mr. Nenemian.

Q. How did you feel about the fact that you were rebuffed and not given any bonus?

A. I don't think that "rebuffed" is the correct term. I mean, I was employed by Nike. It was an idea that was floated across the table.

And of course, I was -- would I be happier if someone bonused me? Yes. But did it change the course of my behavior? In no way did it change that.

Q. When you heard of Justin Gatlin's positive tests, what came to your mind as the possibility of how this occurred?

A. I had no idea. I had no idea how it could have occurred.

Q. Did you do any introspection as to whether anything you did might have inadvertently caused this?

A. Well, I knew that nothing that I did would have inadvertently caused it.

Q. Did you sit down with Mr. Gatlin or

Page 575

Mr. Nehemiah or Mr. Graham and say, Let's brainstorm as a team and try to figure out what this is?

A. Absolutely. I worked together with Justin Gatlin's investigators to begin with. I gave them a -- well, after I -- when they showed up, I called Justin to make sure that they weren't posing as someone else. They had indicated to me that they were working with the federal government, which did not turn out to be true. But, aside from that mistruth, they were working with Justin, and that was good enough for me.

And I was not well at the time, but I gave them a five- to six-hour interview at my home, wherein I provided them a full history of what I had done, a description of all of my techniques, provided them with samples straight out of my materials, my -- you know, the recent -- the most recent stuff that I had used on him; and followed up with them with requests for them to give me a fair and independent polygraph examination. I probably asked them three times. I asked Justin to help clear me, so that they could move on to discover what had happened, by polygraphing me.

I also asked Mr. Nehemiah to polygraph me, as well as the federal government, in my first encounter with Mr. Tygart, and even went as far as Amy Shipley of the Washington Post. I suggested that she get all of these people together and try to establish some fair and determined effort to sit me down and do whatever it is they do in order so that the investigation could move forward in the right direction, because as long as they were going to be pointing the finger at me, they were going in the wrong direction.

And I mean, I don't know what more I could have done. I cooperated fully.

Q. The product Voltaren that you used, is this the Emulgel, E-m-u-l-g-e-l from Novartis? Or is it a different product?

A. Yeah, Novartis, that's -- I recognize that. I mean, I haven't looked at a bottle of Voltaren probably since I gave it to them.

There's two types. There's the Emulgel, and then there's Lipigel.

O. Right.

is you can get whatever you want in Mexico, and his wife is Spanish. He actually says his wife works for the FBI, was his claim, and she was an FBI agent and was bilingual, and so, I guess he had some lingo, but -- what's the question?

O. Well, I guess I'm just trying to figure out -- I'm trying to figure out why were you furious? It seems to me if he was buying it for himself, it would be okay. If he was in Mexico, obviously, he shouldn't be transporting it across the border.

But if he was buying it for other people, it seems to me -- especially for athletes -- that would be a valid reason for being furious.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you also talked about being careful about selecting the products that you used for the athletes?

A. Yes.

Q. And I'm trying to figure out: What caused you to be that careful?

 Well, it was the way they taught us, you know? It wasn't atypical to have other coaches trying to get close to you and stare inside your bag, or whatever, and there was always rumors of drug talks on the circuit and all of this innuendo.

And I certainly -- you know -- well, Trevor, you know, C.J., Marion, everybody was very -- you know, when they -- when it first began -- I was the greenhorn on the circuit, and, you know, one of the first things was you keep strict control of all of your material, and you don't talk to the press.

Q. And when you say "they" taught us, who is "they"?

A. C.J. Hunter, Trevor Graham, Charlie Wells, and I guess, by some extension Marion Jones, because, you know, we had a good rapport.

Q. Have you ever come across anything else that caused you concern about illegal substances or prohibited substances while you were working with -- during this period with Nike?

A. No, not at all. That includes my involvement all the way back to 1998 - well, the only thing. No, no. I mean, I was -- I was suspicious and voiced my concerns to Nike when I performed services on a couple of athletes who later became involved in the BALCO investigation. But I quickly learned that my employer was not concerned about these issues, and it was probably best if I just didn't bring it up.

Q. Now, you talked also about being careful with your bags while you were traveling to events; is that correct?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that correct?

Q. And did you ever communicate the fact that you took such care to any athletes?

A. Well, it was well known, because they were also -- every athlete is instructed to never accept an open water bottle. Always secure your bags. Never leave anything out in the open when you are not able to keep it in eyesight or attend to it. And it's just -- you know, those are just kind of the rules of the road.

Q. But how would they know you were careful?

A. My degree of professionalism, I would assume.

Q. So nobody would have told them?

A. I'm sorry. I don't understand.

Told them -- it was --

Q. I'm trying to figure out --

A. I mean, when Trevor is screaming at Shawn Crawford for leaving his water bottle out and leaving his bag out, just sitting there, and walks away to a competition, other athletes kind of learn by extension, you know.

Q. But how would other athletes learn 25 to have faith and trust in what you were doing?

And I have had many people, you know, contact me and demonstrate, you know, their sadness over what's happened to me, and, you know, that I got hurt, and, you know, that it will all -- assuring me that it will all go away, and I will be back out there some day soon, and, you know, get well soon, and that kind of stuff.

representation prior to that? A. I initially back in his sophomore season at the NCAA at Baton Rouge -- I don't typically ever recruit underclassmen. I play by the rules, so -- but I also want to be considered in case they do turn pro, I at least want people to know that I'm interested.

So I had never met with Justin personally. I met with his family, mother and father, at a hotel in Baton Rouge, and let them know if their son was contemplating turning professional, I did want to be considered, yes.

- Q. You gave a sales pitch?
- 15 A. Yes, I did.
- 16 Could you have given them a better 17 one?

18 A. Well, it wasn't good enough, because 19 he signed with another agent for the first seven 20 months, so I lost that one, but they knew who I 21 was.

- 22 I was just teasing you. Q.
- 23 Yeah, I know.
- So you have been with Justin since 24

25 2003?

One prime example was in September, we were in New York City, and he had a track meet in Asia that he was leaving about two or three days after this promotional event, and he had some running flats on that weren't -- they were a little tight on him. He just didn't like the feel of them. So he took them off and left them in the hotel. And then he got to Japan, and he didn't have any training flats, so, you know, we're scrambling to find training flats.

12 But for me, I'm thinking flats, 13 track and field event, they go hand in hand, but, you know, he just didn't focus on it.

So it's those types of things, where you could -- you could tell him something and maybe an hour later ask, and he may not remember that you even said it. So you have to kind of implore on him, I did tell you this, and walk him through it, and he might remember it.

- Q. Did you find because of this that he became very reliant on his -- what I think you said -- support circle or something?
- A. Yeah. Well -- and to put it in context, it's one thing to have ADD. It's

- A. The fall of 2003.
  - The fall? Q.
- 3
  - O. Are you aware that Justin has ADD?
- 5 A. I am.
  - Q. And how are you aware of that?
  - A. I work with him on a regular basis, so I could see it in all forms.
  - Q. Could you just briefly explain some of what that is?

A. Well, some of the basic things. Fortunately, he has a wide net of a support cast, including our complete staff at Octagon, his parents.

But, for instance, we could provide him with an itinerary in an e-mail -- I think one time he had what was similar to a BlackBerry, and we'd e-mail it, but sometimes he didn't even read the e-mail. Or we could make sure that he had the itinerary, and he may not retain what was on it, and so he would fall back and ask us, What time is my flight, or when am I doing this, or when I am doing that? And I used to tease him about it, because I said, well, why

14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 do we go through the effort of doing all of

Justin Gatlin, we had to have a whole staff. I work with a staff of eight people just in my Track and Field division. And all of us, collectively, had a part in the management of Justin Gatlin. And I had ten other clients that I had to address, but Justin needed -- not because of anything that he was doing, as far as his ADD -- but just in all the demands, personal appearances, photo shoots, magazines, multiple sponsorship commitments. We had to regulate and delegate that. So we all had to be on the same page.

So the best of a person -- myself that doesn't have ADD -- had to have a staff of people I needed to rely on to help me just keep on top of what he was doing. So there's no way that he was going to be able to do it, and including his parents helping us out in any way that they could.

- Q. Are his parents pretty involved?
- A. Oh, yeah. Definitely.
