

1 the natural health of his Florida company, including the capacity to make future debt payments, will be
2 diminished, affecting his fellow stockholders, as well as himself. In summary, the model posits that a
3 violation of the Ninth Amendment to the Constitution for the United States would have repercussions in 4 terms of lowered morale, and the appurtenant effects on productivity of workers, at St. Joe Company plus
5 other Florida real estate operating companies via denial of free enterprise and disparaging of liberty.

6 Mr. Connerat humbly seeks to bring to the attention of the Court a facet of the unlawful nature of 7 "the Act" which not been argued heretofore. This is a judicial purpose for having such a brief as is being
8 presented here. Such a high profile case would not lend itself to either side accepting such a brief, written 9 by an ordinary Florida man, who spent much of this day at repose. Therefore, it is requested that the Hon.
10 Judge Vinson grant leave in this special circumstance. What is attached as the final page of this brief is a 11 Certified Copy of a Notice filed in the jurisdiction of Pinellas county. This document is admissible as 12 fact, and serves as prima facie evidence that "the Act" is not valid as Law, due to the circumstance that 13 the underlying Bill was signed on March 23, 2010, by a Defendant who just five (5) days earlier admitted,
14 in a Florida Court, that he was ineligible to hold the office entitling him to sign such Bill into Law.

15 With the actual document attached, and with nothing further, this friend returns to repose, pleased
16 to be a "Friend" of all Courts and to lend support to the State of Florida, whose motto is one and the same
17 as that of our Nation: IN GOD WE TRUST.

18 I hereby certify that the foregoing statements made by me are true, to the best of my knowledge.
19 I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements made by me is willfully false, or if not made in good
20 faith, I am subject to punishment.

21 Respectfully submitted (via U.S.P.S. 1st Class Mail) on November 30, 2010.

22 Both Plaintiff and Defendant served via U.S.P.S. 1st Class Mail on November 30, 2010.

The final paragraph reading:

And WHEREAS the Plaintiff seeks to fulfill his promise to record,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that this document represents a recorded ADMISSION OF INELIGIBILITY by the Defendant, A CONFESSION IN OPEN COURT, AND THE BASIS FOR AN ACTION OF TREASON, in this State and in any other jurisdiction which may deem such tacit admission as fact.
