THIS MATTER is before the Court sua sponte and upon Defendant Suntrust Bank's Motion For Sanctions (DE 122), Defendant Toys "R" Us's Motion For Sanctions (DE 200), and Defendant JP Morgan Chase's Motion For Sanctions (DE 102). The Court has carefully reviewed said Motions and the entire court file in each of the above-styled causes and is otherwise fully advised in the premises.

In the Court's previous Order (DE 220)<sup>1</sup>, it adopted Magistrate Judge Rosenbaum's Report and Recommendation (DE 205) that found Loring Spolter, Esq. filed Motions (DE 156) in each of the above-styled causes that were not factually or legally justified and that he did so for an improper purpose. By separate Order (DE 221), the Court entered its Order To Show Cause directing Mr. Spolter to set forth why he should not be sanctioned under 28 U.S.C. § 1927, Rule 11, and the Court's inherent power for filing a Motion in bad faith. As directed, Mr. Spolter filed a Response, wherein he states:

I do not contest that certain factual assertions made in the Motion for Reconsideration (DE 156), although made in subjective good faith based on the information then known, and, for the purpose of zealously representing Plaintiff, nonetheless can be viewed as not being objectively reasonable. Accordingly, I do not contest that sanction [sic] may apply under each authority listed by the Court in its Order.

DE 226, pp. 1-2. Therefore, based on Mr. Spolter's admission of liability for filing the infringing Motions, the Parties, the office of the Clerk of the Court, and the Office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Florida shall submit
