ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court on Plaintiff Gucci America, Inc.'s Application for Preliminary Injunction [ECF No. 6]. The Court has carefully reviewed the Application and the record and is otherwise fully advised in the premises. By the instant Application, Plaintiff moves for entry of a preliminary injunction against Defendants, the Individuals, Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations identified on Schedule "A" hereto, for alleged violations of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1125(a) & (d).

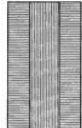

The Court convened a hearing on November 8, 2017, which was attended by counsel for Plaintiff only. During the hearing, Plaintiff directed the Court to evidence supporting the Application for Preliminary Injunction. Defendants have not responded to the Application for Preliminary Injunction, nor have Defendants made any filing in this case, nor have Defendants appeared in this matter either individually or through counsel. Because Plaintiff has satisfied the requirements for the issuance of a preliminary injunction, the Court grants Plaintiff's Application for Preliminary Injunction.

See Declaration of Vanni Volpi in Support of Application for Preliminary Injunction (“Volpi Decl.”) ¶¶ 4-5. The Gucci Marks are used in connection with the manufacture and distribution of high quality goods in the categories identified above. Id.

2. Defendants, through the fully interactive commercial Internet websites and supporting domains operating under their individual, partnership and/or business association names identified on Schedule “A” hereto (the “Subject Domain Names”),<sup>2</sup> have advertised, promoted, offered for sale, or sold goods bearing what Plaintiff has determined to be counterfeits, infringements, reproductions, and/or colorable imitations of Plaintiff’s trademarks. See Volpi Decl. ¶¶ 9-12; Declaration of T. Raquel Wiborg-Rodriguez in Support of Application for Preliminary Injunction (“Wiborg-Rodriguez Decl.”) ¶ 2; see also Compl. Composite Ex. 2 [ECF Nos. 1-2 through 1-7].

3. Although each Defendant may not copy and infringe each Gucci Mark for each category of goods protected, Plaintiff has submitted sufficient evidence showing each Defendant has infringed, at least, one or more of the trademarks at issue. See Volpi Decl. ¶¶ 9-12. Defendants are not now, nor have they ever been, authorized or licensed to use, reproduce, or make counterfeits, reproductions, or colorable imitations of the Gucci Marks. See id. ¶¶ 9-10, 12.

4. Plaintiff’s representative reviewed and visually inspected Defendants’ Websites, including web page captures reflecting various products offered for sale bearing the Gucci Marks via the Subject Domain Names, and determined the products offered for sale were non-genuine, unauthorized versions of Plaintiff’s products. See id. ¶¶ 10-12.

5. On October 23, 2017, Plaintiff filed its Complaint [ECF No. 1] against Defendants for federal trademark counterfeiting and infringement, false designation of origin, cybersquatting, common law unfair competition, and common law trademark infringement. On October 24, 2017, Plaintiff filed its Ex Parte Application for Entry of Temporary Restraining <sup>2</sup> Several Defendants use supporting domains to automatically redirect and forward consumers to a fully-interactive, commercial Internet website operating under one of the Subject Domain Names. These redirecting websites are identified as such in Composite Exhibit 2 attached to the Complaint. See Volpi Decl. ¶ 10 n.1; Wiborg-Rodriguez Decl. ¶ 2 n.1; see generally Compl. Composite Ex. 2 [ECF Nos. 1-2 through 1-7].

Order and Preliminary Injunction [ECF No. 6]. On October 24, 2017, the Court entered an Order Granting Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order [ECF No. 7] and temporarily restrained Defendants from infringing Plaintiff's Marks at issue. Pursuant to the Court's Order on October 24, 2017, Plaintiff properly served Defendants with a copy of the Complaint, together with a copy of the October 24, 2017 Order. Thereafter, Certificates of Service were filed confirming service on Defendants. [ECF Nos. 10, 11, & 12].

II. LEGAL STANDARD

In order to obtain a preliminary injunction, a party must demonstrate “(1) a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; (2) that irreparable injury will be suffered if the relief is not granted; (3) that the threatened injury outweighs the harm the relief would inflict on the non-movant; and (4) that the entry of the relief would serve the public interest.” Schiavo ex. rel Schindler v. Schiavo, 403 F.3d 1223, 1225–26 (11th Cir. 2005) (per curiam); see also Levi Strauss & Co. v. Sunrise Int'l. Trading Inc., 51 F.3d 982, 985 (11th Cir. 1995).

III. ANALYSIS

The declarations Plaintiff submitted in support of its Application for Preliminary Injunction support the following conclusions of law:

A. Plaintiff has a very strong probability of proving at trial that consumers are likely to be confused by Defendants' advertisement, promotion, sale, offer for sale, or distribution of goods bearing counterfeits, reproductions, or colorable imitations of the Gucci Marks, and that the products Defendants are selling and promoting for sale are copies of Plaintiff's products that bear copies of the Gucci Marks.

B. Because of the infringement of the Gucci Marks, Plaintiff is likely to suffer immediate and irreparable injury if a preliminary injunction is not granted. It clearly appears from the following specific facts, as set forth in Plaintiff's Complaint, Application for Preliminary Injunction, and accompanying declarations on file, that immediate and irreparable loss, damage, and injury will result to Plaintiff and to consumers because it is more likely true than not that:

1. Defendants own or control Internet websites, domain names, or website businesses which advertise, promote, offer for sale, or sell goods bearing counterfeit and infringing trademarks in violation of Plaintiff's rights; and

2. There is good cause to believe that more counterfeit and infringing products bearing Plaintiff's trademarks will appear in the marketplace; that consumers are likely to be misled, confused, and disappointed by the quality of these products; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for its genuine products and an unnatural erosion of the legitimate marketplace in which it operates.

C. The balance of potential harm to Defendants in restraining their trade in counterfeit and infringing branded goods if a preliminary injunction is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its reputation, and its goodwill as a manufacturer and distributor of quality products, if such relief is not issued; and

D. The public interest favors issuance of the preliminary injunction in order to protect Plaintiff's trademark interests and protect the public from being defrauded by the palming off of counterfeit goods as Plaintiff's genuine goods.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Plaintiff's Application for Preliminary Injunction [ECF No. 6] is GRANTED as follows:

(1) Each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order are hereby restrained and enjoined as follows:

- a. From manufacturing, importing, advertising, promoting, offering to sell, selling, distributing, or transferring any products bearing the Gucci Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks, other than those actually manufactured or distributed by Plaintiff; and
- b. From secreting, concealing, destroying, selling off, transferring, or otherwise disposing of: (i) any products, not manufactured or distributed by Plaintiff, bearing the Gucci Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks; or (ii) any evidence relating to the manufacture, importation, sale, offer for sale, distribution, or transfer of any products bearing the Gucci Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks.

(2) Each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately discontinue, until further Order of this Court, the use of the Gucci Marks or any confusingly similar trademarks, on or in connection with all Internet websites, domain names, or businesses owned and operated, or controlled by them, including the Internet websites operating under the Subject Domain Names;

(3) Each Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, subsidiaries, distributors, and all persons in active concert or participation with any Defendant having notice of this Order shall immediately discontinue, until further Order of this Court, the use of the Gucci Marks, or any confusingly similar trademarks within domain name extensions, metatags or other markers within website source code, from use on any webpage (including as the title of any web page), from any advertising links to other websites, from search engines' databases or cache memory, and any other form of use of such terms which is visible to a computer user or serves to direct computer searches to websites registered by, owned, or operated by each Defendant, including the Internet websites operating under the Subject Domain Names;

(4) Each Defendant shall not transfer ownership of the Subject Domain Names during the pendency of this action, or until further Order of the Court;

(5) The domain name Registrars for the Subject Domain Names are directed, to the extent not already done, to transfer to Plaintiff's counsel, for deposit with this Court, domain name certificates for the Subject Domain Names;

(6) Upon Plaintiff's request, the privacy protection service for any of the Subject Domain Names for which the Registrant uses such privacy protection service to conceal the Registrant's identity and contact information is ordered, to the extent not already done, to disclose to Plaintiff the true identities and contact information of those Registrants;

(7) The domain name registrars for the Subject Domain Names shall immediately, to the extent not already done, assist in changing the registrar of record for the Subject Domain Names to a holding account with a registrar of Plaintiff's choosing (the "New Registrar"), excepting any such domain names which such registrars have been notified in writing by Plaintiff have been or will be dismissed from this action, or as to which Plaintiff has withdrawn its request to immediately transfer such domain names. To the extent the registrars do not assist in changing the registrars of record for the domains under their respective control within one business day of receipt of this Order, the top-level domain ("TLD") registries for the Subject Domain Names or their administrators, including backend registry operators or administrators, within five business days of receipt of this Order, shall change, or assist in changing, the registrar of record for the Subject Domain Names to a holding account with the New Registrar, excepting any such domain names which such registries have been notified in writing by Plaintiff have been or will be dismissed from this action or as to which Plaintiff has withdrawn its request to immediately transfer such domain names. Upon the change of the registrar of record for the Subject Domain Names, the New Registrar will maintain access to the Subject Domain Names in trust for the Court during the pendency of this action. Additionally, the New Registrar shall immediately institute a temporary 302 domain name redirection which will automatically redirect any visitor to the Subject Domain Names to the following Uniform Resource Locator (“URL”) <http://servingnotice.com/G8rjbw/index.html> whereon copies of the Complaint, this Order, and all other documents on file in this action are displayed. Alternatively, the New Registrar may update the Domain Name System (“DNS”) data it maintains for the Subject Domain Names, which link the domain names to the IP addresses where their associated websites are hosted, to NS1.MEDIATEMPLE.NET and NS2.MEDIATEMPLE.NET, which will cause the domain names to resolve to the website where copies of the Complaint, this Order, and all other documents on file in this action are displayed. After the New Registrar has effected this change, the Subject Domain Names shall be placed on lock status, preventing the modification or deletion of the domains by the New Registrar or Defendants;

(8) This Order shall no longer apply to any Defendant or associated domain name dismissed from this action or to which Plaintiff has withdrawn its request for a preliminary injunction;

(9) Each Defendant shall continue to preserve copies of all computer files relating to the use of any of the Internet websites under their Subject Domain Names and shall take all steps necessary to retrieve computer files relating to the use of the Subject Domain Names that may have been deleted before the entry of this Order;

(10) This Order shall apply to the Subject Domain Names, associated websites, and any other domain names and websites properly brought to the Court's attention and verified by sworn affidavit that such new domain names are being used by Defendants for the purpose of counterfeiting the Gucci Marks at issue in this action or unfairly competing with Plaintiff on the World Wide Web;

(11) Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116(d)(5)(D) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c), Plaintiff shall maintain its previously posted bond in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00), as payment of damages to which Defendants may be entitled for a wrongful injunction or restraint during the pendency of this action, or until further Order of the Court;

(12) This Order shall remain in effect during the pendency of this action, or until further Order of this Court.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Miami, Florida, this 8th day of November, 2017.
