Re: Bankruptcy Estate of Massoud Sateri as it relates to Allapattah Services Inc. et al. v. Exxon Corp., Case No. 91-0986-CIV-GOLD
Exxon Station Number 73560
Exxon Class Action Claim Number 3995

Dear Mr. Casey:

As you are aware, I am one of the attorneys who represent the class of Exxon dealers in the DFC litigation against Exxon Corporation.

In 1991, a group of current and former Exxon direct served dealers filed a lawsuit against Exxon. The dealers alleged that Exxon had been overcharging all of its direct served dealers for the wholesale price of motor fuel since March 1983. The dealers filed the claim as a class action on behalf of all dealers who were parties to one or more Sales Agreements with Exxon and who purchased motor fuel directly from Exxon (direct served dealers) between March 1983 and August 1994.

Massoud Sateri is a member of the class, and was not one of the named plaintiffs. On or about July 26, 1995, Mr. Sateri filed for Chapter 7 Bankruptcy in the United States Bankruptcy Court Central District of California. On or about December 5, 1995, the Court discharged the case. Mr. Sateri did not list his interest in the above-referenced lawsuit in his bankruptcy petition. On September 28, 2004, he filed his proof of claim in the above-referenced lawsuit.

In or around October 2007, our office contacted the United States Trustee's Office regarding the claim filed by Mr. Sateri, and the potential interest his former bankruptcy estate may have in any recovery. As a result, on November 1, 2007, the Court reopened the bankruptcy estate and on November 9, 2007, appointed you as trustee.

On or about November 15, 2007, you sent out notices to creditors regarding the recovery. According to your assistant, Linda Miller, no creditors filed claims, and therefore, on September 10, 2008, the bankruptcy case was re-closed and Mr. Sateri received a discharge. However, the estate was closed before funds from the above-referenced lawsuit were received by you.

Accordingly, because the case has been closed, and you as trustee had knowledge of the class action lawsuit, the right to the claim has reverted to Mr. Sateri. You have advised me that the estate has no interest in this claim and that any recovery belongs to Massoud Sateri.

If the above discussion is correct and accurately states your position, please indicate so by signing and notarizing below, and returning it to my attention in the enclosed self-addressed and stamped envelope.

Thank you very much for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Julie L. Fishman
