1 Diet. Menu Foods distributes its dog and cat food throughout the United States to retailers such
 2 as Wal-Mart, Kroger and Safeway.

3 3. Dog and cat food that the Defendant produced caused an unknown number of
 4 dogs and cats to become ill, and many of them to die.

5 4. To date, Menu Foods has recalled 50 brands of dog food and 40 brands of cat
 6 food that have sickened and killed dogs and cats. All recalled food to date is of the "cuts and
 7 gravy wet" style.

8 5. As a result of the Defendant's actions, Plaintiffs and other Class members have 9 suffered economic damage.

10 II. PARTIES

11 6. Plaintiff Stacey Heller has at all material times been a resident of Pulaski, 12 Virginia. Ms. Heller had a pet that became sick and died after eating Defendant's pet food.

13 7. Plaintiff Toinette Robinson has at all material times been a resident of Truckee, 14 California. Ms. Robinson had a pet that became sick and died after eating Defendant's pet food.

15 8. Plaintiff David Rapp has at all material times been a resident of Hannover
 16 Township, Pennsylvania. Mr. Rapp had a pet that became sick and died after eating Defendant's 17 pet food.

18 9. Plaintiffs Cecily and Terrence Mitchell have at all material times been a resident 19 of Seattle, Washington. The Mitchells had a pet that became sick and died after eating 20 Defendant's pet food.

21 10. Defendant Menu Foods is, upon information and belief, a corporation organized
 22 under the laws of Canada that transacts business in Washington State.

23 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 11. Subject-matter jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the
 25 Plaintiffs and Defendant are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds

1 $75,000.00. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state-law claims under 28 U.S.C.
2 § 1337.

3 12. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. § 1331(a) because the
4 Defendant systematically and continuously sold its product within this district and Defendant
5 transacts business within this district.

IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

7 13. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action under Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and
8 (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the 9 "Class") composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by the
10 Defendant and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food. Plaintiffs
11 reserve the right to modify this class definition before moving for class certification.

12 14. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest
13 among the members of the Class.

14 15. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all
15 Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown
16 but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu
17 Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods that may be causing harm to pets.

18 16. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have 19 suffered harm due to Defendant's uniform course of conduct.

20 17. Plaintiffs are members of the Class.

21 18. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of 22 the members of the Class that control this litigation and predominate over any questions affecting 23 only individual members of the Class. The common issues include, but are not limited to, the
24 following:

25 (a) Was the Defendant's dog and cat food materially defective, and unfit for 26 use as dog or cat food?

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT - 3
Case No.

1 (b) Whether Defendant breached any contract, implied contract or warranties
 2 related to the sale of the dog and cat food?

3 (c) Did the Defendant's dog and cat food cause Plaintiffs' and other Class
 4 members' pets to become ill?

5 (d) Were Plaintiffs and other Class members damaged, and, if so, what is the
 6 proper measure thereof?

7 (e) The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and other relief.

8 19. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk
 9 of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendant – for example, one court
 10 might decide that the Defendant is obligated under the law to pay damages to Class members,
 11 and another might decide that the Defendant is not so obligated. Individual actions may, as a
 12 practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the Class.

13 20. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that they
 14 have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained counsel
 15 competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class.

16 21. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient
 17 adjudication of this controversy. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the
 18 size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members,
 19 few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs
 20 Defendant has committed against them.

21 22. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendant's
 22 violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendant will continue to enjoy
 23 the fruits and proceeds of its unlawful misconduct.

24 23. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims,
 25 economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision.

24. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendant's common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class members.

25. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendant.

26. In the absence of a class action, Defendant would be unjustly enriched because it would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

27. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

1 35. Lhotse became extremely ill during the end of January 2007. On February 1,
 2 2007, Ms. Robinson took Lhotse to a veterinarian, who informed her that Lhotse had suffered
 3 kidney failure. On February 15, 2007, Lhotse had to be euthanized.

4 36. Plaintiff David Rapp was the owner of a male dog named Buck.

5 37. Mr. Rapp purchased Weiss Total Pet wet-style dog food for Buck to consume.

6 38. Buck became extremely ill in early February 2007. On February 10, 2007, Mr.
 7 Rapp took Buck to a veterinarian, who informed him that Buck had suffered kidney failure.
 8 Buck died soon afterwards.

9 39. Plaintiffs Cecily and Terrence Mitchell were the owners of a male cat named 10 Yoda.

11 40. The Mitchells purchased Iams wet cat food from QFC for Yoda to consume.

12 41. Yoda became extremely ill and died after eating Iams wet pouches.

13 42. In March 2007, Menu Foods recalled 50 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style dog 14 food and 40 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style cat food that had caused dogs and pets to become 15 ill. One common symptom in the sick animals was kidney failure.

16 43. The Special Kitty wet cat food from Wal-Mart that Callie consumed for several 17 years before her death is one of the brands that Merlu Foods recalled.

18 44. The Priority U.S. brand wet dog food from Safeway that Lhotse consumed before 19 her death is also one of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

20 45. The Weiss Total Pet wet-style dog food that Buck consumed before his death is 21 another of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

22 46. The Iams wet cat food from QFC that Yoda consumed years before his death is 23 also one of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

24 47. As a result of Defendant's acts and omissions Plaintiffs and other Class members 25 have suffered economic damage.

 CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT - 6
 Case No.

1 VI. BREACH OF CONTRACT

2 48. Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

3 49. Plaintiffs and Class members purchased pet food produced by the Defendant
4 based on the understanding that the food was safe for their pets to consume.

5 50. The pet food produced by the Defendant was not safe for pets to consume and 6 caused dogs and cats to become ill. The unsafe nature of the pet food constituted a breach of 7 contract.

8 51. As a result of the breach Plaintiffs and Class members suffered damages that may 9 fairly and reasonably be considered as arising naturally from the breach or may reasonably be 10 supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they made the contract, as 11 the probable result of the breach of it.

12 VII. UNJUST ENRICHMENT

13 52. Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

14 53. Defendant was and continues to be unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiffs 15 and other Class members.

16 54. Defendant should be required to disgorge this unjust enrichment.

No. CV 07-0455 JCC

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Suzanne E. Johnson and Craig R. Kleemann ("Plaintiffs"), by and through their undersigned attorneys, bring this civil action for damages on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated against the above-named Defendant and complain and allege as follows:

L. NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiffs bring this action as a Class Action under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by defendant Menu Foods and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food.

2. The Defendant is a producer of, inter alia, dog and cat food. Menu Foods produces dog and cat food sold under familiar brand names such as Iams, Eukanuba and Science

1 Diet. Menu Foods distributes its dog and cat food throughout the United States to retailers such
 2 as Wal-Mart, Kroger and Safeway.

3 3. Dog and cat food that the Defendant produced caused an unknown number of
 4 dogs and cats to become ill, and many of them to die.

5 4. To date, Menu Foods has recalled 50 brands of dog food and 40 brands of cat
 6 food that have sickened and killed dogs and cats. All recalled food to date is of the "cuts and
 7 gravy wet" style.

8 5. As a result of the Defendant's actions, Plaintiffs and other Class members have 9 suffered economic damage.

10 II. PARTIES

11 6. Plaintiffs Suzanne E. Johnson and Craig R. Kleemann have at all material times
 12 been residents of Meridian, Idaho. Ms. Johnson and Mr. Kleemann have a pet that became sick
 13 after eating Defendant's pet food.

14 7. Defendant Menu Foods is, upon information and belief, a corporation organized
 15 under the laws of Canada that transacts business in Washington State.

16 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

17 8. Subject-matter jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the
 18 Plaintiffs and Defendant are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds 19 $75,000.00. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state-law claims under 28 U.S.C.
 20 § 1337.

21 9. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. § 1331(a) because the
 22 Defendant systematically and continuously sold its product within this district and Defendant
 23 transacts business within this district.

24 IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

25 10. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action under Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and
 26 (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the

1 "Class") composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food that was produced by the
 2 Defendant and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food. Plaintiffs
 3 reserve the right to modify this class definition before moving for class certification.

4 11. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest
 5 among the members of the Class.

6 12. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all
 7 Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown
 8 but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu
 9 Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods that may be causing harm to pets.

10 13. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have 11 suffered harm due to Defendant's uniform course of conduct.

12 14. Plaintiffs are members of the Class.

13 15. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of
 14 the members of the Class that control this litigation and predominate over any questions affecting 15 only individual members of the Class. The common issues include, but are not limited to, the
 16 following:

17 (a) Was the Defendant's dog and cat food materially defective, and unfit for 18 use as dog or cat food?

19 (b) Whether Defendant breached any contract, implied contract or warranties
 20 related to the sale of the dog and cat food?

21 (c) Did the Defendant's dog and cat food cause Plaintiffs' and other Class
 22 members' pets to become ill?

23 (d) Were Plaintiffs and other Class members damaged, and, if so, what is the 24 proper measure thereof?

25 (e) The appropriate form of injunctive, declaratory and other relief.

1 16. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk
 2 of establishing incompatible standards of conduct for the Defendant – for example, one court
 3 might decide that the Defendant is obligated under the law to pay damages to Class members,
 4 and another might decide that the Defendant is not so obligated. Individual actions may, as a
 5 practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of the Class.

6 17. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that they
 7 have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained counsel
 8 competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class.

9 18. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient
 10 adjudication of this controversy. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the
 11 size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members,
 12 few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs
 13 Defendant has committed against them.

14 19. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendant's
 15 violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendant will continue to enjoy
 16 the fruits and proceeds of its unlawful misconduct.

17 20. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims,
 18 economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision.

19 21. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain
 20 class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted
 21 methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendant's
 22 common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class 23 members.

24 22. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it
 25 as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which 26 members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendant.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT - 4
 Case No.

23. In the absence of a class action, Defendant would be unjustly enriched because it would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

24. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

25. Plaintiffs Suzanne E. Johnson and Craig R. Klemann are owners of a male cat named Ollie.

26. Ms. Johnson and Mr. Klemann purchased Special Kitty wet cat food from Wal-Mart and Pet Pride wet cat food from Fred Meyer for Ollie to consume.

27. Ollie ate the Special Kitty and Pet Pride brand wet-style cat food for several years before becoming ill.

28. Ollie became extremely ill after consuming Defendant's cat food and now suffers from kidney problems.

29. In March 2007, Menu Foods recalled 50 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style dog food and 40 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style cat food that had caused dogs and pets to become ill. One common symptom in the sick animals was kidney failure.

30. The Special Kitty wet cat food from Wal-Mart and the Pet Pride wet cat food from Fred Meyer that Ollie consumed for several years before becoming ill are brands that Menu Foods recalled.

31. As a result of Defendant's acts and omissions Plaintiffs and other Class members have suffered economic damage.

VI. BREACH OF CONTRACT

VIII UNLAWFUL, DECEPTIVE AND UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

2 dogs and cats to become ill and die.

III. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

14. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action pursuant to Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the "Class") composed of all persons who purchased any dog or cat food which was produced by the defendants and/or has had a dog or cat become ill or die as a result of eating the food. Plaintiffs reserve the right to modify this class definition prior to moving for class certification.

15. This action has been brought and may be properly maintained as a class action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the following reasons:

a. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest among the members of the Class;

b. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown but is estimated to be at least in the hundreds, if not thousands considering the fact that Menu Foods has identified 50 dog foods and 40 cat foods which may be causing harm to companion animals.

c. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom have suffered harm due to Defendants' uniform course of conduct.

d. Plaintiffs are members of the Class.

e. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to all of the members of the Class which control this litigation and predominate over any individual issues pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3). The common issues include, but are not limited to, the following:

- i. Did the defendants make representations regarding the safety of the dog and cat food they produced and sold?
- ii. Were the defendants' representations regarding the safety of the dog and cat food false?
- iii. Did the defendants' dog and cat food cause or allow Plaintiffs and other Class members' companion animals to become ill or die?
- iv. Did the defendants produce a hazardous product for nonhuman animal consumption? If so, did this occur as a result of negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, or intentional conduct?

adam@animal-lawyer.com

1 v. Were Plaintiffs and other Class members damaged?

2 f. These and other questions of law or fact which are common to the members of the 3 Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class;

4 g. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that 5 Plaintiffs have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and has 6 retained counsel competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and 7 the Class;

8 h. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, Defendants'
9 violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendants will continue to 10 enjoy the fruits and proceeds of their unlawful misconduct;

11 i. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the size of individual 12 Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members, few, if any,
13 Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs Defendants
14 have committed against them;

15 j. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims,
16 economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision;

17 k. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain
18 class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted 19 methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of 20 Defendants' common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the 21 individual Class members;

22 l. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it
23 as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which 24 members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendants.

25 m. In the absence of a class action, Defendants would be unjustly enriched because they would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of their wrongful conduct.

16. The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

20 IV. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

21 17. Plaintiffs were the owners and guardians of Shasta, a female Pomeranian.

22 18. Plaintiffs purchased contaminated Eukanuba Adult Bites in Gravy (lamb & rice, beef & 23 gravy, savory chicken) ("contaminated food") on or about February 16, 2007 from 24 Petsmart.

19. Plaintiffs started feeding the contaminated food to Shasta on or about March 15, 2007.

20. After eating the contaminated food, Shasta became extremely ill, causing the Plaintiffs to take her to a veterinarian on or about March 19, 2007. The veterinarian informed them that Shasta suffered devastatingly acute renal failure. On or about March 20, 2007, Shasta arrested and died.

21. Plaintiffs witnessed Shasta's deceased body shortly after she died and before a substantial change in her condition and location.

22. In March 2007 Menu Foods recalled 50 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style dog food and 40 brands of cuts and gravy wet-style cat food which had caused dogs and cats to become ill. One common symptom in the sick animals was kidney failure, also known as acute renal failure.

23. The contaminated food that Shasta consumed is one of the brands that Menu Foods recalled.

24. The Plaintiffs lost Shasta's intrinsic value, as based on her unique qualities, characteristics, training, and bond, as well as the loss of her utility, companionship, love, affection, and solace. At the time of her death, Shasta had no fair market value and could not be replaced or reproduced. Rather, she had an intrinsic value.

25. The Plaintiffs owned and formed a relationship with Shasta for 11 years. She was a close family companion throughout that period and had special value, aiding Plaintiffs in their enjoyment of life, well-being, growth, development, and daily activities.

26. As a result of Defendants' actions causing Shasta's death, the Plaintiffs have suffered loss of enjoyment of life, interference with use and quiet enjoyment of their realty and personality, and general damages pertaining to loss of use.

27. As a result of Defendants' acts and omissions the Plaintiffs and other Class members have suffered emotional and economic damage, including but not limited to mental anguish, loss or reduction of enjoyment of life, interference with use and quiet enjoyment of realty and/or personality, wage loss, current and future veterinary and health-related bills, depreciation in or extinguishment of intrinsic, special, unique, or peculiar value, loss of use and/or companionship, actual, incidental, and consequential damages.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF – UNJUST ENRICHMENT

1 29. Defendants should be required to disgorge this unjust enrichment.

2 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF – UNLAWFUL, DECEPTIVE, UNFAIR BUSINESS
3 PRACTICES

4 30. Defendants' sale of tainted pet food constitutes an unlawful, deceptive and unfair
5 business act within the meaning of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86 et seq., and similar statutory enactments of other states (including consumer protection and consumer sales practice acts).

6 31. Defendants' sale of hazardous dog and cat food has the capacity to deceive a substantial portion of the public and to affect the public interest.

7 32. As a result of Defendants' unfair or deceptive acts or practices, Plaintiffs and other class
8 members suffered injuries in an amount to be proven at trial.

9 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF – BREACH OF WARRANTY

10 33. Cat food and dog food produced by Menu Foods are "goods" within the meaning of 11 Uniform Commercial Code Article 2.

12 34. Defendants' conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied or express warranty of affirmation.

13 35. Defendants' conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied warranty of 14 merchantability.

15 36. Defendants' conduct as described herein constitutes breach of an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

16 37. As a proximate result of the aforementioned wrongful conduct and breach, Plaintiffs and 17 other class members have suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial.
18 Defendants had actual or constructive notice of such damages.

19 FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – DECLARATORY RELIEF

20 38. This court has the authority to render a declaratory judgment pertaining to Plaintiffs and Class Members' rights, status and other legal relations.

21 39. Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to a declaratory judgment that, as a matter of law, their companion animals had no fair market value, no replacement value, but, rather, 22 an intrinsic, peculiar, unique, or special value premised on their non-fungible and irreplaceable nature.

23 FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION

1 40. Defendants owed Plaintiffs and class members a duty to exercise reasonable care in 2 representing the safety of its dog and cat foods.

3 41. Defendants falsely represented that its dog and cat food was safe for consumption by 4 dogs and cats.

5 42. In reality, defendants' dog and cat food caused dogs and cats to become ill and, in some 6 cases, to die.

7 43. Plaintiffs and class members reasonably relied on the information provided by 8 Defendants regarding the safety of its dog and cat food.

9 44. As a proximate cause of Defendants' false representations, Plaintiffs and other Class 10 members suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – NEGLIGENT INFILCTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

10 45. IN THE ALTERNATIVE that Defendants' acts are not deemed intentional or reckless,
11 Defendants' conduct was negligent insofar as they failed to take reasonable care to avoid 12 causing Plaintiff and Class Members emotional distress in relation to the failure to warn 13 and failure to produce safe food for nonhuman animal consumption. These actions or 14 inactions caused Plaintiff and Class Members emotional distress. Said emotional distress
15 was manifested by objective symptomology by some of the Class Members.

SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – NUISANCE

16 46. Defendants' behavior described above constitutes a private nuisance and public 17 nuisance.

18 47. Under Washington law, specifically RCW 7.48.010 and 7.48.150 (private nuisance) and 19 RCW 7.48.130 and RCW 7.48.210 (public nuisance), and similar anti-nuisance laws (at 20 common law and by statute), Defendants are liable to plaintiffs for general damages 21 sustained by virtue of their omission to perform a duty, which act, namely, allowing contaminated and poisoned food products to enter Plaintiff and Class Members' households under false pretenses of safety, resulting in pain, suffering, illness, and death to Class Members' companion animals, annoyed, injured, and endangered the comfort, repose, and safety of Plaintiffs and Class Members, essentially interfering in the comfortable enjoyment of their real and personal property and their lives.

1 based on the understanding that the food was safe for their companion animals to 2 consume.

2 49. The dog and cat food produced by the defendants was not safe for companion animals to 3 consume and caused dogs and cats to become ill or die. The unsafe nature of the pet food constituted a breach of contract.

4 50. As a result of the breach, Plaintiffs and Class members suffered damages which may 5 fairly and reasonably be considered as arising naturally from the breach or may 6 reasonably be supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they made the contract, as the probable result of the breach of it.

7 51. To the extent defendants' breach was reckless, wanton, or intentional and defendants
8 knew or had reason to know that, when the contract was made, breach would cause 9 mental suffering for reasons other than pecuniary loss, defendants inflicted upon Plaintiffs and Class members emotional distress.

10 NINTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF – GROSS NEGLIGENCE

11 52. In the event Defendants are not found to have acted recklessly, Plaintiffs and Class 12 Members plead IN THE ALTERNATIVE that Defendants knew and/or should have 13 known that there was a strong possibility that harm would be inflicted on Plaintiffs and 14 Class Members as a result of their disregard in ensuring that safe foodstuffs entered the commercial dog and cat food supply, recalling the tainted product before the illness and death toll rose further, and/or not warning consumers of the tainted product.

15 53. Defendants acted indifferently to the high degree of manifest danger and erroneous 16 destruction of sentient property, to wit, Class Members' companion animals, to which Plaintiffs and Class Members would be and was exposed by such conduct.

17 54. The proximate cause of Plaintiffs and Class Members' injuries was the grossly negligent

21 statutes around the nation) for proximately causing harm to Plaintiffs by manufacturing a

3 liable under RCW 7.72.030 (and analogous products liability statutes around the nation).

4 RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

5 58. Plaintiffs and Class Members reserve the right to amend the complaint to include 6 additional causes of action and allegations as they are discovered in the course of

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

16. Defendant MENU manufactured, distributed, marketed and sold canned and foil pouched dog and cat food to consumers in the United States. These consumers compose the putative class in this action and have rights that are substantially the same.

17. Defendant MENU has issued a recall for over 90 brands of dog and cat canned and foil pouched food in the United States since March 16, 2007, translating to in excess of sixty million cans and pouches of dog and cat food recalled throughout the United States.

18. The consumers composing the putative class in this action consist of: (1) all persons or entities who purchased Menu Food brands at any time and disposed of or will not use the products based on publicity surrounding the safety and recall of the products; (2) all persons or entities who purchased Menu Foods products and fed products to their pets on or since December 6, 2006; and (3) all persons or entities who purchased Menu Food products from wholesale distributors on or since December 6, 2006 to the present.

19. The consumers composing the putative class are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable; the questions of law or fact are common to all members of the class; the claims and defenses of Plaintiff SIMS are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; and Plaintiff SIMS will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

20. While the exact number and identities of the members of the class are unknown at this time, it is asserted that the class consists of thousands of persons. Upon further identification of the recipient class, class members may be notified of the pendency of this action by published class notice and/or by other means deemed appropriate by the Court.

21. The sheer number of consumers composing the putative class are so numerous as to make separate actions by each consumer impractical and unfair and a class action certification represents the superior method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy in question.

22. There is no plain, speedy or adequate remedy other than by maintenance of this class action because Plaintiffs SIMS are informed and believe that the economic damage to each member of the class makes it economically unfeasible to pursue remedies other than through a class action. There would be a failure of justice but for the maintenance of this class action.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

23. Plaintiff's dog, ABBY, died as a direct result of the ingestion of canned and/or foil pouched dog food manufactured and distributed in the United States by Defendants.

24. Defendants distributed their "Cuts and Gravy" canned and foil pouched dog and cat food product by misleading users about the product and by failing to adequately warn the users of the potential serious dangers, which Defendants knew or should have known, might result from animals consuming its product. Defendants widely and successfully marketed Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products throughout the United States by, among other things, conducting promotional campaigns that misrepresented the safety of Defendants' products in order to induce widespread use and consumption.

25. As a result of claims made by Defendants regarding the safety and effectiveness of Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products, Plaintiff SIMS fed their dog, ABBY, canned dog food distributed under the format "Cuts and Gravy", said product being manufactured and distributed by Defendants.

26. As a result of Plaintiffs SIMS feeding their dog, ABBY, the Product manufactured and distributed by Defendants, their dog developed severe health problems, including but not limited to anorexia, lethargy, diarrhea and vomiting.

27. Plaintiffs SIMS took their dog, ABBY, to Dr. Eric P. Steinlage, at All Dogs Clinic, Rogers, Arkansas, who performed tests and surgery on the dog.

28. Dr. Eric P. Steinlage determined that Defendants' Product was the cause of the dog's kidney failure and the dog died on March 16, 2007.

29. Had Plaintiff SIMS known the risks and dangers associated with Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog food product sold under the format "Cuts and Gravy", or had Defendants disclosed such information to Plaintiff, he would not have fed Defendants' product to their dog, ABBY, and the dog would not have suffered subsequent health complications and ultimately died before the age of two.

30. Upon information and belief, as a result of the manufacturing and marketing of Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products, Defendants have reaped huge profits; while concealing from the public, knowledge of the potential hazard associated with the ingestion of Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products.

31. Defendants failed to perform adequate testing in that the adequate testing would have shown that Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products produced serious side effects with respect to which Defendants should have taken appropriate measures to ensure that its defectively designed product would not be placed into the stream of commerce and/or should have provided full and proper warnings accurately and fully reflecting the scope and severity of symptoms of those side effects should have been made.

32. Defendants' had notice and knowledge as early as February 20, 2007, that their Product presented substantial and unreasonable risks, and possible death, to animals consuming the Product. As such, said consumers' dogs and cats, including Plaintiff's dog, ABBY, were unreasonably subjected to the risk of illness or death from the consumption of Defendants' Product.

33. Despite such knowledge, Defendants, through their officers, directors, partners and managing agents for the purpose of increasing sales and enhancing its profits, knowingly and deliberately failed to remedy the known defects of Defendants' Product in a timely manner, failed to conduct testing in a timely manner, and failed to warn the public in a timely manner, including Plaintiff, of the serious risk of illness and death occasioned by the defects inherent in Defendants' Product.

34. Defendants and their officers, agents, partners and managers intentionally proceeded with the manufacturing, distribution, sale and marketing of Defendants' Product, knowing that the dogs and cats ingesting the Defendants' Product would be exposed to serious potential danger, in order to advance their own pecuniary interests.

35. Defendants' conduct was wanton and willful, and displayed a conscious disregard for the safety of the Product and particularly of the damage it would cause pet owners like the SIMS, entitling these Plaintiffs to exemplary damages.

36. Defendants acted with conscious and wanton disregard of the health and safety of Plaintiff's dog, ABBY, and Plaintiff requests an award of additional damages for the sake of example and for the purpose of punishing such entities for their conduct, in an amount sufficiently large to be an example to others, and to deter Defendants and others from engaging in similar conduct in the future. The above-described wrongful conduct was done with knowledge, authorization, and ratification of officers, directors, partners and managing agents of Defendants.

37. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' negligence as described herein, Plaintiff SIMS sustained damages in the loss of their family pet.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION SOUNDING IN STRICT PRODUCT LIABILITY - FAILURE TO WARN

38. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each and every paragraph of this complaint as though set forth in full in this cause of action.

39. Defendants manufactured, marketed, distributed, and supplied Defendants' Product to distribution centers throughout the United States. As such, Defendants had a duty to warn the public, including Plaintiff, of the health risks and possible death associated with using Defendants' Product.

40. Defendants' Product was under the exclusive control of Defendants, and was sold without adequate warnings regarding the risk of serious injury and other risks associated with its use.

41. As a direct and proximate result of the defective condition of Defendants' Product as manufactured and/or supplied by Defendants, and as a direct and proximate result of negligence, gross negligence, willful and wanton misconduct, or other wrongdoing and actions of Defendants described herein, Plaintiff suffered damages.

42. Upon information and belief, Defendants knew of the defective nature of Defendants' Product but continued to design, manufacture, market, and sell it so as to maximize sales and profits at the expense of animal health and safety, in knowing, conscious, and deliberate disregard of the foreseeable harm caused by Defendants' Product and in violation of their duty to provide an accurate, adequate, and complete warning concerning the use of Defendants' Product.

43. Defendants failed to warn the public or Plaintiff in a timely manner of the dangerous propensities of Defendants' Product, which dangers were known or should have been known to Defendants, as they were scientifically readily available.

44. Defendants knew and intended that Defendants' Product would be distributed through the United States without any inspection for defects.

45. Defendants also knew that veterinary clinics, pet food stores, food chains and users such as Plaintiff would rely upon the representations and warranties made by Defendants on the product labels and in other promotional and sales materials upon which the Plaintiff did so rely.

46. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' distribution of the product without adequate warnings regarding the health risks to animals, the Plaintiffs suffered damage as previously alleged herein, including ascertainable economic loss, including the purchase price of Defendants' Product, out-of-pocket costs of veterinary medical tests and treatment for their dog, ABBY, out-of-pocket costs of disposal/burial fees after the death of their dog, ABBY, as well as the pecuniary value.

47. Defendants' conduct in the packaging, warning, marketing, advertising, promotion, distribution, and sale of Defendants' pet foods, was committed with knowing, conscious, and deliberate disregard for the rights and safety of consumers such as Plaintiffs' pets, thereby entitling Plaintiffs to punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial that is appropriate to punish Defendants and deter them from similar conduct in the future.

48. The damages resulting from the allegations asserted under this cause of action, exceed the district court's original jurisdictional limits as described in Section 4 of the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION SOUNDING IN STRICT PRODUCT LIABILITY – DEFECTIVE IN DESIGN OR MANUFACTURE

49. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each and every paragraph of this complaint as though set forth in full in this cause of action.

50. Defendants were the manufacturers, sellers, distributors, marketers, and/or suppliers of Defendants' Product, which was defective and unreasonably dangerous to the Plaintiffs' pets.

51. Defendants' Product was sold, distributed, supplied, manufactured, marketed, and/or promoted by Defendants, and was expected to reach and did reach consumers without substantial change in the condition in which it was manufactured and sold by Defendants.

52. The Product was manufactured, supplied, and/or sold by Defendants and was defective in design or formulation in that when it left the hands of the manufacturers and/or sellers it was unreasonably dangerous in that its foreseeable risks exceeded the benefits associated with the designs and/or formulations of the Product.

53. Upon information and belief, Defendants actually knew of the defective nature of Defendants' Product but continued to design, manufacture, market, and sell it so as to maximize sales and profits at the expense of the public health and safety, in conscious disregard of the foreseeable harm caused by Defendants' Product.

54. At all times material to this action, the Product was designed, tested, inspected, manufactured, assembled, developed, labeled, sterilized, licensed, marketed, advertised, promoted, sold, packaged, supplied and/or distributed by Defendants in a defective and unreasonably dangerous condition in ways which include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following:

- a. When placed in the stream of commerce, the Product contained unreasonably dangerous design defects and was not reasonably safe and fit for its intended or reasonably foreseeable purpose or as intended to be used, thereby subjecting the dogs and cats of the consumers, including Plaintiff, to risks which exceeded the benefits of the Product;
- b. The Product was insufficiently tested;
- c. The Product caused serious illness, harmful side effects, and possible death that outweighed any potential utility;
- d. In light of the potential and actual risk of harm associated with ingestion of the Product by dogs and cats, a reasonable person who had actual knowledge of this potential and actual risk of harm would have concluded that the Product should not have been marketed, distributed or sold in that condition.

55. At all times material to this action, the Product was designed, tested, inspected, manufactured, assembled, developed, labeled, sterilized, licensed, marketed, advertised, promoted, sold, packaged, supplied and/or distributed, it was expected to reach, and did reach, purchasers of the Product across the United States, including Plaintiff, without substantial change in the defective and unreasonably dangerous condition in which it was sold.

56. At all times, Plaintiff purchased the Product for its intended or reasonably foreseeable purpose.

57. As a direct, legal proximate and producing result of the defective and unreasonably dangerous condition of the Product, Plaintiff sustained damage, for which Plaintiff is entitled to recovery.

58. As a direct, legal, proximate and producing result of the defective and unreasonably dangerous condition of the Product, Plaintiff's dog, ABBY, was injured in health, strength and activity and subsequently died after having suffered physical injuries.

59. As a direct, legal, proximate and producing result of the defective and unreasonably dangerous condition of the Product, Plaintiff's dog, ABBY, required reasonable and necessary veterinary treatment and services and incurred expenses for which Plaintiff is entitled to damages, along with the expenses of disposal/burial of the family pet.

60. As a direct and proximate result of the design and manufacturing defects of Defendants' Product, Plaintiff suffered damages as previously alleged herein.

61. Defendants' aforementioned conduct was committed with knowing, conscious, and deliberate disregard for the rights and safety of consumers such as Plaintiff, including Defendants' knowingly withholding and/or misrepresenting information to the public, including Plaintiff, which information was material and relevant to the harm in question, punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial that are appropriate to punish Defendants and deter them from similar conduct in the future.

62. The damages resulting from the allegations asserted under this cause of action, exceed the district court's original jurisdictional limits as described in Section 4 of the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION,
SOUNDING IN FRAUD

63. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each and every paragraph of this complaint as though set forth in full in this cause of action.

64. At all material times, Defendants were engaged in the business of manufacturing, marketing, distributing, promoting, and selling Defendants' Product.

65. Defendants made misrepresentations of material facts to, and omitted and/or concealed material facts from, Plaintiff in the advertising, marketing, distribution and sale of Defendants' Product regarding its safety and use.

66. Defendants deliberately and intentionally misrepresented to, and omitted and/or concealed material facts from, consumers, including Plaintiff SIMS, that Defendants' Product was safe when ingested by dogs and cats. Such misrepresentations, omissions, and concealments of facts include, but are not limited to:

- a. Failing to disclose, and/or intentionally concealing, the results of tests showing the potential health risks to dogs and cats associated with the use of Defendants' Product;
- b. Failing to include adequate warnings with Defendants' Product about the potential and actual risks and the nature, scope, severity, and duration of serious adverse effects of Defendants' Product;

- c. Concealing information regarding the known health risks to dogs and cats associated with Defendants' Product; and;
- d. Concealing the known incidents of illnesses and death of dogs and cats, as previously alleged herein.

67. Defendants intentionally concealed facts known to them, as alleged herein, in order to ensure increased sales of Defendants' Product.

68. Defendants had a duty to disclose the foregoing risks and failed to do so, despite possession of information concerning those risks. Defendants' representations that Defendants' Product was safe for its intended purpose were false, as Defendants' Product was, in fact, dangerous to the health of and ultimately fatal to Plaintiff SIMS' dog, ABBY.

69. Defendants knew that their statements were false, knew of incidents of serious illnesses and deaths in dogs and cats, and knew that their omissions rendered their statements false or misleading.

70. Further, Defendants failed to exercise reasonable care in ascertaining the accuracy of the information regarding the safe use of Defendants' Product, and failed to disclose that Defendants' Product caused possible death in dogs and cats, among other serious adverse effects. Defendants also failed to exercise reasonable care in communicating the information concerning Defendants' Product to Plaintiff SIMS, and/or concealed facts that were known to Defendants.

71. Plaintiff SIMS was not aware of the falsity of the foregoing representations, nor was Plaintiff SIMS aware that one or more material facts concerning the safety of Defendants' Product had been concealed or omitted.

Case 5:07-cv-05053-JLH Document 1 Filed 03/21/2007 Page 16 of 23

72. In reliance upon Defendants' misrepresentations (and the absence of disclosure of the serious health risks), Plaintiff SIMS fed Defendants' Product to their dog, ABBY. Had Plaintiff SIMS known the true facts concerning the risks associated with Defendants' Product, he would not have purchased the Product nor fed the Product to the family pet.

73. The reliance by Plaintiff SIMS upon Defendants' misrepresentations was justified because said misrepresentations and omissions were made by individuals and entities that were in a position to know the facts concerning Defendants' Product.

74. Plaintiff SIMS was not in a position to know the facts because Defendants aggressively promoted the use of Defendants' Product and concealed the risks associated with its use, thereby inducing Plaintiff SIMS to purchase Defendants' Product.

75. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' misrepresentations, and/or concealment, Plaintiffs suffered damages as previously alleged herein.

76. Defendants' conduct in concealing material facts and making the foregoing misrepresentations, as alleged herein, was committed with conscious or reckless disregard of the rights and safety of consumers such as Plaintiff, thereby entitling Plaintiff to punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial that is appropriate to punish Defendants and deter them from similar conduct in the future.

77. The damages resulting from the allegations asserted under this cause of action, exceed the district court's original jurisdictional limits as described in Section 4 of the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION, SOUNDING IN IMPLIED WARRANTY OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY

78. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each and every paragraph of this complaint as though set forth in full in this cause of action.

79. Defendants manufactured, marketed, sold, and distributed Defendants' Product.

80. At the time Defendants marketed, sold, and distributed Defendants' Product for use by Plaintiff SIMS, Defendants knew of the purpose for which Defendants' Product was intended and impliedly warranted Defendants' Product to be of merchantable quality and safe and fit for such use.

81. Plaintiff SIMS reasonably relied on the skill, superior knowledge, and judgment of Defendants as to whether Defendants' Product was of merchantable quality and safe and fit for its intended use.

82. Due to Defendants' wrongful conduct as alleged herein, Plaintiff SIMS could not have known about the risks and side effects associated with Defendants' Product until after ingestion by Plaintiff SIMS' dog, ABBY.

83. Contrary to such implied warranty, Defendants' Product was not of merchantable quality and was not safe or fit for its intended use.

84. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' breach of implied warranty, Plaintiff SIMS suffered damages as previously alleged herein.

85. Defendants' aforementioned conduct was committed with knowing, conscious, and deliberate disregard for the rights and safety of consumers such as Plaintiff, thereby entitling Plaintiff to punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial that is appropriate to punish Defendants and deter them from similar conduct in the future.

86. The damages resulting from the allegations asserted under this cause of action, exceed the district court's original jurisdictional limits as described in Section 4 of the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
SOUNDING IN BREACH OF EXPRESS WARRANTY

87. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference the allegations made in the above Paragraphs.

88. Defendants expressly warranted that the Product was safe and well accepted by dogs and cats and was safe for long-term use.

89. The Product does not conform to these express representations because the Product is not safe and has high levels of serious, life-threatening side effects.

90. As a direct and proximate result of the breach of said warranties, Plaintiff was damaged, and he is therefore entitled to damages as described herein.

91. The damages resulting from the allegations asserted under this cause of action, exceed the district court's original jurisdictional limits as described in Section 4 of the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
SOUNDING IN NEGLIGENCE

92. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each and every paragraph of this complaint as though set forth in full in this cause of action.

93. Defendants owed a duty to consumers of Defendants' Product, including the Plaintiff, to use reasonable care in designing, testing, labeling, manufacturing, marketing, supplying, distribution and selling Defendants' Product, including a duty to ensure that Defendants' Product did not cause the dogs and cats ingesting the Product to suffer from unreasonable, unknown, and/or dangerous side effects.

94. Defendants failed to exercise reasonable care in warning about, designing, testing, labeling, manufacture, marketing, selling and/or distributing of Defendants' Product and breached their duties to Plaintiff in that, and not by way of limitation, they did not warn of the known risks associated with the ingestion of Defendants' Product and did not exercise an acceptable standard of care, i.e., what a reasonably prudent manufacturer or seller would have known and warned about.

95. Moreover, the product lacked sufficient warnings of the hazards and dangers to users of said Product, and failed to provide safeguards to prevent the injuries sustained by Plaintiff's dog, ABBY. Defendants failed to properly test Defendants' Product prior to its sale, and as a result subjected users to an unreasonable risk of injury when this Product was used as directed and recommended.

96. Defendants additionally breached their duty and were negligent in their actions, misrepresentations, and omissions toward Plaintiff, in part, in the following ways:

- a. Failed to exercise due care in designing, developing, and manufacturing Defendants' Product so as to avoid the aforementioned risks to individuals using these products;
- b. Failed to include adequate warnings with Defendants' Product that would alert Plaintiff SIMS and other purchasers to its potential risks and serious side effects;

- c. Failed to adequately and properly test Defendants' Product before placing it on the market;
- d. Failed to conduct sufficient testing on Defendants' Product, which if properly performed, would have shown that Defendants' Product had serious side effects, including, but not limited to, death of the dog or cat;
- e. Failed to adequately warn Plaintiff that use of Defendants' Product carried a risk of other serious side effects;
- f. Failed to provide adequate post-marketing warnings or instructions after Defendants knew, or should have known, of the significant risks of ingestion by dogs and cats of Defendants' Product;
- g. Placed an unsafe product into the stream of commerce; and
- h. Was otherwise careless or negligent.

97. Defendants knew, or should have known, that Defendants' Product caused unreasonably dangerous risks and serious side effects of which Plaintiff would not be aware. Defendants nevertheless advertised, marketed, sold and/or distributed Defendants' Product knowing of its unreasonable risks of injury.

98. Defendants knew or should have known that consumers' dogs or cats, such as Plaintiff SIMS' dog, ABBY, would suffer injury and possible death as a result of Defendants' failure to exercise reasonable care as described above.

99. Upon information and belief, Defendants knew or should have known of the defective nature of Defendants' Product, as set forth herein, but continued to design, manufacture, market, and sell Defendants' Product so as to maximize sales and profits at the expense of the health and safety of the public, including Plaintiff, in conscious and/or negligent disregard of the foreseeable harm caused by Defendants' Product.

100. Defendants failed to disclose to the Plaintiff and the general public facts known or available to them, as alleged herein, in order to ensure continued and increased sales of Defendants' Product. This failure to disclose deprived Plaintiff SIMS of the information necessary for them to weigh the true risks of purchasing Defendants' Product against the benefits.

101. As a direct and proximate result of Plaintiff SIMS' feeding Defendants' Product to their dog, ABBY, Plaintiff SIMS' dog, ABBY, suffered serious health problems and ultimate death.

102. By virtue of Defendants' negligence, Defendants directly, foreseeably and proximately caused Plaintiff SIMS' dog, ABBY, to suffer serious health problems and ultimate death. As a result, the imposition of punitive damages against Defendants is warranted.

103. The damages resulting from the allegations asserted under this cause of action, exceed the district court's original jurisdictional limits as described in Section 4 of the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendants in an amount to be determined upon the trial of this action, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.
