Alan,

I apologize for not getting in touch with you last week. I was out of the office when you first contacted per my previously filed notice of unavailability. When I returned I only had four days in the office and I was battling a bad case of the flu.

Per my previously filed notice of unavailabilty, I am out of town right now, but will be happy to speak with you upon my return. Regrettably, I am unable to read your correspondence. In any event, please ave your assistant coordinate a mutually convenient time to discuss whatever you like once I return to the office next Tuesday.

Best regards,

Dear Catherine;

Attached is my second letter requesting a meet and confer relative to Plaintiffs' 1st, 2nd and 3rd requests for production. I would appreciate a prompt response to my request.

Thanks, Alan
